3 Resolution declaring October 10, Daniel Pearl World Music Day in San Francisco

4 WHEREAS, Daniel Pearl, noted journalist and former Bay Area resident, slain by 5 terrorists in Pakistan in 2002, would have celebrated his birthday on October 10 of this year; 6 and

7 WHEREAS, Daniel Pearl, through his writing and travels around the world, promoted 8 the importance of cross cultural dialogue and the use of music as an international language to 9 open hearts and minds; and

10 WHEREAS, Daniel Pearl, who played the violin, fiddle and mandolin in a broad 11 selection of styles including classical, jazz, rock and bluegrass, has left behind a legacy of 12 unity, hope and friendship through music and words; and

13 WHEREAS, Daniel Pearl World Music Days, an annual event which takes place every 14 October around the globe, promotes a message of “Harmony for Humanity” in honor of the 15 birthday of Daniel Pearl;

16 WHEREAS, Warren Hellman and the Hardly Strictly Bluegrass Festival is spreading a 17 message of cultural and religious tolerance by dedicating performances to the memory of 18 Daniel Pearl during October; now, therefore, be it

19 RESOLVED, That the San Francisco Board of Supervisors encourages its citizens to 20 attend concerts and support musical artists in this noble endeavor; and be it

21 FURTHER RESOLVED, That the San Francisco Board of Supervisors hereby 22 proclaims October 10, 2007 as Daniel Pearl World Music Day in San Francisco.
