Natividad "Nati" Ramirez

My name is Nati Ramirez and I was born and raised in San Francisco. My parents, Don Ramon and Guadalupe Ramirez, immigrated to the United States from Mexico in 1955 and settled in San Francisco with my sisters, Leo and Lucy, and my brother Jay, who died in 1994. In 1958 my parents opened a small Mexican Deli and Restaurant in the Mission and later moved to our current location on 11th Street in the South of Market Area, where Don Ramon's Restaurant proudly serves the food that my parents made famous and where my sisters and I carry on their legacy.

My parents instilled in me the value of dedication to family and community and the importance of having a good education. I received my Bachelor's Degree from Lone Mountain College/USF in 1978 majoring in Spanish, Psychology and Sociology. At that time, my dream was to teach Spanish and to help others realize their dreams. While I did not become a teacher; I choose another form of public service and have been working for the City and County of San Francisco since 1985.

I started in the District Attorney's Office in the Family Support Division helping the less fortunate. I was responsible for determining the client's eligibility, assisting battered women in relocating, enforcing child support obligations and educating the public on Child Support Law.

Then In 1990 I transferred to the D.A.'s Consumer and Environmental Unit and became an Assistant Investigator. I was able to use my bilingual skills where I served as a community liaison, advising and educating consumers on deceptive and fraudulent practices through public service announcements, community meetings and bulletins. I also worked as a consumer complaint mediator, resolving problems between residents and business people. Complaints involved problems with towing companies, travel agencies, insurance companies, elder abuse, immigration fraud and landlord/tenant disputes. Many of these complaints required extensive research and investigation and involved criminal activity.

After five years I was transferred to the Special Investigation Unit in the Welfare Fraud Division where I used my bilingual and investigative skills to determine welfare fraud abuses, working with other law enforcement agencies to prepare cases for trial. Since 1998 I have supervised the SFDA's Subpoena Unit, managing four employees who process and serve over one hundred thousand subpoenas to sworn peace officers and civilian witnesses.

Besides my professional career I have been involved in many other roles and projects to continue the commitment to community service instilled in me by my parents. I was appointed as a member of the Superior Court Task Force charged with educating the public on the trial process and spent two years as a member of the Immigration Rights Commission, assisting newcomers with finding the appropriate government contacts for their specific problems. I volunteered with the Special Olympics of Northern California to encourage more dignitaries to participate in events; I served for several years on the Parents Board at St. Brigid's school, and have been associated with various Hispanic organizations. I would very much like to offer my energy, enthusiasm, and my expertise in helping the public as a member of the Relocation Appeals Board.
