[COMMENDATION]

COMMENDING THE CENTER FOR CALIFORNIA STUDIES FOR ITS CAPITAL FELLOWSHIP PROGRAM.

WHEREAS, The Center for California Studies is actively seeking applicants who have an interest in government service for the 2000-2001 Capital Fellowship Program with the State Senate and Assembly; and,

WHEREAS, This year's recruitment program includes an effort to attract African American applicants, in particular, who have an interest in legislative policy and a potential career in California state government; and,

WHEREAS, Over the past five years, 43 percent of recruits in the program have been people of color; and,

WHEREAS, Former fellows have advanced from this program and have proceeded to become Capital staff members, state legislators, and even State Supreme Court Justices; and

WHEREAS, The program includes full-time employment, a monthly stipend, health care benefits, and 12 graduate units in the field of Public Policy and Administration after successful completion of the requirements of the academic seminar; now, therefore be it

RESOLVED, That the Board of Supervisors of the City and County of San Francisco extends its highest commendation to The Center for California Studies for its Capital Fellowship Program.
