I am a refugee myself, who fled from persecution in Belarus on account of political opinion. I speak six languages and deal with immigrant community on a daily basis, representing immigrants in Immigration Court, asylum office, before USCIS, and ICE. I volunteer twice or three times a month as a pro bono attorney of the day in San Francisco Immigration Court, representing immigrants in removal proceedings free of charge and thereby serving the interests of undocumented Hispanic population who do not have the wherewithal to hire private attorneys. Fluency in Spanish and compassion to undocumented immigrants is key to this type of work. I continue volunteering as a pro bono attorney with Asian Law Caucus in San Francisco, and provide free consultations on immigration issues to low-income Asian Pacific American communities in San Francisco and the Bay Area.

Business and/or professional experience:

Almost three years of working as an immigration attorney in San Francisco and San Jose, doing removal defense, family and employment immigration, writing appellate briefs in removal cases and representing appellants before the BIA and the Ninth Circuit Court of Appeals. Interpretation at USCIS interviews and translation of documents, supervision of paralegals, case managers, and other office support staff. Conducting presentations on employment and family immigration, doing outreach to the community.

I am an active member of Belarusian community in San Francisco, a founding member of Belarusian-American Association in Northern California since 2002. I am an active member of San Francisco Treasure Island community. My contribution to the community has been recognized by an award from Good Neighbors of Treasure Island Organization.

1. Qualifications representing the communities of interest of San Francisco:

My family emigrated from Eritrea when I was six years old. San Francisco is home to a large immigrant community of Eritreans and Ethiopians. I understand who they are, their concerns, and their experiences.

Bevan Dufty asked me to help organize the Eritrean and Ethiopian communities because their input on the housing debate is absent though it is an issue of concern for the community. I have reached out to the owner of Oasis Café, a D5 resident and prominent member of the community, and I'm working on meeting with the owner of Radio Africa and Kitchen. In addition I'm reaching out to younger members of the community to help with the project.

I understand that immigrants leave their home countries for various reasons. Some are escaping dire circumstances while others leave the comfort of home in order to improve the lives of their children. I watched as my parents worked multiple jobs at once to provide and thrive in their adopted country. They hope that the productivity of their work and by raising responsible members of society that they have contributed to their adopted country. Through my personal experiences I know that immigrants are major contributors to our society and are also generally absent from the political process. My plan is to combine my personal experiences, my training as a community and labor organizer, and legal training to work productively with other board members.

Phil Asgedom

2. Professional experience:

I spent the last six years as a Union Organizer and Lead Negotiator with the Service Employees International Union (SEIU). Many of the union members were immigrants from around the world. The Union was typically on the forefront of immigration issues and we also worked closely with immigrant rights organizations.

I volunteered at the Eritrean American Community Center as a tutor and community organizer. In addition, while in college I spent one summer as a teacher assistant at an adult school that targeted immigrant adults.

Pursuant to Charter section 4.101 (a)1, please state how your qualifications represent the communities of interest, neighborhoods, and the diversity in ethnicity, race, age, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, types of disabilities, and any other relevant demographic qualities of the City and County of San Francisco:

I am an attorney who practices immigration law, exclusively. Through education, personal experience and contacts with persons who are immigrants I have been able to hone the ability necessary to understand how to communicate with the immigrant community. Strive to understand what is needed, whether a person is able to express their need or not. In a lot of cultures, we are taught not to ask for things. This ability allows me to serve the community because it allows me to listen for things not said.

Business and/or professional experience:

As stated above, I am an immigration attorney. This exposes me to different things, including the immigrant populations and the government sector. Which means that if there are services available to them, I am privy to the information thus allowing me to distribute it to my community.

Civic Activities:

I have been a member of the IRC for the last 5 years and in my capacity as a commissioner I understand what having a voice for the community means to the community. I am an Eritrean from the Westren Addition (D5). In my civil capacity, persons of my community began to acknowledge the rights they have as members of our community. Although sometimes, I feel the steps are slow and I want the community to feel ownership in their community I see that the steps that they are building.

I was born in Tehran, Iran and came to the United States to attend graduate school. I made my home here.

I daresay that being an immigrant, has been the hardest thing I have ever done in my life.

When I came to this country, there was no community of Iranians. In the past twenty years, my passion has been to organize Iranian Americans as a community of immigrants and encourage its members to become active participants of a Civil Society.

As a professor at San Francisco State University, I educate many more immigrants and I have developed an understanding of the common themes of what it means to be an immigrant in San Francisco, especially from economic, cultural, educational, family, and gender points of view.

As a woman immigrant from a Middle Eastern country, I have come into contact with many women such as myself and have realized some of the unique issues facing women immigrants from these countries. These issues range from cultural isolation to lack of a voice in expressing their true selves and vision.

Writing and speaking on the issues regarding immigration and also mentoring recent immigrants, have always been my passion.
