[Commending the California Outdoor Rollerskating Association]

Resolution commending the California Outdoor Rollerskating Association for their public service and their efforts in promoting San Francisco as the host city for the Olympic Games in 2012.

WHEREAS, The California Outdoor Rollerskaing Association hosts the Skate Against Violence Roadskate, a 450 mile skate-a-thon from Los Angeles to San Francisco to raise awareness on how in-line skating can benefit youth by providing both a social and athletic outlet as an alternative to street violence; and,

WHEREAS, Every year the Skate Against Violence collects and refurbishes used skates from and gives them as gifts to low-income, inner-city youth during the holiday season; and,

WHEREAS, Members of this years Skate Against Violence Campaign will skate with both the San Francisco 2012 Olympic Flag and the American Flag to respectively boost San Francisco's chances of being chosen for the Olympic Games in 2012 and remind Americans of their civic and patriotic duty to vote; now, therefore, be it,

RESOLVED, That the Board of Supervisors of the City and County of San Francisco hereby commends the California Outdoor Rollerskating Association for their contribution to the San Francisco community and their efforts in promoting San Francisco as the potential Olympic host city for 2012 .
