Subject: Sunshine Ordinance Task Force appointment - Shaun Haines

Dear Supervisors Avalos, Tang, and Cohen:

I am writing in support of Shaun Haines' application to the Sunshine Ordinance Task Force. Mr. Haines is a smart and considerate individual whose even temperament will be an asset to the Task Force.

I know Shaun through his membership in the Alice B. Toklas Democratic Club, where he has clearly demonstrated an interest and experience in the issues of citizen access and participation in local government. We have had multiple fruitful conversations on the topic. Shaun understands the function of various city departments vis-à-vis members of the public, an understanding that will assist the Task Force with its frequent fact-finding inquiries.

I encourage the Committee to recommend Mr. Haines' application to the Task Force for approval by the full Board, and I look forward to working with him.

Thank you,

Lee Hepner

As a lifelong San Franciscan and a product of its public schools, I know the vast diversity that makes San Francisco such a unique place to work and live. As a wheelchair-bound person with a disability, and speaking as an advocate for traditionally marginalized and underserved communities, I have dedicated my life to insuring citizens have access to services in the community and local government. As a Legislative Intern for California Assemblywoman Fiona Ma, I worked at her District Office here in San Francisco. As a student at Stanford University, I founded a disability advocacy group in student government. Currently, as the Systems Change Coordinator/ Community Organizer at the Independent Living Resource Center San Francisco (ILRCSF), I am at the forefront of promoting the advocacy agenda for all people with disabilities in San Francisco. In my previous role as the Community Activities Coordinator at ILRCSF I planned and promoted community events for adults with disabilities. Additionally, as an intern for ILRCSF, I advocated to advance disability rights through participation in the In-Home Support Services Task Force, Youth Organizing, Disabled and Proud, and the Disability Organizing Network. I also organized activities for youth with disabilities, facilitating an advocacy club at Mission High School and organizing, promoting, and facilitating meetings and events for the ILRCSF youth advocacy group. Working with persons with disabilities has allowed me to make meaningful change in the community. I firmly believe that my professional experience and my passion for assisting persons with disabilities makes me a perfect candidate for the

Civic Activities:

As a legislative intern for Assemblywoman Fiona Ma, I had the opportunity to address constituent concerns, attend community meetings, and manage important educational and informational databases. Working as a legislative intern gave me firsthand knowledge of the issues of greatest importance to the public. I hope to bring this experience to the Sunshine Ordinance Task Force to help make government more accessible and participatory for all citizens of San Francisco.
