BOARD OF SUPERVISORS
SAN FRANCISCO

2012 DEC 20 PM 1:39

Dear Board of Supervisors and Clerk of the Board,

I am writing to request a hearing to consider that a Type 42 on-sale beer and wine public premise license be issued to Angel Davis and Nguay Lay for 7682 LLC, dba Fig & Thistle, located on 313 Ivy Street will serve the convenience of the people of the city and county of San Francisco.

We feel that our request for a PCN letter should be approved because our project will provide many benefits to those that not only live and work in Hayes Valley, but also to the those that live in the city and are visiting the neighborhood as well as those that have traveled from afar to spend their vacation here.

To start, our establishment will provide a relaxed and affordable place for the workers of Hayes Valley to go to after work. After speaking to many of the workers in the neighborhood I have found that though they appreciate the spaces that currently exist in Hayes Valley they are hard pressed to find a comfortable and affordable place to hang out at after work and Fig & Thistle would fill that niche perfectly.

Opening our space on Ivy Street, which is currently an empty alley, will help populate a corridor that is quiet at night, making it safer to walk through. We have already hired an alarm specialist to install cameras outside the space in order to add more security. Our hours will be from 3 pm -1 am Sunday-Thursday and 3 pm-2 am on Friday and Saturday. By staying open late we hope to provide a place for those getting off work late a place to hang out and relax after work.

When the condos directly across the street from us are finished being built our beer and wine bar will not only provide a place for people to be able to have a drink after work within walking distance of their home, but also give them the option of buying a nice bottle of wine or beer to take home with them, so they do not have to leave their house at all, minimizing the risk of people drinking and driving in the neighborhood and throughout the city.

We also hope to be able to contribute to the city during the recession by doing our best to contribute through sales, payroll, and property taxes. Our in house work will be done by a licensed San Francisco contractor, plumber, and electrician, providing another boost to the local economy.

As members of the community our goals are to provide a nice atmosphere and environment for people to get together and have a good time, but to also strive to make Hayes

12/19/12

Valley and the city of San Francisco a wonderful place to live and visit. I currently volunteer at the Hayes Valley Urban Farm, am a member of the Hayes Valley Neighborhood Association, and in the process of becoming a member of the Hayes Valley Merchants Association.

Our involvement with making the community a better place will begin with our small bar where we hope to make the connections within the community to improve the neighborhood. Our business will provide a serious education aspect in wine and beer knowledge that will help our employees become sought after restaurant industry workers by helping them get their sommelier and/or cicerone licenses.

All of our beers will be bottled and canned beers from microbreweries in Northern California and our wines will focus heavily on the California, Oregon, and Washington, while including international varieties. The cheese, charcuterie, and other small plates that we serve will be sourced mostly from farms in the bay area and the west coast. My goal with our food and beverage program is to be personally connected to the products we serve. I want to be able to guarantee not only the quality of the product, but the quality of the person making the product as well. It is my goal to know each individual brewer, cheese maker, wine maker, and farmer whose products we sell. By doing this I also hope to bring the community closer together and to support our local economy.

I moved back to San Francisco after spending some time in Portland, Oregon and overseas because after all these years of traveling I know that this is home and this is where I'd like to begin a new journey. Fig & Thistle will be my first business, it is something that my best friend and I have talked about doing for years and now we finally have the opportunity to do it. My business partner and best friend Nguey Lay, was born in the raised in the city. His family has deep roots in San Francisco, where his father owned and worked at a deli called Quincy's on Market near Polk for forty years. His grandmother, who is 85 years old, owns a deli on Church at Market where you can still find her working behind the counter with his aunt and father. He has seen the city change in the last 30 years and would love to continue the family tradition of opening a small business in San Francisco that can grow and support the neighborhood by offering a place to gather and come in for a nice glass of wine or good beer for years to come.

For all these reasons and many more we humbly ask the members of the board to give us an opportunity to prove ourselves to the city of San Francisco and the Hayes Valley community, by approving our PCN request.

Thank you for your time and consideration,

Angel Davis & Nguey Lay

Fig and Thistle Liquor License
Ivy Alley, SF

To: Officer Frias
SFPD, Northern Station
San Francisco

From: Russell Pritchard
Hayes Valley Merchants Assn.

Dear Officer Frias,

This letter is to follow up our phone conversation during which I stated that we, The Hayes Valley Merchants Assn., are in support of the business Fig and Thistle and their liquor license with the following hours:

Sunday – Thursday , closing at 11pm
Friday and Saturday, closing at 12am

I believe that the owner, Angel Davis, stated that her opening time is around 3pm. For us as a merchant assn., it is really the closing times that are important. We will also offer this support to the ABC process, once the application is in place.

Thank you;

Russell Pritchard

Dear Officer Frias,

After taking to members of the Hayes Valley Neighborhood and Merchants Association we realized that to keep in line with the neighborhood vision we have to change our hours of operation. I tried to get our hours changed on our ABC application but our representative said that a verbal notification would be enough. I have attached a letter to you and have carbon copied Russell Pritchard a member of both associations and a member of the community for over 20 years in order to put into writing and to notify you and the community formally that we will be changing our hours so that we open at 3pm and close at 11pm on weekdays and 12am on the weekends (Friday and Saturday).

Hope everyone is having a good day! Thank you for your time, please feel free to call me if you have any questions.

Dear Officer Frias,

I am writing this letter after speaking to Carolina Suson, our ABC Licensing Representative. In order to be in compliance with the vision and regulations for businesses serving alcohol in Hayes Valley, we will be changing our hours of operation. Dear Officer Frias,

After taking to members of the Hayes Valley Neighborhood and Merchants Association we realized that to keep in line with the neighborhood vision we have to change our hours of operation. I tried to get our hours changed on our ABC application but our representative said that a verbal notification would be enough. I have attached a letter to you and have carbon copied Russell Pritchard a member of both associations and a member of the community for over 20 years in order to put into writing and to notify you and the community formally that we will be changing our hours so that we open at 3pm and close at 11pm on weekdays and 12am on the weekends (Friday and Saturday). Hope everyone is having a good day! Thank you for your time, please feel free to call me if you have any questions.

Sincerely,

Officer Frias,
Hopefully you will be receiving letters of support next week! I talked to a member of both the neighborhood and merchants association and I just have to change my hours of operation in my ABC application and the neighborhood will finally give us their blessing. Thank you again for your support and patience with us. I really appreciate it.
Sincerely,
Angel

To Whom It May Concern,

I am writing introduce myself and to request the support of the community in the opening of Fig + Thistle, a beer and wine bar, located at 313 Ivy Street in Hayes Valley. I have worked in the service industry for over a decade now and in all those years and I am still excited and passionate about the work I do. I feel am very blessed and lucky to have found something that makes me so happy in my everyday life, I feel even more fortunate that I will be able to take my dream and passion into the next level by opening a place of my own with my best friend and business partner Nguey Lay.

My grandparents have lived in the same house in the city for over 50 years and have had the same phone number just as long. My father was born and raised in San Francisco and joined the military at 17. I was born in Hawaii and raised as an army brat all over the world, during my many moves I attended middle school in San Francisco for a year and completed my last two years of high school here in the city at School of the Arts High School. After graduating from high school I traveled around on my own, before returning to complete my degree in English and Creative Writing at San Francisco State. After college I was again found myself on the road and have spent the last ten years living and traveling to places like Portland, Oregon, China, Vietnam, and Thailand, all this to say there is no city that compares with San Francisco.

It is here that I have returned to be closer to family, to see my friend's children grow up and to the open my first business in a field that I love. It is my goal to make sure that Fig + Thistle reflects the love I have for this city and people that live in it. This is a business that is the result of friendship and family. The idea of Fig + Thistle came into fruition because of relationships built over time with each other while enjoying the necessities that sustain our everyday lives, food and drink. I want to create a space where good friends come in and talk, where people take their first date, a place where everyone feels welcomed.

I am a communal person by nature and it would be natural for me to want to ensure that the community will benefit from the opening of our bar not just as new establishment to come and relax, but also in working on making the neighborhood better in anyway I can. I know I will be able to develop strong relationships with other business owners and residents. I am currently volunteering at the Hayes Valley Farm and working on a blog that focuses on featuring the local products we carry as well as interviews with other business owners about their experiences in the city.

Please feel free to contact me with any questions you might have.

Thank you for your time and consideration.

Sincerely,

Angel Davis

Dear Sir or Madam:

I am writing to support the opening of Fig + Thistle at 313 Ivy Street. I have been good friends with those involved in opening Fig + Thistle for 15 years and can attest to their passion and ability to build a business that seeks to enrich the Hayes Valley community. I am often in the neighborhood, visiting friends who live in the area as well as to attend the San Francisco Symphony. I fully support and welcome Fig + Thistle as a valued addition to the community.

To Whom It May Concern,

My name is Nguey Lay and I am writing because I would like permission to open a wine bar with my best friend and business partner Angel Davis, in Hayes Valley. The name of the wine bar is Fig + Thistle. We hope to open the bar on 313 Ivy Street, which is part of 423 Gough Street, a building my mother has owned for twelve years and I have been managing for the last ten years. I was born and raised in San Francisco, I went to Frank McCaughan Grade School, Roosevelt Middle School and finally to George Washington High School, where my father Quincy Lay also attended. My family and I have deep roots in the city, my father owned and worked in a deli called Quincy's on Market near Polk for forty years. My grandmother, who is 85 years old, owns a deli on Church at Market where you can still find her working behind the counter with my aunt and father. Being a native San Franciscan I have seen the city change in the last 30 years, especially Hayes Valley and it is here I would like to continue the family tradition of opening a small business in San Francisco where we can grow and support the neighborhood and offer a place to come in for a good beer or nice glass of wine for years to come.

Sincerely,

To Whom It May Concern:

This letter is in support of Nguay Lay who plans to open a wine bar on Gough Street to be named "The Fig and Thistle."

I am a season subscriber to the SF Opera, SF Ballet, and SF Symphony. Oftentimes my friends and I would like to stop off in Hayes Valley for a glass of wine either before or after a performance. A wine bar will be the perfect solution to our needs, especially if the atmosphere is warm and welcoming, which I am sure "The Fig and Thistle" will be because that describes Nguay Lay's persona.

Nguey has all of the characteristics of a model businessman and citizen. Professionally, he is honest in every way, and never puts profit above principle. How do I know these things to be true? Well, several years ago, when Nguay was first starting out in business, I loaned him a big sum of money. Not only did he pay me back in a timely way, but also he paid me a higher interest rate than we had agreed on. Of course, now that he is established he no longer needs my financial help but I would gladly give him that help if he ever he did need it again.

On a broader sense, Nguay is supportive and generous to friends and family. He is very social, enjoys being with those he loves. And, if one can judge a person by the company he keeps, I can testify that Nguay's friends and family are delightful to be around, friendly to everyone regardless of age or gender, and passionate about making the most of their lives.

On a personal level, Nguay, having always been an athlete, takes good care of his physical self. He doesn't drink to excess; I don't ever remember seeing him drink more than a glass of wine. Neither have I seen him drink hard liquor, or even a beer. He doesn't smoke except, perhaps, a celebratory cigar such as when his niece was born.

Please feel free to call me if you have any questions. I wouldn't be writing this letter if I had any reservations about Nguay Lay's opening of "The Fig and Thistle."

Sincerely,

Dr. I.J. Lupis

I am writing this letter to communicate my enthusiastic support for Fig & Thistle, the proposed new wine bar in Hayes Valley (actually, in the same building as my business.)

To Whom It May Concern,

I am writing in regards to the opening of Fig + Thistle on Ivy Street. As an employee of an organization located in Hayes Valley, I would like to express my excitement and support of the opening of this establishment in our neighborhood. Having known the owners for many years I can confidently vouch for the vision of their space and that the presence of their business will enhance and strengthen the community.

While I greatly appreciate the neighborhood's high quality of food, beverage, and shopping options, my colleagues and I are often at a loss for a relaxed and affordable place to go after work. I believe that the Fig + Thistle will encourage those of us on non-profit budgets to stay in Hayes Valley rather than traveling to other neighborhoods when looking for such a place to socialize.

There are very few places open after performances in the neighborhood. Not only would the Fig + Thistle provide a place to go after events at the various venues in Hayes Valley, it would also help populate a corridor that becomes quiet at night. As a young woman that often works late hours in the neighborhood, I would feel safer knowing that there was activity along my walk to my bus stop. I believe the owners would attract respectful clientele that would be a benefit to the Hayes Valley Merchants' Association.

Thank you for your time and consideration,
