homeownership. The Board of Supervisors adopted a Resolution that authorized the Mayor's office of Housing and Community Development to submit an application to the state agency California Debt Limit Allocation Committee for the allocation.

The program allows recipients to receive tax credit on their Federal income tax for a portion of the interest paid on their mortgage. Lenders take this credit into account when determining how large of a loan the borrower can afford. The assistance is equivalent to a reduction of about two to three percent in their mortgage interest rate.

The MCC allocation allows the City to expand its homeownership programs to additional low and moderate-income households. Homeownership plays a critical role in stabilizing neighborhoods, so that both the individual families and the City as a whole will benefit.

A MCC Program description explaining the program and its eligibility requirements is available at the Mayor's office of Housing and Community Development. To request a copy of the brochure and list of participating lenders, San Franciscans should call the Mayor's office of Housing and Community Development at (415) 701-5500 or fax (415) 701-5501 or visit our website <http://www.sfmohcd.org> for detail information regarding this program.
