I have lived in San Francisco and the Bay Area for the past ten years, working with unions on representation and organizing issues. In my first term with CGOBOC, I have begun understanding the mission of the Committee and digging into the bond assignments I have. I believe labor has a strong interest in ensuring that work funded through general obligation bonds is handled as the voters have authorized, and done in fiscally and ethically prudent manners.

Business and/or professional experience:

I am an attorney having represented many unions in CCSF and the entire Bay Area. As Research, Policy and Communication Director for IFPTE Local 21, I work directly with the City on many fronts, from personnel matters to departmental issues. I have a deep understanding of the capital plan and needs of the City, and bring that knowledge to the Committee to ensure labor has a voice and is apprised on major capital projects throughout the City.

Civic Activities:

I am highly engaged in political activities around town, having recently worked on passage of Proposition A, a new transportation bond which will expand our transportation system in the City. I am also active in the Richmond District Demo Club, volunteer doing pro bono legal work.

Biography:

Born January 17th, 1983 in Fresno California, Dion-Jay LeKent Brookter was born to two loving parents – John L. Brookter & Denise M. Brown. Born and raised in Fresno he was taught early on the values of dedication, integrity and excellence were not simply words, but ideas that you live by every day. From grammar school to high school Dion-Jay distinguished himself academically and in athletics by consistently holding a variety of leadership positions both on the field and in the classroom. Eventually, this dedication paid off in 2001 earning him a full athletic scholarship to play football at Utah State University in Logan, Utah.

While attending Utah State University from 2001-2006 Dion-Jay once again distinguished himself on the field, in the classroom and in the community. Upon commencing from Utah State University with a Bachelor's of Science in Speech Communication with an emphasis in businesses his interest was sparked in joining the corporate world. Working for major corporations – World Savings, and Icon Health & Fitness – Dion-Jay realized his true calling and passion for service of others leaving the corporate world behind in 2007 to pursue the non-profit world. It was one of his many off campus experience – but one as a Hurricane Katrina volunteer, which lit the flame of service and dedication for those not looking for a handout but a helping hand up.

Returning to Fresno, CA - Fresno Career Development Institute Inc. (FCDI) gave Dion-Jay his first nonprofit opportunity as their Workshop Facilitator working with the previously incarcerated population with their re-entry back into our communities. While working full time at FCDI he also pursued and reached one of his professional goals in 2009 - obtaining a Masters Degree in Business Administration in order to better serve and understand the needs of employers.

In late 2009 Dion-Jay relocated to Northern California where he currently holds the position as Deputy Director - for a well established non-profit organization – Young Community Developers Inc. in San Francisco CA. where he oversees 23 programs, a staff of 23 and assist with the management of their 3 million dollar budget. Dion- Jay has worked in a variety of roles and positions in both the non-profit and corporate arenas. Dion-Jay has been instrumental in developing and cultivating relationships with corporate entities and other Southeast Community Based Organizations. By utilizing non-traditional strategies such as hosting Business Mixers – where local businesses in the Southeast Sector come to connect with community based organizations – is just one example of the innovation Mr. Brookter brings to the forefront.
