Supervisors Members of the San Francisco Board of Supervisors,

I support the nomination of Sara Barz to the SFMTA Board of Directors! Sara is a leader whose experience and commitment to equitable, sustainable, and effective transportation policies make her an outstanding candidate for this role.

Sara brings a proven track record of public service, a deep understanding of the challenges facing our city's transit system, and a commitment to delivering solutions that benefit all San Franciscans. Her dedication to improving transit access will help ensure that the SFMTA prioritizes equity in its decision-making and investments. Her leadership will be instrumental in guiding the agency to implement forward-thinking, sustainable solutions.

Sara Barz will make a meaningful and lasting contribution to the SFMTA Board, and I urge you to approve her nomination. Her appointment would represent a significant step toward ensuring that our city's transportation system meets the needs of all residents and advances our shared goals of equity, sustainability, and efficiency.

Thank you for your time and consideration!

Dear Board of Supervisors,

I am writing in support of Sara Barz's nomination to the SFMTA Board of Directors.

As a member of the SF Bicycle Coalition, I am excited that Sara is among the 30% of San Franciscans who bike or roll every month.

2025 is going to be a huge year of transition for the SFMTA with new city leadership coming and going, the MTA's financial deficit, and crucially, the passage of the Biking and Rolling Plan which will determine bike planning for the next 15 years.

In this time of great change, we need leaders like Sara Barz who have years of experience in transportation planning and strong vision to make our streets safer for our most vulnerable road users.

I believe Sara Barz' addition to the SFMTA Board of Directors will advance our transit-first policy, and help us reach our Vision Zero and sustainable transportation goals. Please approve her nomination to the SFMTA Board.

Thank you,
Ryan James

San Francisco Board of Supervisors,

As a public transit user, a bike rider, and a car driver, I strongly support Sara Barz's nomination to the SFMTA Board of Directors. While on the SFCTA Citizens' Advisory Committee and through her volunteer work in Sunnyside, Sara has been a dedicated advocate for street safety and equity, with a proven commitment to protecting vulnerable populations like seniors, children, and people with disabilities. Her leadership and expertise will be invaluable in helping the city achieve our Vision Zero and climate goals, and making our city the most pedestrian-friendly in the nation.

Please vote in favor of Sara Barz's nomination.

Vote NO on appointment of Sara Barz to the SFMTA Board

Message:

Dear Board of Supervisors,

I oppose the appointment of Sara Barz to the SFMTA Board.

This four year SFMTA appointment is more appropriately left to the new Mayor.

This candidate should also be opposed for lack of qualifications to deal with SFMTA's precarious financial situation. With enormous looming City and SFMTA budget deficits, financial expertise should be one of the primary qualifications for the next SFMTA Board appointee.

Ms. Barz's history of impractical activism is not what the SFMTA Board or SF needs right now.

Solving the challenges which led to massive city and SFMTA deficits and addressing the slowest economic recovery of any major city in the U.S.A., requires someone who will put pragmatism and fiscal responsibility above impractical ideology. Appointing another activist, like Ms. Barz, who will push to continue the failed policies that have brought SFMTA to its current unsustainable fiscal nightmare would do nothing to help the agency turn itself around and plot a more reasonable, common sense approach to transit that would benefit ALL residents. Appointing a candidate who has a history of supporting non-essential, business-killing, congestion-creating projects is quite the opposite of what SFMTA desperately needs to dig itself out of its financial hole.

The Board of Supervisors needs to read the budget shortfalls as well as the room:

San Francisco doesn't need or want any more hindrances to economic recovery. The actions of the SFMTA Board have a dramatic effect on accessibility for residents, visitors, tourists, and commuters and the continual efforts to make that MORE DIFFICULT need to stop.

In deference to the Mayor-Elect, as well as the interest of fiscal responsibility and much-needed pragmatism, please reject Mayor Breed's appointment of Sara Barz to the SFMTA Board.

Thank you.

San Francisco Board of Supervisors
City Hall, Room 244
1 Dr. Carlton B. Goodlett Place
San Francisco, CA 94102

Honorable Board of Supervisors,

My husband Mikail and I, of 346 Hearst Ave, in the Sunnyside, fully support for Mayor Breed's nomination of Sara Barz to the SFMTA Board of Directors. We are fortunate to have Ms. Barz as a neighbor. As a longtime Sunnyside resident, we've seen our neighborhood flourish with her advocacy, organization and community spirit she brings.

Ms. Barz is deeply committed to her community in San Francisco, as demonstrated by her service on the SFCTA's Citizens' Advisory Committee, as the neighborhood leader of Sunnyside's Slow Hearst group, and as a member of the Ocean Avenue Mobility Taskforce. For the past three years, Sara has organized neighborhood block parties and Halloween celebrations for the Sunnyside neighborhood. Sara led the effort to bring a new street mural to Hearst Avenue, and she's an active participant in the Sunnyside Neighborhood Association.

Professionally, Ms. Barz has built a career in transit that spans the public and private sector, bringing expertise in urban planning, regional transportation systems, user experience and transit access. From her experience developing transit integrations for Apple Pay to transit fare systems at MTC, she has developed and led innovative transit programs to expand access and improve user experience for millions of Bay Area transit riders. As a co-founder of Seamless Bay Area, she also championed efforts to create an integrated, user-focused regional transit network.

As a west side resident and parent, Ms. Barz understands firsthand the challenges facing San Francisco's transit riders, pedestrians, cyclists, and drivers. Her combination of professional expertise and lived experience makes her uniquely qualified to represent and address the diverse needs of San Francisco's communities.

SFMTA needs a leader right now who can help the agency navigate the upcoming fiscal challenges and reimagine its role in addressing climate change, safety and equity. Sara Barz's innovative leadership and collaborative approach are exactly what the agency needs to navigate this critical period.

Sincerely,
Sheila Santos and Mikail Al-Aidroos

Supervisors Members of the San Francisco Board of Supervisors,

I support the nomination of Sara Barz to the SFMTA Board of Directors! Sara is a leader whose experience and commitment to equitable, sustainable, and effective transportation policies make her an outstanding candidate for this role. Her leadership in Seamless Bay Area, in particular, has made a huge positive impact on regionwide coordination among agencies, especially BART and Caltrain.

Sara brings a proven track record of public service, a deep understanding of the challenges facing our city's transit system, and a commitment to delivering solutions that benefit all San Franciscans. Her dedication to improving transit access will help ensure that the SFMTA prioritizes equity in its decision-making and investments. Dear Supervisors,

I'm writing in support of Sara Barz's nomination for the SFMTA Board and hope you will vote to confirm her nomination on Tuesday.

SFMTA is in a perilous position with the fiscal cliff imminent, and immediately needs strong leadership to ensure hundreds of thousands of daily transit riders are not left stranded. Not only does Barz have the professional background and experience to help guide the agency's future, I know firsthand that she has been a strong voice for implementing the Board of Supervisors' Vision Zero, Climate Action, and Transit First policies. She has always worked to hold SMTA staff accountable and to serve as a voice for all who want better transit and safer streets in San Francisco. I know she's thought long and deeply about how to rebuild public trust and improve public processes at SFMTA.

We can't afford an even longer period with a leadership gap at SFMTA. Please confirm Sara Barz to the SFMTA Board.

Thank you,

Message to the Board of Supervisors

From your constituent Curt Cournale

Email cmc@cournaleco.com

I live in District

Vote NO on appointment of Sara Barz to the SFMTA Board

Message:

Dear Board of Supervisors,

I oppose the appointment of Sara Barz to the SFMTA Board.

This four year SFMTA appointment is more appropriately left to the new Mayor.

This candidate should also be opposed for lack of qualifications to deal with SFMTA's precarious financial situation. With enormous looming City and SFMTA budget deficits, financial expertise should be one of the primary qualifications for the next SFMTA Board appointee.

Ms. Barz's history of impractical activism is not what the SFMTA Board or SF needs right now.

Solving the challenges which led to massive city and SFMTA deficits and addressing the slowest economic recovery of any major city in the U.S.A., requires someone who will put pragmatism and fiscal responsibility above impractical ideology. Appointing another activist, like Ms. Barz, who will push to continue the failed policies that have brought SFMTA to its current unsustainable fiscal nightmare would do nothing to help the agency turn itself around and plot a more reasonable, common sense approach to transit that would benefit ALL residents. Appointing a candidate who has a history of supporting non-essential, business-killing, congestion-creating projects is quite the opposite of what SFMTA desperately needs to dig itself out of its financial hole.

The Board of Supervisors needs to read the budget shortfalls as well as the room:

San Francisco doesn't need or want any more hindrances to economic recovery. The actions of the SFMTA Board have a dramatic effect on accessibility for residents, visitors, tourists, and commuters and the continual efforts to make that MORE DIFFICULT need to stop.

In deference to the Mayor-Elect, as well as the interest of fiscal responsibility and much-needed pragmatism, please reject Mayor Breed's appointment of Sara Barz to the SFMTA Board.

Thank you.

Dear Board of Supervisors,

I am writing in support of Sara Barz's nomination to the SFMTA Board of Directors.

As a member of the SF Bicycle Coalition, I am excited that Sara is among the 30% of San Franciscans who bike or roll every month.

2025 is going to be a huge year of transition for the SFMTA with new city leadership coming and going, the MTA's financial deficit, and crucially, the passage of the Biking and Rolling Plan which will determine bike planning for the next 15 years.

In this time of great change, we need leaders like Sara Barz who have years of experience in transportation planning and strong vision to make our streets safer for our most vulnerable road users.

I believe Sara Barz' addition to the SFMTA Board of Directors will advance our transit-first policy, and help us reach our Vision Zero and sustainable transportation goals. Please approve her nomination to the SFMTA Board.

Thank you,
Tal Klein

San Francisco Board of Supervisors
City Hall, Room 244
1 Dr. Calton B. Goodlett Place
San Francisco, CA 94102

Honorable Board of Supervisors,

I am writing to ask you to support Mayor Breed's nomination of Sara Barz to the SFMTA Board of Directors.

Ms. Barz is a neighbor of mine on Hearst Ave and has been an amazing ally in helping create the Hearst Slow Street as well our recently painted street mural. She has organized neighborhood block parties and Halloween celebrations for the Sunnyside neighborhood to the point where we are a destination "trick or treat" street for the City! This has been so much fun for my wife and I as Halloween had become a very dull affair until Sara came along and brought her energy and excitement to the task.

As a fellow west side resident and parent, Ms. Barz understands firsthand the challenges facing San Francisco's transit riders, pedestrians, cyclists, and drivers. Her combination of professional expertise and lived experience makes her uniquely qualified to represent and address the diverse needs of San Francisco's communities.

SFMTA needs a leader right now who can help the agency navigate the upcoming fiscal challenges and reimagine its role in addressing climate change, safety and equity. Sara Barz's innovative leadership and collaborative approach are exactly what the agency needs to navigate this critical period.

Sincerely,
Tom Bleecker

San Francisco Board of Supervisors,

Dear members of the Board of Supervisors,

I live in District 2 and work in District 5. I also often commute to the Ocean Beach. My family and I rely heavily on SFMTA as we don't have a car. As such, I'm writing in to strongly support Sara Barz's candidacy for the SFMTA board. She can help SFMTA navigate the challenges ahead, from rebuilding public trust to transit operations funding. I urge you to approve her nomination to the SFMTA board of directors without delay.

Dear Board of Supervisors,

I am writing in support of Sara Barz's nomination to the SFMTA Board of Directors.

As a member of the SF Bicycle Coalition, I am excited that Sara is among the 30% of San Franciscans who bike or roll every month.

2025 is going to be a huge year of transition for the SFMTA with new city leadership coming and going, the MTA's financial deficit, and crucially, the passage of the Biking and Rolling Plan which will determine bike planning for the next 15 years.

In this time of great change, we need leaders like Sara Barz who have years of experience in transportation planning and strong vision to make our streets safer for our most vulnerable road users.

I believe Sara Barz' addition to the SFMTA Board of Directors will advance our transit-first policy, and help us reach our Vision Zero and sustainable transportation goals. Please approve her nomination to the SFMTA Board.

Thank you,
Karen Boudreau

Supervisor Engardio: I strenuously oppose the appointment of Sara Barz to the SFMTA Board

Message:

Dear Supervisor Engardio,

I am a D4 voter and I will be watching your vote on this closely. Your treatment of constituents regarding the Great Highway has been disappointing and this vote will potentially be a step in the right direction or further proof that you don't represent D4 residents.

As a D4 voter I urge you to oppose the appointment of Sara Barz to the SFMTA Board.

This four-year SFMTA appointment is more appropriately left to the new Mayor.

Furthermore, this candidate should be opposed for lack of qualifications to deal with SFMTA's precarious financial situation. With enormous looming City and SFMTA budget deficits, financial expertise should be one of the primary qualifications for the next SFMTA Board appointee.

Ms. Barz's history of impractical activism is not what the SFMTA Board or San Francisco needs right now.

Solving the challenges which led to massive city and SFMTA deficits and addressing the slowest economic recovery of any major city in the U.S.A., requires someone who will put pragmatism and fiscal responsibility above impractical ideology. Appointing another activist, like Ms. Barz, who will push to continue the failed policies that have brought SFMTA to its current unsustainable fiscal nightmare would do nothing to help the agency turn itself around and plot a more reasonable, common-sense approach to transit that would benefit ALL residents.

Appointing a candidate who has a history of supporting non-essential, business-killing, congestion-creating projects is quite the opposite of what SFMTA desperately needs to dig itself out of its financial hole.

The Board of Supervisors needs to read the budget shortfalls as well as the room:

San Francisco doesn't need or want any more hindrances to economic recovery. The actions of the SFMTA Board have a dramatic effect on accessibility for residents, visitors, tourists, and commuters and the continual efforts to make that MORE DIFFICULT need to stop.

In deference to the Mayor-Elect, as well as the interest of fiscal responsibility and much-needed pragmatism, please reject Mayor Breed's appointment of Sara Barz to the SFMTA Board.

Thank you.

San Francisco Board of Supervisors,

I strongly support Sara Barz's nomination to the SFMTA Board of Directors. While on the SFCTA Citizens' Advisory Committee and through her volunteer work in Sunnyside, Sara has been a dedicated advocate for street safety and equity, with a proven commitment to protecting vulnerable populations like seniors, children, and people with disabilities. Her leadership and expertise will be invaluable in helping the city achieve our Vision Zero and climate goals, and making our city the most pedestrian-friendly in the nation.

San Francisco Board of Supervisors,

Dear Members of the Board of Supervisors,

I am writing in support of Sara Barz's nomination to the SFMTA Board of Directors. Muni is an essential service with over 400,000 weekday daily boardings. As a transit professional with expertise in user experience and outreach, Sara Barz would be a tremendous voice for everyday San Franciscans who rely on Muni to go to work, to reach essential services, and to build community. She can help bring an innovative perspective to restore public trust in the agency, and help San Francisco realize its transit-first policy and keep Muni running for everyone. I ask for your support for her nomination.

San Francisco Board of Supervisors,

Dear members of the Board of Supervisors,

As San Francisco plans for a future of more residents, especially on the west side of the city, we need leaders at SFMTA who can help to plan for their transportation needs. As a westside community leader and mom, and transportation professional, Sara Barz can help SFMTA navigate the challenges ahead, from rebuilding public trust to transit operations funding. I urge you to approve her nomination to the SFMTA board of directors without delay.

Supervisor Engardio: I strenuously oppose the appointment of Sara Barz to the SFMTA Board

Message:

Dear Supervisor Engardio,

I am a D4 voter and I will be watching your vote on this closely. Your treatment of constituents regarding the Great Highway has been disappointing and this vote will potentially be a step in the right direction or further proof that you don't represent D4 residents.

As a D4 voter I urge you to oppose the appointment of Sara Barz to the SFMTA Board.

This four-year SFMTA appointment is more appropriately left to the new Mayor.

Furthermore, this candidate should be opposed for lack of qualifications to deal with SFMTA's precarious financial situation. With enormous looming City and SFMTA budget deficits, financial expertise should be one of the primary qualifications for the next SFMTA Board appointee.

Ms. Barz's history of impractical activism is not what the SFMTA Board or San Francisco needs right now.

Solving the challenges which led to massive city and SFMTA deficits and addressing the slowest economic recovery of any major city in the U.S.A., requires someone who will put pragmatism and fiscal responsibility above impractical ideology. Appointing another activist, like Ms. Barz, who will push to continue the failed policies that have brought SFMTA to its current unsustainable fiscal nightmare would do nothing to help the agency turn itself around and plot a more reasonable, common-sense approach to transit that would benefit ALL residents.

Appointing a candidate who has a history of supporting non-essential, business-killing, congestion-creating projects is quite the opposite of what SFMTA desperately needs to dig itself out of its financial hole.

The Board of Supervisors needs to read the budget shortfalls as well as the room:

San Francisco doesn't need or want any more hindrances to economic recovery. The actions of the SFMTA Board have a dramatic effect on accessibility for residents, visitors, tourists, and commuters and the continual efforts to make that MORE DIFFICULT need to stop.

In deference to the Mayor-Elect, as well as the interest of fiscal responsibility and much-needed pragmatism, please reject Mayor Breed's appointment of Sara Barz to the SFMTA Board.

Thank you.

San Francisco Board of Supervisors,

Dear members of the Board of Supervisors,

As San Francisco plans for a future of more residents, especially on the west side of the city, we need leaders at SFMTA who can help to plan for their transportation needs. As a westside community leader and mom, and transportation professional, Sara Barz can help SFMTA navigate the challenges ahead, from rebuilding public trust to transit operations funding. I urge you to approve her nomination to the SFMTA board of directors without delay.

San Francisco Board of Supervisors,

I strongly support Sara Barz's nomination to the SFMTA Board of Directors. While on the SFCTA Citizens' Advisory Committee and through her volunteer work in Sunnyside, Sara has been a dedicated advocate for street safety and equity, with a proven commitment to protecting vulnerable populations like seniors, children, and people with disabilities. Her leadership and expertise will be invaluable in helping the city achieve our Vision Zero and climate goals, and making our city the most pedestrian-friendly in the nation.

Please vote in favor of Sara Barz's nomination.

San Francisco Board of Supervisors,

I write you to express that I really hope you'll approve Sara Barz's nomination to the SFMTA Board of Directors. I've met Sara several times, and have always come away impressed by her deep desire to make our city a better place. I know she'll use her expertise wisely to help the SFMTA continue to improve throughout each year of her tenure.

Please vote in favor of Sara Barz's nomination. Thank you for reading.

I oppose the appointment of Sara Barz to the SFMTA Board.

This four year SFMTA appointment is more appropriately left to the new Mayor.

This candidate should also be opposed for lack of qualifications to deal with SFMTA's precarious financial situation. With enormous looming City and SFMTA budget deficits, financial expertise should be one of the primary qualifications for the next SFMTA Board appointee.

Ms. Barz's history of impractical activism is not what the SFMTA Board or SF needs right now.

Solving the challenges which led to massive city and SFMTA deficits and addressing the slowest economic recovery of any major city in the U.S.A., requires someone who will put pragmatism and fiscal responsibility above impractical ideology. Appointing another activist, like Ms. Barz, who will push to continue the failed policies that have brought SFMTA to its current unsustainable fiscal nightmare would do nothing to help the agency turn itself around and plot a more reasonable, common sense approach to transit that would benefit ALL residents. Appointing a candidate who has a history of supporting non-essential, business-killing, congestion-creating projects is quite the opposite of what SFMTA desperately needs to dig itself out of its financial hole.

The Board of Supervisors needs to read the budget shortfalls as well as the room:

San Francisco doesn't need or want any more hindrances to economic recovery. The actions of the SFMTA Board have a dramatic effect on accessibility for residents, visitors, tourists, and commuters and the continual efforts to make that MORE DIFFICULT need to stop.

In deference to the Mayor-Elect, as well as the interest of fiscal responsibility and much-needed pragmatism, please reject Mayor Breed's appointment of Sara Barz to the SFMTA Board.

Thank you.

San Francisco Board of Supervisors,

Dear Members of the Board of Supervisors,

I am writing in support of Sara Barz's nomination to the SFMTA Board of Directors. Muni is an essential service with over 400,000 weekday daily boardings. As a transit professional with expertise in user experience and outreach, Sara Barz would be a tremendous voice for everyday San Franciscans who rely on Muni to go to work, to reach essential services, and to build community. She can help bring an innovative perspective to restore public trust in the agency, and help San Francisco realize its transit-first policy and keep Muni running for everyone. I ask for your support for her nomination.

Thank you,

Appointing a candidate who has a history of supporting non-

essential, business-killing, congestion-creating projects is quite the opposite of what SFMTA desperately needs to dig itself out of its financial hole.

The Board of Supervisors needs to read the budget shortfalls as well as the room:

San Francisco doesn't need or want any more hindrances to economic recovery. The actions of the SFMTA Board have a dramatic effect on accessibility for residents, visitors, tourists, and commuters and the continual efforts to make that MORE DIFFICULT need to stop.

In deference to the Mayor-Elect, as well as the interest of fiscal responsibility and much-needed pragmatism, please reject Mayor Breed's appointment of Sara Barz to the SFMTA Board.

Thank you.

Vote NO on appointment of Sara Barz to the SFMTA Board

Message:

Dear Board of Supervisors,

I oppose the appointment of Sara Barz to the SFMTA Board.

This four year SFMTA appointment is more appropriately left to the new Mayor.

This candidate should also be opposed for lack of qualifications to deal with SFMTA's precarious financial situation. With enormous looming City and SFMTA budget deficits, financial expertise should be one of the primary qualifications for the next SFMTA Board appointee.

Ms. Barz's history of impractical activism is not what the SFMTA Board or SF needs right now.

Solving the challenges which led to massive city and SFMTA deficits and addressing the slowest economic recovery of any major city in the U.S.A., requires someone who will put pragmatism and fiscal responsibility above impractical ideology. Appointing another activist, like Ms. Barz, who will push to continue the failed policies that have brought SFMTA to its current unsustainable fiscal nightmare would do nothing to help the agency turn itself around and plot a more reasonable, common sense approach to transit that would benefit ALL residents. Appointing a candidate who has a history of supporting non-

San Francisco Board of Supervisors,

Dear members of the Board of Supervisors,

As San Francisco plans for a future of more residents, especially on the west side of the city, we need leaders at SFMTA who can help to plan for their transportation needs. As a westside community leader and mom, and transportation professional, Sara Barz can help SFMTA navigate the challenges ahead, from rebuilding public trust to transit operations funding. I urge you to approve her nomination to the SFMTA board of directors without delay.

San Francisco Board of Supervisors,

Dear Members of the Board of Supervisors,

I am writing in support of Sara Barz's nomination to the SFMTA Board of Directors. Muni is an essential service with over 400,000 weekday daily boardings. As a transit professional with expertise in user experience and outreach, Sara Barz would be a tremendous voice for everyday San Franciscans who rely on Muni to go to work, to reach essential services, and to build community. She can help bring an innovative perspective to restore public trust in the agency, and help San Francisco realize its transit-first policy and keep Muni running for everyone. I ask for your support for her nomination.

Message:

Dear Board of Supervisors,

I oppose the appointment of Sara Barz to the SFMTA Board.

This four year SFMTA appointment is more appropriately left to the new Mayor.

This candidate should also be opposed for lack of qualifications to deal with SFMTA's precarious financial situation. With enormous looming City and SFMTA budget deficits, financial expertise should be one of the primary qualifications for the next SFMTA Board appointee.

Ms. Barz's history of impractical activism is not what the SFMTA Board or SF needs right now.

Solving the challenges which led to massive city and SFMTA deficits and addressing the slowest economic recovery of any major city in the U.S.A., requires someone who will put pragmatism and fiscal responsibility above impractical ideology. Appointing another activist, like Ms. Barz, who will push to continue the failed policies that have brought SFMTA to its current unsustainable fiscal nightmare would do nothing to help the agency turn itself around and plot a more reasonable, common sense approach to transit that would benefit ALL residents. Appointing a candidate who has a history of supporting non-essential, business-killing, congestion-creating projects is quite the opposite of what SFMTA desperately needs to dig itself out of its financial hole.

The Board of Supervisors needs to read the budget shortfalls as well as the room:

San Francisco doesn't need or want any more hindrances to economic recovery. The actions of the SFMTA Board have a dramatic effect on accessibility for residents, visitors, tourists, and commuters and the continual efforts to make that MORE DIFFICULT need to stop.

In deference to the Mayor-Elect, as well as the interest of fiscal responsibility and much-needed pragmatism, please reject Mayor Breed's appointment of Sara Barz to the SFMTA Board.

Thank you.

San Francisco Board of Supervisors,

Dear Board of Supervisors,

I strongly support Sara Barz's nomination to the SFMTA Board of Directors. While on the SFCTA Citizens' Advisory Committee and through her volunteer work in Sunnyside, Sara has been a dedicated advocate for street safety and equity, with a proven commitment to protecting vulnerable populations like seniors, children, and people with disabilities. Her leadership and expertise will be invaluable in helping the city achieve our Vision Zero and climate goals, and making our city the most pedestrian-friendly in the nation.

Please vote in favor of Sara Barz's nomination.

San Francisco Board of Supervisors,

Dear Members of the Board of Supervisors,

I am writing in support of Sara Barz's nomination to the SFMTA Board of Directors. Muni is an essential service with over 400,000 weekday daily boardings. As a transit professional with expertise in user experience and outreach, Sara Barz would be a tremendous voice for everyday San Franciscans who rely on Muni to go to work, to reach essential services, and to build community. She can help bring an innovative perspective to restore public trust in the agency, and help San Francisco realize its transit-first policy and keep Muni running for everyone. I ask for your support for her nomination.

Thank you,
Kenneth Russell

San Francisco Board of Supervisors,

Dear members of the Board of Supervisors,

As San Francisco plans for a future of more residents, especially on the west side of the city, we need leaders at SFMTA who can help to plan for their transportation needs. As a westside community leader and mom, and transportation professional, Sara Barz can help SFMTA navigate the challenges ahead, from rebuilding public trust to transit operations funding. I urge you to approve her nomination to the SFMTA board of directors without delay.

I oppose the appointment of Sara Barz to the SFMTA Board

Message:

Dear Board of Supervisors,

I oppose the appointment of Sara Barz to the SFMTA Board.

This four year SFMTA appointment is more appropriately left to the new Mayor.

Furthermore, this candidate should be opposed for lack of qualifications to deal with SFMTA's precarious financial situation. With enormous looming City and SFMTA budget deficits, financial expertise should be one of the primary qualifications for the next SFMTA Board appointee.

Ms. Barz's history of impractical activism is not what the SFMTA Board or SF needs right now.

Solving the challenges which led to massive city and SFMTA deficits and addressing the slowest economic recovery of any major city in the U.S.A., requires someone who will put pragmatism and fiscal responsibility above impractical ideology. Appointing another activist, like Ms. Barz, who will push to continue the failed policies that have brought SFMTA to its current unsustainable fiscal nightmare would do nothing to help the agency turn itself around and plot a more reasonable, common sense approach to transit that would benefit ALL residents. Appointing a candidate who has a history of supporting non-essential, business-killing, congestion-creating projects is quite the opposite of what SFMTA desperately needs to dig itself out of its financial hole.

The Board of Supervisors needs to read the budget shortfalls as well as the room:

San Francisco doesn't need or want any more hindrances to economic recovery. The actions of the SFMTA Board have a dramatic effect on accessibility for residents, visitors, tourists, and commuters and the continual efforts to make that MORE DIFFICULT need to stop.

In deference to the Mayor-Elect, as well as the interest of fiscal responsibility and much-needed pragmatism, please reject Mayor Breed's appointment of Sara Barz to the SFMTA Board.

Thank you.

San Francisco Board of Supervisors,

Dear Board of Supervisors,

I am writing in support of Sara Barz's nomination to the SFMTA Board of Directors. As someone rides a bike, I am excited that Sara is among the 30% of San Franciscans who bike or roll every month. Living in San Francisco without a car, my family relies on a cargo bike for school drop off and pickup and muni for daily work commutes.

Sara's professional experience in transportation and urban planning across the public and private sectors will bring a fresh, innovative perspective to SFMTA as the agency faces the coming fiscal challenges.

I believe Sara Barz will help make sustainable transportation options safer and more accessible, including biking. Please approve her nomination to the SFMTA Board.

San Francisco Board of Supervisors,

Dear Board of Supervisors,

I am writing in support of Sara Barz's nomination to the SFMTA Board of Directors. As someone who rides a bike, I am excited that Sara is among the 30% of San Franciscans who bike or roll every month. I believe Sara Barz will help make sustainable transportation options safer and more accessible, including biking. Please approve her nomination to the SFMTA Board.

Thank you,

San Francisco Board of Supervisors,

Dear Members of the Board of Supervisors,

I am a San Francisco resident living in the NoPa neighborhood writing in support of Sara Barz's nomination to the SFMTA Board of Directors.

Muni is an essential service with over 400,000 weekday daily boardings. As a transit professional with expertise in user experience and outreach, Sara Barz would be a tremendous voice for everyday San Franciscans who rely on Muni to go to work, to reach essential services, and to build community. She can help bring and innovative perspective to restore public trust in the agency, and help San Francisco realize its transit-first policy and keep Muni running for everyone. I ask for your support for her nomination.

I also appreciate that she has been very open to my thoughts on ways to support the other ways I commute; working across the city (when I often traveling by car). Sara listens and will be a great leader!

Thank you,

Will

San Francisco Board of Supervisors,

I strongly support Sara Barz's nomination to the SFMTA Board of Directors. While on the SFCTA Citizens' Advisory Committee and through her volunteer work in Sunnyside, Sara has been a dedicated advocate for street safety and equity, with a proven commitment to protecting vulnerable populations like seniors, children, and people with disabilities. Her leadership and expertise will be invaluable in helping the city achieve our Vision Zero and climate goals, and making our city the most pedestrian-friendly in the nation.

San Francisco Board of Supervisors,

I am writing with great enthusiasm to support Sara Barz's nomination to the SFMTA Board of Directors!

Sara is a true champion for street safety and equity—someone who doesn't just talk the talk but consistently shows up for the most vulnerable in our city: seniors, children, people with disabilities, and anyone navigating our streets on foot. Whether she's lending her voice on the SFCTA Citizens' Advisory Committee or rolling up her sleeves in Sunnyside, Sara's passion for safer, people-first streets shines through.

Her blend of leadership, on-the-ground experience, and commitment to Vision Zero and our climate goals makes her exactly the kind of person we need steering us toward a more pedestrian-friendly future. With Sara on the SFMTA Board, I know we'd be one step closer to making San Francisco a safer, more equitable place for everyone.

I urge you to vote in favor of Sara Barz's nomination—San Francisco will be better for it!

I oppose the appointment of Sara Barz to the SFMTA Board

Message:

Dear Board of Supervisors,

I oppose the appointment of Sara Barz to the SFMTA Board.

This four year SFMTA appointment is more appropriately left to the new Mayor.

Furthermore, this candidate should be opposed for lack of qualifications to deal with SFMTA's precarious financial situation. With enormous looming City and SFMTA budget deficits, financial expertise should be one of the primary qualifications for the next SFMTA Board appointee.

Ms. Barz's history of impractical activism is not what the SFMTA Board or SF needs right now.

Solving the challenges which led to massive city and SFMTA deficits and addressing the slowest economic recovery of any major city in the U.S.A., requires someone who will put pragmatism and fiscal responsibility above impractical ideology. Appointing another activist, like Ms. Barz, who will push to continue the failed policies that have brought SFMTA to its current unsustainable fiscal nightmare would do nothing to help the agency turn itself around and plot a more reasonable, common sense approach to transit that would benefit ALL residents. Appointing a candidate who has a history of supporting non-essential, business-killing, congestion-creating projects is quite the opposite of what SFMTA desperately needs to dig itself out of its financial hole.

The Board of Supervisors needs to read the budget shortfalls as well as the room:

San Francisco doesn't need or want any more hindrances to economic recovery. The actions of the SFMTA Board have a dramatic effect on accessibility for residents, visitors, tourists, and commuters and the continual efforts to make that MORE DIFFICULT need to stop.

In deference to the Mayor-Elect, as well as the interest of fiscal responsibility and much-needed pragmatism, please reject Mayor Breed's appointment of Sara Barz to the SFMTA Board.

Thank you.

I oppose the appointment of Sara Barz to the SFMTA Board.

This four year SFMTA appointment is more appropriately left to the new Mayor.

Furthermore, this candidate should be opposed for lack of qualifications to deal with SFMTA's precarious financial situation. With enormous looming City and SFMTA budget deficits, financial expertise should be one of the primary qualifications for the next SFMTA Board appointee.

Ms. Barz's history of impractical activism is not what the SFMTA Board or SF needs right now.

Solving the challenges which led to massive city and SFMTA deficits and addressing the slowest economic recovery of any major city in the U.S.A., requires someone who will put pragmatism and fiscal responsibility above impractical ideology. Appointing another activist, like Ms. Barz, who will push to continue the failed policies that have brought SFMTA to its current unsustainable fiscal nightmare would do nothing to help the agency turn itself around and plot a more reasonable, common sense approach to transit that would benefit ALL residents. Appointing a candidate who has a history of supporting non-essential, business-killing, congestion-creating projects is quite the opposite of what SFMTA desperately needs to dig itself out of its financial hole.

The Board of Supervisors needs to read the budget shortfalls as well as the room:

San Francisco doesn't need or want any more hindrances to economic recovery. The actions of the SFMTA Board have a dramatic effect on accessibility for residents, visitors, tourists, and commuters and the continual efforts to make that MORE DIFFICULT need to stop.

In deference to the Mayor-Elect, as well as the interest of fiscal responsibility and much-needed pragmatism, please reject Mayor Breed's appointment of Sara Barz to the SFMTA Board. The new mayor should make this appointment. He should appointment someone who is NOT a member of the Bicycle Coalition.

Thank you.

Dear Board of Supervisors,

I oppose the appointment of Sara Barz to the SFMTA Board. Allowing a very LOUD but small minority of SF to drive transit policy will end in our spending millions- only to be fully discredited as it is starting to show up in other cities - and we don't need political appointments to the MTA. San Francisco doesn't need or want any more hindrances to economic recovery. The actions of the SFMTA Board have a dramatic effect on accessibility for residents, visitors, tourists, and commuters and the continual efforts to make that MORE DIFFICULT need to stop.

In deference to the Mayor-Elect, as well as the interest of fiscal responsibility and much-needed pragmatism, please reject Mayor Breed's appointment of Sara Barz to the SFMTA Board.

Thank you.

I oppose the appointment of Sara Barz to the SFMTA Board

Message:

Dear Board of Supervisors,

I oppose the appointment of Sara Barz to the SFMTA Board.

This four year SFMTA appointment is more appropriately left to the new Mayor.

Furthermore, this candidate should be opposed for lack of qualifications to deal with SFMTA's precarious financial situation. With enormous looming City and SFMTA budget deficits, financial expertise should be one of the primary qualifications for the next SFMTA Board appointee.

Ms. Barz's history of impractical activism is not what the SFMTA Board or SF needs right now.

Solving the challenges which led to massive city and SFMTA deficits and addressing the slowest economic recovery of any major city in the U.S.A., requires someone who will put pragmatism and fiscal responsibility above impractical ideology. Appointing another activist, like Ms. Barz, who will push to continue the failed policies that have brought SFMTA to its current unsustainable fiscal nightmare would do nothing to help the agency turn itself around and plot a more reasonable, common sense approach to transit that would benefit ALL residents. Appointing a candidate who has a history of supporting non-essential, business-killing, congestion-creating projects is quite the opposite of what SFMTA desperately needs to dig itself out of its financial hole.

The Board of Supervisors needs to read the budget shortfalls as well as the room:

San Francisco doesn't need or want any more hindrances to economic recovery. The actions of the SFMTA Board have a dramatic effect on accessibility for residents, visitors, tourists, and commuters and the continual efforts to make that MORE DIFFICULT need to stop.

Furthermore, this candidate should be opposed for lack of qualifications to deal with SFMTA's precarious financial situation. With enormous looming City and SFMTA budget deficits, financial expertise should be one of the primary qualifications for the next SFMTA Board appointee.

Ms. Barz's history of impractical activism is not what the SFMTA Board or SF needs right now.

Solving the challenges which led to massive city and SFMTA deficits and addressing the slowest economic recovery of any major city in the U.S.A., requires someone who will put pragmatism and fiscal responsibility above impractical ideology. Appointing another activist, like Ms. Barz, who will push to continue the failed policies that have brought SFMTA to its current unsustainable fiscal nightmare would do nothing to help the agency turn itself around and plot a more reasonable, common sense approach to transit that would benefit ALL residents. Appointing a candidate who has a history of supporting non-essential, business-killing, congestion-creating projects is quite the opposite of what SFMTA desperately needs to dig itself out of its financial hole.

The Board of Supervisors needs to read the budget shortfalls as well as the room:

San Francisco doesn't need or want any more hindrances to economic recovery. The actions of the SFMTA Board have a dramatic effect on accessibility for residents, visitors, tourists, and commuters and the continual efforts to make that MORE DIFFICULT need to stop.

In deference to the Mayor-Elect, as well as the interest of fiscal responsibility and much-needed pragmatism, please reject Mayor Breed's appointment of Sara Barz to the SFMTA Board.

Thank you.

Message:

Dear Board of Supervisors,

I oppose the appointment of Sara Barz to the SFMTA Board because this four year SFMTA appointment is more appropriately left to the new Mayor. The voters voted for new leadership and incoming Mayor Lurie should have as much opportunity to put in place people who will work with him to address the significant budget shortfall - particularly the SFMTA projects that have contributed to that shortfall. It is time for change.

I oppose the appointment of Sara Barz to the SFMTA Board.

This four year SFMTA appointment is more appropriately left to the new Mayor.

Furthermore, this candidate should be opposed for lack of qualifications to deal with SFMTA's precarious financial situation. With enormous looming City and SFMTA budget deficits, financial expertise should be one of the primary qualifications for the next SFMTA Board appointee.

Ms. Barz's history of impractical activism is not what the SFMTA Board or SF needs right now.

Solving the challenges which led to massive city and SFMTA deficits and addressing the slowest economic recovery of any major city in the U.S.A., requires someone who will put pragmatism and fiscal responsibility above impractical ideology. Appointing another activist, like Ms. Barz, who will push to continue the failed policies that have brought SFMTA to its current unsustainable fiscal nightmare would do nothing to help the agency turn itself around and plot a more reasonable, common sense approach to transit that would benefit ALL residents. Appointing a candidate who has a history of supporting non-essential, business-killing, congestion-creating projects is quite the opposite of what SFMTA desperately needs to dig itself out of its financial hole.

The Board of Supervisors needs to read the budget shortfalls as well as the room:

San Francisco doesn't need or want any more hindrances to economic recovery. The actions of the SFMTA Board have a dramatic effect on accessibility for residents, visitors, tourists, and commuters and the continual efforts to make that MORE DIFFICULT need to stop.

In deference to the Mayor-Elect, as well as the interest of fiscal responsibility and much-needed pragmatism, please reject Mayor Breed's appointment of Sara Barz to the SFMTA Board.

Thank you.

I oppose the appointment of Sara Barz to the SFMTA Board.

This four year SFMTA appointment is more appropriately left to the new Mayor.

Furthermore, this candidate should be opposed for lack of qualifications to deal with SFMTA's precarious financial situation. With enormous looming City and SFMTA budget deficits, financial expertise should be one of the primary qualifications for the next SFMTA Board appointee.

Ms. Barz's history of impractical activism is not what the SFMTA Board or SF needs right now.

Solving the challenges which led to massive city and SFMTA deficits and addressing the slowest economic recovery of any major city in the U.S.A., requires someone who will put pragmatism and fiscal responsibility above impractical ideology. Appointing another activist, like Ms. Barz, who will push to continue the failed policies that have brought SFMTA to its current unsustainable fiscal nightmare would do nothing to help the agency turn itself around and plot a more reasonable, common sense approach to transit that would benefit ALL residents. Appointing a candidate who has a history of supporting non-essential, business-killing, congestion-creating projects is quite the opposite of what SFMTA desperately needs to dig itself out of its financial hole.

The Board of Supervisors needs to read the budget shortfalls as well as the room:

San Francisco doesn't need or want any more hindrances to economic recovery. The actions of the SFMTA Board have a dramatic effect on accessibility for residents, visitors, tourists, and commuters and the continual efforts to make that MORE DIFFICULT need to stop.

In deference to the Mayor-Elect, as well as the interest of fiscal responsibility and much-needed pragmatism, please reject Mayor Breed's appointment of Sara Barz to the SFMTA Board.

Thank you.

I oppose the appointment of Sara Barz to the SFMTA Board.

This four year SFMTA appointment is more appropriately left to the new Mayor.

Furthermore, this candidate should be opposed for lack of qualifications to deal with SFMTA's precarious financial situation. With enormous looming City and SFMTA budget deficits, financial expertise should be one of the primary qualifications for the next SFMTA Board appointee.

Ms. Barz's history of impractical activism is not what the SFMTA Board or SF needs right now.

Solving the challenges which led to massive city and SFMTA deficits and addressing the slowest economic recovery of any major city in the U.S.A., requires someone who will put pragmatism and fiscal responsibility above impractical ideology. Appointing another activist, like Ms. Barz, who will push to continue the failed policies that have brought SFMTA to its current unsustainable fiscal nightmare would do nothing to help the agency turn itself around and plot a more reasonable, common sense approach to transit that would benefit ALL residents. Appointing a candidate who has a history of supporting non-essential, business-killing, congestion-creating projects is quite the opposite of what SFMTA desperately needs to dig itself out of its financial hole.

The Board of Supervisors needs to read the budget shortfalls as well as the room:

San Francisco doesn't need or want any more hindrances to economic recovery. The actions of the SFMTA Board have a dramatic effect on accessibility for residents, visitors, tourists, and commuters and the continual efforts to make that MORE DIFFICULT need to stop.

In deference to the Mayor-Elect, as well as the interest of fiscal responsibility and much-needed pragmatism, please reject Mayor Breed's appointment of Sara Barz to the SFMTA Board.

Thank you.

I oppose the appointment of Sara Barz to the SFMTA Board

Message:

Dear Board of Supervisors,

I oppose the appointment of Sara Barz to the SFMTA Board.

This four year SFMTA appointment is more appropriately left to the new Mayor.

Furthermore, this candidate should be opposed for lack of qualifications to deal with SFMTA's precarious financial situation. With enormous looming City and SFMTA budget deficits, financial expertise should be one of the primary qualifications for the next SFMTA Board appointee.

Ms. Barz's history of impractical activism is not what the SFMTA Board or SF needs right now.

Solving the challenges which led to massive city and SFMTA deficits and addressing the slowest economic recovery of any major city in the U.S.A., requires someone who will put pragmatism and fiscal responsibility above impractical ideology. Appointing another activist, like Ms. Barz, who will push to continue the failed policies that have brought SFMTA to its current unsustainable fiscal nightmare would do nothing to help the agency turn itself around and plot a more reasonable, common sense approach to transit that would benefit ALL residents. Appointing a candidate who has a history of supporting non-essential, business-killing, congestion-creating projects is quite the opposite of what SFMTA desperately needs to dig itself out of its financial hole.

The Board of Supervisors needs to read the budget shortfalls as well as the room:

San Francisco doesn't need or want any more hindrances to economic recovery. The actions of the SFMTA Board have a dramatic effect on accessibility for residents, visitors, tourists, and commuters and the continual efforts to make that MORE DIFFICULT need to stop.

In deference to the Mayor-Elect, as well as the interest of fiscal responsibility and much-needed pragmatism, please reject Mayor Breed's appointment of Sara Barz to the SFMTA Board.

Thank you.

Solving the challenges which led to massive city and SFMTA deficits and addressing the slowest economic recovery of any major city in the U.S.A., requires someone who will put pragmatism and fiscal responsibility above impractical ideology. Appointing another activist, like Ms. Barz, who will push to continue the failed policies that have brought SFMTA to its current unsustainable fiscal nightmare would do nothing to help the agency turn itself around and plot a more reasonable, common sense approach to transit that would benefit ALL residents. Appointing a candidate who has a history of supporting non-

essential, business-killing, congestion-creating projects is quite the opposite of what SFMTA desperately needs to dig itself out of its financial hole.

The Board of Supervisors needs to read the budget shortfalls as well as the room:

San Francisco doesn't need or want any more hindrances to economic recovery. The actions of the SFMTA Board have a dramatic effect on accessibility for residents, visitors, tourists, and commuters and the continual efforts to make that MORE DIFFICULT need to stop.

In deference to the Mayor-Elect, as well as the interest of fiscal responsibility and much-needed pragmatism, please reject Mayor Breed's appointment of Sara Barz to the SFMTA Board.

Thank you.

Message:

Dear Board of Supervisors,

I oppose the appointment of Sara Barz to the SFMTA Board.

This four year SFMTA appointment is more appropriately left to the new Mayor.

Furthermore, this candidate should be opposed for lack of qualifications to deal with SFMTA's precarious financial situation. With enormous looming City and SFMTA budget deficits, financial expertise should be one of the primary qualifications for the next SFMTA Board appointee.

Ms. Barz's history of impractical activism is not what the SFMTA Board or SF needs right now.

I oppose the appointment of Sara Barz to the SFMTA Board

Message:

Dear Board of Supervisors,

I oppose the appointment of Sara Barz to the SFMTA Board.

This four year SFMTA appointment is more appropriately left to the new Mayor.

Furthermore, this candidate should be opposed for lack of qualifications to deal with SFMTA's precarious financial situation. With enormous looming City and SFMTA budget deficits, financial expertise should be one of the primary qualifications for the next SFMTA Board appointee.

Ms. Barz's history of impractical activism is not what the SFMTA Board or SF needs right now.

Solving the challenges which led to massive city and SFMTA deficits and addressing the slowest economic recovery of any major city in the U.S.A., requires someone who will put pragmatism and fiscal responsibility above impractical ideology. Appointing another activist, like Ms. Barz, who will push to continue the failed policies that have brought SFMTA to its current unsustainable fiscal nightmare would do nothing to help the agency turn itself around and plot a more reasonable, common sense approach to transit that would benefit ALL residents. Appointing a candidate who has a history of supporting non-essential, business-killing, congestion-creating projects is quite the opposite of what SFMTA desperately needs to dig itself out of its financial hole.

The Board of Supervisors needs to read the budget shortfalls as well as the room:

San Francisco doesn't need or want any more hindrances to economic recovery. The actions of the SFMTA Board have a dramatic effect on accessibility for residents, visitors, tourists, and commuters and the continual efforts to make that MORE DIFFICULT need to stop.

In deference to the Mayor-Elect, as well as the interest of fiscal responsibility and much-needed pragmatism, please reject Mayor Breed's appointment of Sara Barz to the SFMTA Board.

Thank you.

I oppose the appointment of Sara Barz to the SFMTA Board

Message:

Dear Board of Supervisors,

I oppose the appointment of Sara Barz to the SFMTA Board.

This four year SFMTA appointment is more appropriately left to the new Mayor.

Furthermore, this candidate should be opposed for lack of qualifications to deal with SFMTA's precarious financial situation. With enormous looming City and SFMTA budget deficits, financial expertise should be one of the primary qualifications for the next SFMTA Board appointee.

Ms. Barz's history of impractical activism is not what the SFMTA Board or SF needs right now.

Solving the challenges which led to massive city and SFMTA deficits and addressing the slowest economic recovery of any major city in the U.S.A., requires someone who will put pragmatism and fiscal responsibility above impractical ideology. Appointing another activist, like Ms. Barz, who will push to continue the failed policies that have brought SFMTA to its current unsustainable fiscal nightmare would do nothing to help the agency turn itself around and plot a more reasonable, common sense approach to transit that would benefit ALL residents. Appointing a candidate who has a history of supporting non-essential, business-killing, congestion-creating projects is quite the opposite of what SFMTA desperately needs to dig itself out of its financial hole.

The Board of Supervisors needs to read the budget shortfalls as well as the room:

San Francisco doesn't need or want any more hindrances to economic recovery. The actions of the SFMTA Board have a dramatic effect on accessibility for residents, visitors, tourists, and commuters and the continual efforts to make that MORE DIFFICULT need to stop.

In deference to the Mayor-Elect, as well as the interest of fiscal responsibility and much-needed pragmatism, please reject Mayor Breed's appointment of Sara Barz to the SFMTA Board.

Thank you.
