16 Be it ordained by the People of the City and County of San Francisco:

17 Section 1. Findings.

18 The Board of Supervisors finds as follows:

19 1. The Nonprofit Performing Arts Loan Program (NPALP) was established by the 20 Board of Supervisors in 1984. Since that time many economic and political changes have 21 occurred in the external environment affecting the arts.

22 2. Almost $2.3 million has been loaned over the 20-year life of the NPALP,
23 enabling capital acquisition or improvements to 17 small to midsize theaters or performance 24 spaces.
25

1 3. The NPALP borrowers have universally considered the NPALP loans a success
2 in that the loans have enabled the borrowers to present more productions, serve more
3 audience members, and employ more San Francisco performing artists in code-compliant 4 facilities. However, 80 percent of these loans are in arrears, suggesting that the City should 5 reassess the program.

6 4. In August 2003, the consulting firm MacDougall & Co. prepared a program 7 assessment of NPALP and recommended that the City renegotiate the loan agreements in 8 order to assure that the loans were not a hardship to the borrowers, while still requiring the 9 borrowers to be accountable for their use of scarce City dollars.

10 5. The Mayor's Office of Housing does not currently have the optimal level of 11 expertise regarding performing arts spaces or arts organizations to continue to operate this 12 program.

13 6. Grants for the Arts, which has annual funding agreements with all but one of the 14 current borrowers is the City agency best equipped to continue this program and has the 15 expertise to do so based on the following:

16 (a) Grants for the Arts has, over the past decade, initiated capital programs 17 enabling arts organizations to acquire or renovate space totaling $1.5 million;

18 (b) Grants for the Arts advises two nonprofit loan/grant programs on capital needs
19 of arts organizations: the Northern California Community Loan Fund, and the Nonprofit 20 Finance Fund; and

21 (c) Grants for the Arts has supplemented the NPALP program over the years, more 22 than doubling the initial City subsidy of $500,000;

1 7. In light of the above, the Board of Supervisors hereby finds that the following 2 legislative changes are necessary to modify the administration of the NPALP in order to make 3 the program more effective.

4 Section 2. The San Francisco Administrative Code is hereby amended by amending 5 Sections 50.2, 50.10, 50.11 and 50.21 to read as follows:

22 necessary to carry out those responsibilities, including the authority to enter into or amend any 23 agreements that the Director deems necessary to help administer the Nonprofit Performing Arts Loan 24 Program, including but not limited to, agreements with loan servicing agencies. While retaining the

1 overall responsibility for the administration of the program, the Director may utilize the 2 services of the Department of Public Works and the Fire Department in connection with the 3 code enforcement aspects of the program, and the services of the Mayor's Office, Department
4 of Administrative Services, Department of Building Inspection and Real Estate Department in

2 months following the effective date of this Ordinance, the Director shall submit, for review and 3 consideration at a public hearing, a report to the Board of Supervisors containing the financial 4 status on each of the loans in the NPALP portfolio, setting forth (a) any specific criteria for 5 loan adjustments or forgiveness, (b) a plan of action for collection of all remaining delinquent
6 and future loans, and (c) a proposed plan regarding whether NPALP loan recipients may use 7 any portion of their annual City grant funds for NPALP loan repayment purposes.

19 code violations in the facility where they are presently working or acquisitions necessitated by 20 life safety code defects and to arts organizations that have demonstrated compliance with repayment 21 obligations on prior loans from the City or other lending institutions. It is the intent of the Board of 22 Supervisors that the maximum degree of cultural and ethnic diversity be achieved among loan 23 recipients, to insure that minority, disabled, lesbian/gay and other arts organizations may 24 share in the benefits of this program. In administering this loan program, the Director shall
