The City of SAN FRANCISCO

To Whom It May Concern

I, Phillip S. Hogan, would like to apply for a police commissioner's position as soon as the next opening(s) comes available.

I have been involved in various aspects of law-enforcement, fire department and paramedics all through my life.

I am more than confident that I would make an excellent police commissioner for the City of San Francisco, as I fully understand the needs and the function of the residents, merchants and police officers since I am and/or have at one point or another been a resident, a merchant and a police officer.

I know the fact that this city has not offered the position of a police commissioner to any person with a law-enforcement back ground for quite sometime which I personally find that it may lead the city to a dysfunctional, one-sided, unhealthy and a rather dangerous direction, realizing the rapid increase of new kinds of criminal activities in the city and the county of San Francisco.

As most of law-abiding and hard-working citizens are aware, all the major cities in this country appoint someone who has a solid law-enforcement experience and knowledge as a police commissioner.

I strongly feel that the city needs at least one police commissioner with such background, and I am one who is eager to take the task.

I assure that you, as the citizens of extremely special and popular city, would be proud of me as a partner for the best community of the country, should you chose me as one of the next police commissioners.

Please also know my intention does never contain any desire to run for any other elected office of the city.

Truly Yours,
Phillip Steven Hogan

Re: Phil Hogar — Jones Street, San Francisco

Dear Supervisor Peskin;

As a small business owner in our district, I wanted to let you know how much I appreciate the efforts of Phil Hogan.

I understand that recently, Phil was not selected as a member of the police commission. That was the City's loss. Phil is a tireless worker, one who reaches out to both residents and business owners like myself to try and make out neighborhood both safer and prettier.

As an unheralded member of our community, his efforts touch most of us in our daily lives,

I would ask that you and the board reconsider your decision. If it is too late for this occasion, I would hope that you take the first opportunity to recognize his unique skills, his dedication to the community by making him a member of the police commission

To Whom It May Concern:

I am writing on behalf of Phil Hogan. In my opinion he would make a strong community-based addition, as a member of the San Francisco Police Commission.

I have known Phil and his partner Nini Izumi for more than a decade and have found them both to be concerned citizen for a better San Francisco. I believe that Phil's background has prepared him for this position and he has proven his loyalty to this great City. He has been a long time resident and will bring the kind of community activism to the Police Commission that is so important in a diverse city like San Francisco.

Phil will work tirelessly and in the best interest of the citizens of San Francisco and will bring a unique and important perspective to this commission. I would like for you to consider his candidacy for a member of the San Francisco Police Commission.

Respectfully yours,

To Whom It May Concern:

I am writing this letter to recommend Philip Hogan for the position of Police Commissioner for the City and County of San Francisco.

I have been acquainted with Mr. Hogan for over 10 years and during that time I have had the opportunity to observe his commitment to the community especially relating to the wellbeing for his fellow citizens of San Francisco.

As a former police officer, Mr. Hogan is actively involved in promoting a safer environment and is always willing to share his expertise in the field of law enforcement.

In addition, Mr. Hogan as a long time resident of the city has a true understanding and compassion for the changing and diverse landscape of San Francisco.

Dear Philip

Just a short time ago you participated in the first Economic Summit by calling the toll free hot line. Your comments and suggestions helped make the summit a success. As many people noted, the Summit was an important first step in turning around California's economy -- but it was only a first step. True success would be determined by the actions of the Legislature.

Today I am pleased to report to you on the results of our efforts. As the enclosed report shows, the issues raised at the Economic Summit became the agenda for action in the 1993 Legislature. Quite frankly, I am proud of the work we have done.

But our work is not done. I intend to return in January with a workplan for 1994 as ambitious as our 1993 agenda, to continue doing the things needed to restore California's economy and put Californians to work. I hope you will join me in that effort.

I welcome your comments on the 1993 legislative session and your suggestions for further action in 1994.

Sincerely,

P.S. Enclosed is a reprint of a Los Angeles Times article about our efforts for economic development and job growth.

Subject: Recommendation for Phillip Hogan

To Whom It May Concern:

I have lived in rental properties for over ten years, and for the last four-years I have lived in a building managed by Phillip Hogan (a.k.a. "Phil"). Our building is immaculate in terms of cleanliness, organization, function (laundry, heat, etc.) and compliance with posted local building codes and regulations – all because of Phillip.

Phillip embodies those qualities which are most desirable in a building manager; he is vigilant and responsive. Anytime there have been repairs needed, such as a clogged shower drain or a worn out stove, Phillip has insured that these issues were dealt with swiftly and efficiently. I have witnessed Phillip diligently review each situation to determine whether the malfunctioning property can be repaired rather than the replaced, as he is prudent with expense management.

When my friends or family come to visit and walk through our building, the very first words to come out of their mouths are lists of complements regarding how attractive and clean the entire property has been setup and maintained from the front entryway down to the sitting area by the laundry machines. Our building is far superior to other properties in our neighborhood, which is quite the achievement in a high end area like Nob Hill. In addition, because Phillip is constantly walking the premises or out cleaning the sidewalk in front, my loved ones usually have the honor of meeting Phillip and engaging in a delightful conversation.

If you have the honor of working with Phillip Hogan you will see that he is not only the ideal manager but that he is also a wonderful man, friend, and neighbor. Anyone with a rental property would be truly lucky to have Phillip as their property manager.

Please feel free to call with any additional questions.

Regards,
Joyanne McClamroch

Reference Letter

I am pleased to provide a character reference for Mr. Philip S. Hogan. I have known Phil for the last three years as he lives and volunteers within the Nob Hill community, as do I. Phil has taken an active interest in the neighborhood's health as it relates to safety, security and the never ending challenge which we all have of keeping our community presentable.

I am happy to mention that Phil was invited to join the Nob Hill Association and nominated, immediately, to become a board member because of his efforts within the neighborhood and of his past working experience as a police officer in Nebraska. Phil represents the Nob Hill Association on a standing committee in City Hall and has ably guided us through problems within the community regarding Huntington Park and the security of that area.

Mr. Hogan's worthy character would be an asset to any civic committee of San Francisco.

January 21, 2008

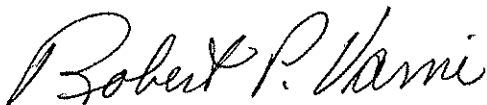

Dear Sirs:

I write this letter in support of the candidacy of Philip Hogan for a position on the San Francisco Police Commission. Philip has more experience and a greater understanding of the field of law enforcement than all of the present Commissioners combined. His objectivity when discussing police issues will have a major impact upon his colleagues when dealing with those problems currently being faced by San Francisco.

I am confident in making the above statements because I have devoted 12 years of my life in law enforcement. From 1977 to 1989 I served as President and Chief Executive Officer of Command Data Systems (CDS). CDS was a private corporation serving the needs of the law enforcement community with computer systems performing 1) Crime Analysis, 2) Police Records Management, 3) Jail Management and, Computer Aided Dispatch.

I have discussed these issues with Philip and have personally ascertained his level of knowledge. I make this strong recommendation based upon his professional competence.

Sincerely,

(415) —

To whom it may concern,

I've known Phill for 5 years now. He took over the managerial position in my apartment building in late 2000-early 2001. And he did a wonderful job of restoring the building and making it safer to live in. He's taken it upon himself to make the tenants feel welcome and proud to live in this building. I know I am. Tenants' safety is a big concern for a building manager, but in my experience no building manager has ever been so earnest about it. Holes were patched, electrical outlets and fixtures were fixed, plumbing was rechecked and sometimes re-piped and even no slip strips were put in on the back stairs all this in the first few weeks of managing the place. It was more than anything had been done to the building in what seemed to be years, even the outside has been repainted with new colors that hearken an age of San Francisco's glory years.

With a ready smile and quick to a joke, Phill puts tenants and people in general at ease. He is as compassionate as he is jovial. I've been able to go to him during hard times and he will lend a sympathetic ear and dole out some sound advice. Even with troubled tenants, who might be a danger to themselves and others, go to him and Phill remains even keeled and keeps a firm grip on the tenant's, and others', well-being a top-priority. He organizes and gets them help in a timely fashion. I don't know of any other manager who would do that.

Phill is well known in the neighborhood and has a strong sense of community. Recently he got together with the Friends of the Urban Forest project and help plant a few dozen or so trees around the neighborhood. On my block alone there are at least a dozen newly planted trees and they have made a somewhat shabby part of Nob Hill more inviting and less droll.

I believe Phill would make an excellent police commissioner. He has always exhibited a strong sense of justice and compassion with the willingness and eagerness to make things right and better. He's certainly put my mind at ease as a tenant in the building of his care.

If there is any need to contact me, please call me at home (415) —

Sincerely,

David Fung

Mr. Phil Hogan
— Jones Street, Apartment 3
San Francisco, California 94109

Dear Mr. Hogan:

Thank you for contacting me to express your opposition to drilling in the Outer Continental Shelf (OCS). I appreciate hearing from you on this issue, and I agree with you.

For a quarter-century our nation's coastlines have been protected by a moratorium on off-shore oil and gas drilling. The New Direction Congress has made a commitment to achieving energy independence and security without compromising our environment. In addition to being environmentally destructive, drilling in sensitive areas in the OCS is short-sighted and will do nothing to resolve our nation's dependence on foreign sources of oil.

As the price of oil reached a record high of $140 a barrel, President Bush and his Republican allies in Congress continue their push to allow Big Oil companies unprecedented access to drill on protected federal land. While hardworking Americans are paying record prices at the pump, Big Oil companies already hold leases on over 68 million acres of federal land on which they are not drilling.

Rather than give away more federal lands to Big Oil, Democrats are telling Big Oil to "use it or lose it." Oil companies must start drilling on the 68 million acres which they are currently warehousing, or be barred from obtaining any new federal leases. This Congress supports responsible, increased domestic oil and gas production and that is why we want the industry to use the 68 million acres of public lands onshore and offshore they are currently allowed to use, not additional protected land.

Protecting the environment is vital to protect the health of all Americans, particularly our children. I will continue to fight for long-term solutions to our nation's energy needs and against environmentally destructive proposals, such as drilling in areas of the OCS that are currently protected.

Thank you again for contacting me on this important issue. I hope you will continue to communicate with me on matters of concern to you. Dear Mr. Hogan:

Thank you for contacting me to express your opposition to warrantless wiretapping. I appreciate hearing from you.

On March 14, 2008, the House of Representatives passed a new version of HR 3773, the FISA Amendments Act of 2008. Introduced by the Chairmen of the House Judiciary and Intelligence Committees, it will update FISA to provide flexible surveillance tools for the intelligence community while protecting the Constitutional rights of all Americans. The FISA Amendments Act of 2008 passed the House on March 14th by a vote of 213-197. It will now be considered by the Senate.

The new version of HR 3773 does not provide retroactive immunity to telecommunication companies that participated in the President's warrantless surveillance program. It does, however, provide a process by which the companies can have a court decide, with due protection for classified information, whether they already have immunity under existing law.

HR 3773 also creates a National Commission on Warrantless Surveillance. This bipartisan national commission, appointed by Congress, will investigate and report to Congress and the public about the Bush administration's warrantless surveillance activities.

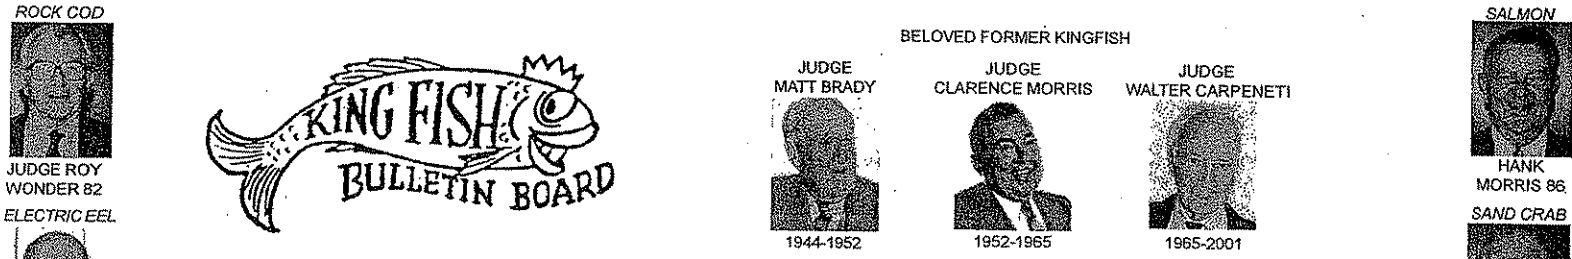

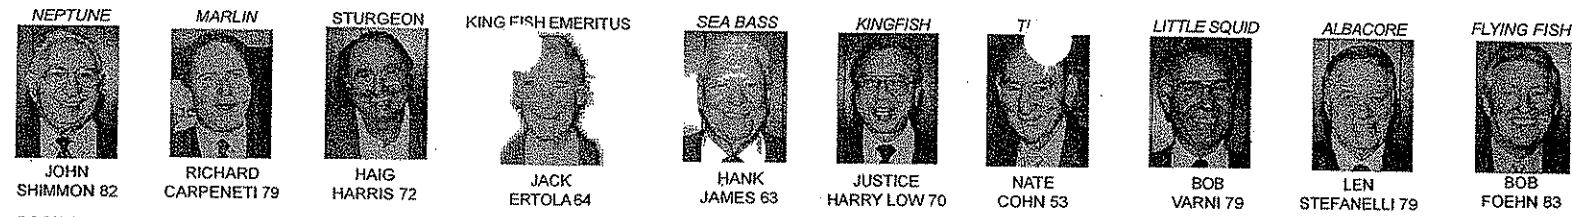

Thank you again for taking the time to express your views on this issue. For more information on this and other issues affecting our country, I invite you to visit my website at www.house.gov/pelosi. I hope you will continue to communicate with me on matters of concern to you.

KING FISH BULLETIN BOARD

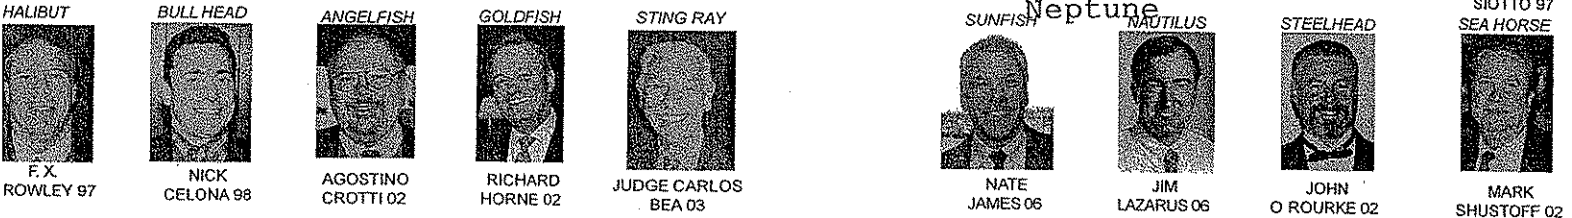

June 8, 2007

Our luncheon meeting today began on a sad note with the passing of our Honorary Member, Al Scoma. We had a moment of silence in respect to Al. We had a report on Hank Morris that he is getting along better, but with pain. Jack Ertola, our Kingfish Emeritus, was in attendance and looked great.

Agostino Crotti's two guests were John Brattessani, Agostino's former boss and former owner of both Caesar's and Prime on the Avenue (lots of "formers") and John Keating, Attorney-at-Law on Civil Rights. F.X. Crowley's guest was his pride and joy, son Kerry O'Shea Crowley. F.X. was the proud father, of course. Kingfish Emeritus, Jack Ertola's guest was Henry Sanz, who says "Roger Boas, Ed Jew, is there any life after one's been on the SF Board-you members should know". Wow! Nate James' guest was Monroe Seifer, Tax Lawyer and Brooklynite. Still, a nice guy. Jim Lazarus' guest was Bill Strawn, who worked together in Mayor Feinstein's office. Bill is currently the Public Affairs Officer for the city's Dept. of Building Inspection. A tough job. Kingfish Harry Low's guest was Kevin Holl, a bright lawyer with Gordon-Creed Kelley Holl & Sugerman, who clerked for Harry. Eddie Powell's guest was Frank O'Neill, a friend of many at the luncheon, including me who date back over 40 years and a Bostonite. Don Reid's guest was John Cigaric III, graduate of St. John's Law School, native of Cleveland, undergraduate of James Madison, practices law in downtown SF, makes his home in Pacific Heights, and a great American. Bob Varni's two guests were Torey Presti, President, National Shipping of America and President, Nob Hill Assn, the oldest (since 1928) neighborhood Assn. in SF and Phil Hogan, Deputy Chief of Police, Grand Island, Nebraska. Gee, Phil, I got a ticket going through Grand Island. Could you.....?

Next week is Friday, June 15th and we will meet and get to see the Mermaids of the Calamari Club and lovely Ann Harris. So, see ya all next Fliday, the 15th.

To Whom It May Concern:

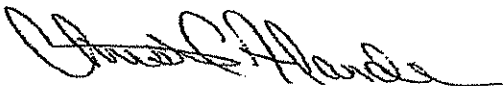

After only a couple of months of living in San Francisco, I felt lucky to find an apartment building like 1456 Jones Street. When my husband and I moved here 2 years ago, we didn't know much about the local area. Thankfully, Phillip Hogan was the manager of our building and, with his usual courtesy and willingness to always help, easily acquainted us with the neighborhood and its inhabitants. With his usual amiable air and his can-do attitude Phillip has time and again shown that he cares about people as well as doing things for the benefit of all in the neighborhood.

As a healthcare professional, I understand the importance of keeping a place safe and its tenants well-informed. Phil has done things like installing motion detectors in the garbage area, increasing the lights in the basement, and putting up signs to inform us of safety information such as fire department procedures, safe package handling procedures, and posted these neighborhood news briefs.

When a tenant has problems, Phil usually has someone within 24 hours to fix it and undertakes the extra effort to keep them informed of the situation. I have seen Phil Hogan on a couple of different instances handle tenuous situations with a remarkable calmness, efficiency, and respect for others. He has time and again, continually improved our neighborhood while displaying a remarkable efficiency of action tempered with a great sensitivity.

In summary, I believe that Phillip Hogan has all of the necessary qualities for making a great San Francisco Police Commissioner. His personal attributes—his strength of character, strong sense of integrity and life-long commitment to serve the public—coupled with his obvious professional qualifications and experiences could only strengthen San Francisco as a whole.

Phillip Hogan
— Jones St. #3
San Francisco, CA 94109

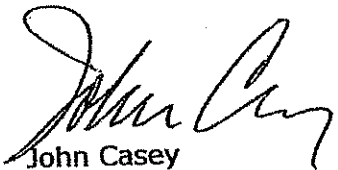

Hello,

This letter is a character reference for Phillip Hogan.

My name is John Casey. I own and manage nearby multi-unit buildings in the Nob Hill area. Philip Hogan is also in the same line of work in the Nob Hill area, hence, this is how we know each other.

I met Phillip approximately 2 years ago. Phillip has been a true asset to the Nob Hill community owners, property managers and tenants alike. With his tenacity and vast experience I would recommend him for the position for which his applying for with the San Francisco Police Commission.

Re: Character Recommendation

Cc: Rules Committee c/o Board of Supervisors

To Whom It May Concern:

Coming to the Russian Hill neighborhood has given me the opportunity to meet and grow close to Phil Hogan, a neighborhood connoisseur if ever there was one. I originally met Phil in the capacity of property manager, and he's become a valued friend and community resource. Phil's warmth, passion, and sincerity have made this neighborhood home.

As a property manager, I have witnessed Phil's compassion and empathy in working with tenants. I have seen his understanding and aid to tenants going through difficult times, and I have seen his expert management of the many tasks involved in property management.

In most cases, this would be the extent of the friendship that could develop between tenant and property manager. But Phil is truly a member of the local community, and he has made me feel one as well. When our neighbors suffered a fire, Phil was there at the scene; often when I walk for errands I bump into him and enjoy a spontaneous conversation. He is dependably informed about local, city and national issues, and his experience as a former police officer clearly shows in his understanding of local concerns. He is a stabilizing force in the neighborhood – he seems to know nearly everyone on a first-name basis, and his connectedness helps the neighborhood function as well as it does.

It has been truly a pleasure to become acquainted with and close to Phil Hogan. He is a trustworthy, compassionate community member, and I recommend him completely and fully for the position of Police Commissioner.

To whom it may concern,

I have known Philip Hogan for over three years. He is my apartment manager.

He has proven himself to be responsible, trustworthy, helpful, and honest.

In addition, in spite of his busy schedule, he takes the time to help others who are in need. For example, he accompanies an elderly woman to the doctor every week. Philip Hogan has all the quality and values to be a strong and ethical leader in the community.

To whom it may concern:

I've been a merchant on Polk Street since ~~1985~~ and Phil Hagan was one of the first neighbors to welcome me and wish me luck. Since then he has always made it a point to check with me and keep me abreast of the problems of our neighborhood. It is so comforting, especially since I am widowed, to know that someone really cares.

I sincerely hope there is room for him on the commission board.

Re: Police Commission
c/o Rules Committee

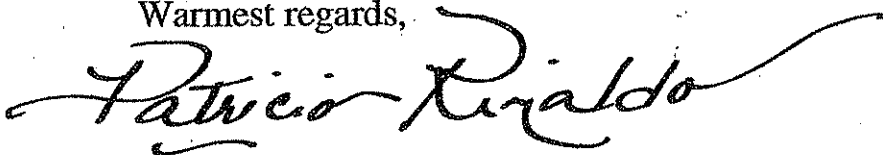

To Whom It May Concern:

I am a former employee of the City and County of San Francisco, serving for 15 years as a Personnel Assistant. In this capacity, I became very aware of the requirements of various City positions, including that of Police Commissioner. I can name no finer candidate at this time than Mr. Phil Hogan. He is experienced, intelligent, hard-working, honest and a credit to all the agencies whom he has served.

I have known Phil since 1994, when he joined a World-Wide Spiritual Organization to which we both belong. My membership goes back 23 years. In our group, Phil is highly respected for his knowledge on emergency training, first-aid skills, City and nation-wide laws and proper treatment of those in distress.

Phil is a friend to all who know him...a kind and sincere gentleman. He comes with my highest recommendation!

Warmest regards,

Dear Sir,

I have known Phillip Hogan for over 10 years because we both go to the same church. About two years ago, I was named the Emergency Coordinator for this organization. To fulfill this role I needed the support of people who are knowledgeable and dependable. I found Phillip a true blessing for the entire process.

I am forever grateful for his willingness to give of himself and his time for the benefit of others. He was well informed and very thorough in his thinking, giving a perspective that no one else imagined. As we all know, emergencies and disasters are not normally something people like to think about. Much of the process was to influence the members. Phillip was honest, responsible and with great stories to tell. I appreciated his willingness to speak out and do what it took to change the direction of our members.

Phillip is not afraid of hard work. He often offers his labor gladly. For example, he went shopping for the fire extinguishers and mounted them in the building. He conducted fire extinguisher demonstrations and gave the members hand-on experience. He painted the curbs, posted directional signs for the firemen; helped in the evacuation planning, plus a multitude of other chores. His services to the members are invaluable.

I believe that Phillip is the leadership and remarkable character that will benefit any organization and community.

Sincerely,

San Francisco Board of Supervisors
1 Dr. Carlton B. Goodlett Place, Room 244
San Francisco, CA 94102-4689

Dear Supervisors,

I am writing to apply for a seat on the San Francisco Police Commission (SFPC). Because of my experience in police policy work and my commitment to social justice, I believe I am uniquely qualified to add a valuable and nuanced perspective to the Commission. Specifically, my experience in administrative law and police policy combined with my LGBT background and diverse life experience make me a compelling candidate for the Commission.

As a progressive attorney with a diversified law practice, I have utmost respect for the rule of law and for police officers of integrity. My father was a firefighter for over 40 years, and my brother was a military police officer. While I have a personal connection to law enforcement, I am also aware many people in traditionally marginalized communities fear police. Aware of this divide, I have worked hard to broker greater trust between police officers and the communities they serve. My experience includes the following:

- In 2000, I served as an appointed member of the Louisville Police Department's Strategic Planning Committee. I drafted recommendations for community policing and use of force reform, which were later adopted by the Mayor and Chief of Police.
- Over the last ten years, I have been a legal observer at over 30 political demonstrations, including actions for LGBT rights, immigration rights, and organized labor. In this role, I observed police activities to document any violation of the rights of demonstrators.
- In 2007 and 2008, I represented four complainants before the Oakland Citizens Police Review Board (CPRB). I learned firsthand the importance of public disciplinary hearings.
- I have practiced administrative law before the Oakland CPRB, the San Francisco Ethics & Planning Commissions, the San Francisco Sunshine Ordinance Task Force, the California Division of Labor Standards Enforcement, and the Social Security Administration.

As an advocate for police accountability for over a decade, my desire to serve on the Commission is rooted in my core commitment to social justice and fairness for all people under the law. If appointed to the Commission, I would bring deep respect for the rule of law and public safety combined with a fervent commitment to civil rights and social justice.

Thank you for your consideration of my application. I would appreciate an opportunity to speak with you to discuss my qualifications in more detail.

Respectfully,

David P. Waggoner
