7 were subjected to severe persecution by the Turkish government of the Ottoman Empire
8 before and after the turn of the twentieth century, including widespread massacres, usurpation
9 of land and property, and destruction of cultural institutions and monuments during the period 10 from 1894 to 1896 and again in 1909; and

11 WHEREAS, The unspeakable horrors experienced by the Armenian people at the 12 hands of the Ottoman Turkish government culminated in 1915 in what is known by historians 13 as the first systematic genocide of the twentieth century; and

21 relief, delivering more than $117,000,000 of humanitarian assistance between 1915 and 1930, 22 and saving approximately one million refugees, including 130,000 orphans of the genocide;
23 and

24 WHEREAS, Raphael Lemkin, who coined the term "genocide" in 1944, and who was

2 century; and

3 WHEREAS, Those citizens of Turkey who speak the truth about the Armenian 4 Genocide – such as assassinated human rights activist and journalist Hrant Dink – continue to 5 be silenced by violent means and/or imprisonment, in part due to Turkish law which

8 Armenians in the cities of Sumgait and Baku, Azerbaijan, following a peaceful demand by the 9 Armenian autonomous republic of Nagorno Karabagh to reunite with the Republic of Armenia;
10 and

11 WHEREAS, By honoring the survivors and consistently remembering and condemning 12 the repeated atrocities committed against the Armenian people, as well as the persecution of 13 the Assyrian and Greek populations of the Ottoman Empire, we guard against the repetition of 14 genocide; and

15 WHEREAS, California has become home to the largest and most active population of 16 Armenians in the United States, and those citizens have enriched our state through leadership 17 in the fields of academia, medicine, business, agriculture, government and the arts and are 18 proud and patriotic practitioners of American citizenship; and

19 WHEREAS, San Francisco Armenian-Americans are predominantly descendants of the 20 few remaining survivors of the Genocide; and

21 WHEREAS, San Francisco is proud to join the Armenian-American community in its
