9

10 WHEREAS, For the past 78 years, City College of San Francisco (CCSF) has been 11 crucial to the economic and social development of San Francisco and has been widely 12 acknowledged to be one of the best community colleges in the country, providing a rich array 13 of valued programs in nursing, radiology, culinary and hotel management; and

14 WHEREAS, CCSF provides an indispensable education to approximately 85,000 15 students per year, most of whom come from the working class, are people of color, and are 16 from immigrant communities and for whom CCSF represents one of the only options for 17 affordable higher education; and

18 WHEREAS, The 2012 report of the Accountability Reporting for Community Colleges 19 (ARCC) measured a racial achievement gap at CCSF with significantly fewer African 20 American, Filipino, Latino, and Pacific Islander students completing degrees or certificates or 21 transferring to four-year colleges; and

22 WHEREAS, CCSF is committed as part of its mission to “enhance student success and 23 close equity achievement gaps”; and

25

1 WHEREAS, CCSF has lost over $53 million in state cuts since 2007; and

2 WHEREAS, Class offerings, student support services, faculty and staff, and 3 opportunities for student employment have all been severely cut; and

4 WHEREAS, CCSF has come under scrutiny and sanction by the Accrediting 5 Commission for Community and Junior Colleges; and

6 WHEREAS, The passage of Proposition A in November 2012, by an overwhelming
7 73% of San Francisco voters, will bring in between $14 million to $16 million a year to CCSF 8 over each of the next eight years; and

9 WHEREAS, Funds raised through Proposition A are intended to alleviate the cuts that 10 severely limited class offerings, student support services, faculty and staff positions, and 11 opportunities for student employment; and

12 WHEREAS, As stated in the ballot measure language, Proposition A is to be used to 13 specifically offset budget cuts, prevent layoffs, provide affordable quality education for 14 students, maintain essential courses, and keep college libraries, student support services, and 15 other instructional support open and up to date; and

16 WHEREAS, When a decision must be made between providing services to people and 17 inflating a reserve fund, the scales must tip toward people in need; and

18 WHEREAS, A number of student, faculty, and community groups, as well as the San 19 Francisco Youth Commission, have requested that the City and County of San Francisco 20 examine how it could better support CCSF; and

21 WHEREAS, Quality and affordable public education that provides lifelong learning, 22 workplace and life skills, academic pathways and opportunities, and cultural and personal 23 enrichment is a universally acclaimed human right and essential to San Francisco's economic 24 viability; now, therefore, be it

25

1 RESOLVED, That the San Francisco Board of Supervisors urges the CCSF Board of 2 Trustees and administration to utilize Proposition A funds as outlined in the language of 3 Proposition A to preserve the quality and diversity of education that has served San Francisco
4 well; and, be it

5 FURTHER RESOLVED, That the Board of Supervisors urges the CCSF Board of 6 Trustees and administration to prioritize initiatives to close the racial achievement gap and 7 ensure equitable opportunities for educational success; and, be it

8 FURTHER RESOLVED, That the City shall consider additional support for CCSF by 9 evaluating the fees currently charged by the City to CCSF, the possibility of providing more in-10 kind services, and exploring long-term local support structures.
