Section 2. Background and Findings.

(a) San Francisco faces a continuing shortage of affordable housing. The General Plan recognizes that existing housing is the greatest stock of rental and financially accessible residential units, and is a resource in need of protection. To that end, Planning Code Section 317 requires a Conditional Use Authorization (CUA) prior to approval of any permit that would remove existing housing, with certain exceptions.

(b) Section 317 also applies to removal of Unauthorized Units, or "UDUs," defined as one or more rooms within a building that have been used, without the benefit of a building permit, as a separate and distinct living or sleeping space independent from the residential units on the same property. In some instances, an unpermitted ground floor bedroom and bathroom in a single-family home may be considered a UDU.

3 (c) Some families purchase single-family homes with no knowledge that the property contains a UDU. For example, at some point after the purchase, families may learn of the 4 5 UDU when they apply for a building permit to connect the ground-floor bedroom and bathroom 6 with the living spaces on the upper floors. Families in these situations face the high costs of 7 either legalizing the UDU or obtaining a CUA for its removal. In addition to these costs, 8 legalization is not desirable for some homeowners, as some homeowners wish to integrate 9 the separated UDU space with the existing single-family home by, for example, removing internal staircases, walls or doorways, which present internal barriers to growing families or 10 11 intergenerational living arrangements

(d) This ordinance waives the CUA requirement for removal of a UDU in owneroccupied single-family homes where the unit has not been rented for the last 10 years, except to a qualifying member, as defined in the ordinance. Project sponsors that utilize the CUA waiver must enter into regulatory agreements with the City acknowledging that, in consideration for this waiver, the existing unit will be subject to local rent control notwithstanding the Costa-Hawkins Rental Housing Act (California Civil Code Section 1954.50 et seq.).

(e) Facilitating the removal of UDUs in single-family homes may lead to speculative real estate investments that may seek to maximize profits by displacing current residents, demolishing existing housing stock, absorbing the UDU into a large, remodeled single-family home, and quickly selling those homes. To discourage such speculation and displacement, this ordinance waives the CUA requirement only where the UDU has not been occupied by a tenant in the past 10 years, except where the UDU was occupied by a blood, adoptive, or step-family relative of the owner or the owner's spouse or registered domestic partner.

Supervisor Melgar BOARD OF SUPERVISORS Additionally, the benefits of this ordinance are available only where the owner resides in the primary dwelling unit at the time of application to remove the UDU and intends to remain in the primary dwelling unit for at least three years after removal of the UDU is approved.

(f) This ordinance also implements policies and actions adopted in the 2022-2031 4 5 Housing Element as they pertain to UDUs and facilitating the living needs of multi-6 generational families. Under current law, removal of a UDU does not require a CUA if the 7 Department of Building Inspection determines that there is no path for legalization under 8 Section 106A.3.1.3 of the Building Code. This ordinance replaces that no-legalization 9 determination with the following objective criteria: whether the UDU satisfies the open space 10 requirements of Planning Code Section 135, the dwelling unit exposure requirements of Planning Code Section 140, or the minimum legal floor-to-ceiling height requirement in the 11 12 Housing Code. This ordinance also updates the required Conditional Use Authorization 13 findings under Section 317 to account for the history of tenancies in a UDU. Further, this 14 ordinance clarifies that the removal of a UDU pursuant to a permit does not trigger the 15 penalties in Planning Code Section 176(c)(1)(C)(i).

7 (7) Removal of Unauthorized Units. In addition to the criteria set forth in 8 subsections (g)(1) through (g)(4) above, the Planning Commission shall consider the criteria

LEGISLATIVE DIGEST

[Planning, Administrative Codes - Conditional Use Authorization for Removal of Unauthorized Unit]

Ordinance amending the Planning Code to waive the Conditional Use Authorization requirement for removal of an unauthorized unit in a single-family home where the owner satisfies certain eligibility criteria, waive the Conditional Use Authorization requirement for removal of an unauthorized unit where that unit does not satisfy open space, dwelling unit exposure, or minimum floor-to-ceiling height requirements, update the required Conditional Use Authorization findings for removal of an unauthorized unit to account for the history of tenancies in that unit; amending the Administrative Code to require that where an owner obtains an exemption from the Conditional Use Authorization requirement to remove an unauthorized unit from a qualifying single-family home, the single-family home shall be subject to the rent increase limitations of the Rent Ordinance; affirming the Planning Department's determination under the California Environmental Quality Act; and making findings of consistency with the General Plan, and the eight priority policies of Planning Code, Section 101.1, and adopting findings of public necessity, convenience, and welfare under Planning Code, Section 302.

Existing Law

Planning Code Section 317 requires a Conditional Use Authorization before issuance of a building permit that would result in the removal of one or more Residential Units or Unauthorized Units, or "UDUs."

A Conditional Use Authorization is not required to remove a UDU where the Department of Building Inspection has determined that there is no path for legalization under Section 106A.3.1.3 of the Building Code. (See Planning Code Section 317(c)(4).)

To grant a Conditional Use Authorization to remove a UDU, the Planning Commission must make certain findings set forth in Section 317(g)(7), which include consideration of the costs and financial feasibility of legalizing the UDU.

Planning Code Section 176(c)(1)(C)(i) sets forth the penalties for alteration, merger, construction, or demolition of residential units without a permit.

Amendments to Current Law

This ordinance would amend the existing Conditional Use Authorization exemption in Planning Code Section 317(c)(4) to eliminate the Department of Building Inspection's finding that there is no pathway for legalization. Instead, this ordinance would exempt removal of a UDU from the Conditional Use Authorization requirement where the UDU does not meet any of the following: the open space requirements of Planning Code Section 135, the dwelling unit exposure requirements of Planning Code Section 140, or the minimum legal floor-to-ceiling height requirement in the Housing Code.

This ordinance would also create a new exemption from the Conditional Use Authorization for removal of a UDU in a single-family home that meets all of the following criteria:

- the owner resides in the primary dwelling unit at the time of application;
- the Unauthorized Unit has not been rented for consideration in the last 10 years, except to a qualifying family member, as defined in the ordinance;
- the owner intends to reside in the single-family home for a period of three years after Removal of the Unauthorized Dwelling Unit is approved; and
- the owner enters into a regulatory agreement with the City subjecting the one-family dwelling to the San Francisco Residential Rent Stabilization and Arbitration Ordinance (Chapter 37 of the Administrative Code).

This ordinance states that "rented for consideration" shall not include any use or tenancy of the Unauthorized Unit by a blood, adoptive, or step family relationship, specifically by a grandparent, parent, sibling, child, or grandchild, or the spouse or registered domestic partner of such relations, or by a property owner's spouse or registered domestic partner. To establish eligibility, this ordinance requires that an owner furnish a declaration under penalty of perjury on a form prescribed by the Department. The ordinance also prescribes requirements for the regulatory agreement and makes parallel amendments to Chapter 37 of the Administrative Code.

This ordinance would also replace several of the existing required Conditional Use Authorization findings in Section 317(g)(7) with the following findings:

- whether the Unauthorized Unit has been rented within the 10 years preceding the application, excluding any use of the Unauthorized Unit by a blood, adoptive, or stepfamily relationship, specifically by a grandparent, parent, sibling, child, or grandchild, or the spouse or registered domestic partner of such relations, or by a property owner's spouse or registered domestic partner; and
- whether the Unauthorized Unit has a history of evictions under Administrative Code Sections 37.9(a)(8)-(12) or 37.9(a)(14)-(16) within the 10 years preceding the application.

The ordinance also clarifies that the removal of an Unauthorized Unit pursuant to a permit does not trigger the penalties in Planning Code Section 176(c)(1)(C)(i).
