19 Section 1. The Administrative Code is hereby amended by adding Chapter 96D,
20 consisting of Sections 96D.1 through 96D.5, to read as follows:

21

22 SEC. 96D.1. DEFINITIONS.

23 For purposes of this Chapter 96D:

24 “Abuse” means intentionally or recklessly causing or attempting to cause bodily injury, 25 or placing another person in reasonable apprehension of imminent serious bodily injury to himself or herself, or another.

1 “Domestic Violence” means abuse committed against an adult or a minor who is a
2 spouse, former spouse, cohabitant, former cohabitant, or person with whom the suspect has
3 had a child or is having or has had a dating or engagement relationship~~the crime defined in~~
4 Section 273.5 and the crimes punishable under Section 243(e)(1), of the California Penal 5 Code.

6 “Domestic Violence Cases” are cases presented or charged consistent with the 7 definition of Domestic Violence set forth above, including cases charged under Penal Code
8 sections 273.5 and 243(e)(1), 273.6, 422, 646.9, 591, 245, 653(m), 236, and 594, cases that
9 the San Francisco Police Department’s Special Victims Unit presents to the San Francisco
10 District Attorney (“District Attorney”), and cases that the District Attorney refers to its internal 11 domestic violence unit.

12 “Personal Identifying Information” means any information that can, on its own or in 13 combination with other information, be used to contact, track, locate, identify, or reasonably infer the 14 identity of, a specific individual.

15
16 SEC. 96D.2. QUARTERLY MONTHLY DOMESTIC VIOLENCE DATA REPORTING.

17 (a) On a quarterly basis (the first Tuesday in February, May, August, and November),
18 On the third Friday of each month, the Police Department and the District Attorney shall each
19 transmit a written report to the Board of Supervisors, the Mayor, the Office of Racial Equity, the 20 Human Rights Commission, the Department on the Status of Women, and the Police
21 Commission. The Police Department and District Attorney shall each post their report on their 22 respective department website. The reports shall contain the following information:

23 (1) The Police Department shall report:

1 (A) The number of calls for service for Domestic Violence that the Police
2 Department received from the Department of Emergency Management in the prior quarter (quarters
3 commencing January 1, April 1, July 1, and October 1) month; and

4 (B) The number of Domestic Violence casesCases that the Police Department
5 presented to the District Attorney for investigation and/or prosecution in the prior quartermonth, -and 6 of those cases, the number in which a child or children were present and/or a firearm or firearms were 7 present.

8 (2) The District Attorney shall report:

9 (A) The number of Domestic Violence casesCases that the District Attorney
10 charged in the prior quartermonth, broken down by cases alleging violations of Penal Code
11 Section 273.5, cases alleging violations of Penal Code Section 243(e)(1), cases presented by 12 the Police Department's Special Victims Unit to the District Attorney, cases that the District
13 Attorney has referred to its internal domestic violence unit, and all other Domestic Violence
14 Cases, and what charges were filed in those cases; and

15 (B) The number of Domestic Violence casesCases resolved in the prior
16 quartermonth, broken down by cases alleging violations of Penal Code Section 273.5, cases
17 alleging violations of Penal Code Section 243(e)(1), cases presented by the Police
18 Department's Special Victims Unit to the District Attorney, cases that the District Attorney has 19 referred to its internal domestic violence unit, and all other Domestic Violence Cases, and the 20 outcome of those cases, including disposition by dismissal, diversion, acquittal, conviction, release to 21 another court or agency, or other means.

22 (C) The number of crime victims to whom, in the prior quarter, the District
23 Attorney has provided or made documented efforts to provide victim services, including but 24 not limited to assistance applying for civil protective orders, crisis support services and

1 counseling, guidance in navigating the criminal justice system, referrals to local resources and
2 services, and support at court hearings.

3 (b) In addition to the reports required by subsection (a), above, the Police Department and the 4 District Attorney shall report the same information for the period September 1, 2019 to September 1,
5 2021 to the Board of Supervisors, the Mayor, the Office of Racial Equity, the Human Rights
6 Commission, the Department on the Status of Women, and the Police Commission, and shall 7 each post their reports on their respective department website, no later than December 31,
8 2021.

9 (c) The reports shall not include Personal Identifying Information.

10 (d) The reporting obligations under this Section 96D.2 are in addition to, and do not supplant,
11 any reporting obligations under Administrative Code Chapter 96A.

12 (e) This Section 96D.2 shall not be interpreted to require the Police Department or the District
13 Attorney to collect data but instead requires only that the Police Department and District Attorney
14 report available data.

15 (f) In any report required under subsection (a) or (b) above, the District Attorney may,
16 in its discretion, and to the extent consistent with applicable law, provide supplemental 17 information regarding the Domestic Violence Cases and victim services reported. Any such 18 supplemental information shall not include Personal Identifying Information.

19
20 SEC. 96D.3. UNDERTAKING FOR THE GENERAL WELFARE.

21 In enacting and implementing this Chapter 96D, the City is assuming an undertaking only to 22 promote the general welfare. It is not assuming, nor is it imposing on its officers and employees, an 23 obligation for breach of which it is liable in money damages to any person who claims that such breach 24 proximately caused injury.
