1 [Supporting California State Senate Bill No. 1017 (Eggman) -The Keeping Survivors Housed
2 Act]

3 Resolution urging the California State Senate to pass Senate Bill No. 1017, introduced
4 by Senator Susan Eggman, which will allow survivors of domestic violence and other 5 violent acts, who are tenants, to maintain their current housing and avoid eviction,
6 significantly increasing their safety and providing much-needed stability as they heal
7 from trauma.

8
9 WHEREAS, Survivors of domestic violence, sexual assault, stalking, human trafficking, 10 elder or dependent adult abuse, and other forms of crime are at increased risk of housing 11 instability; and

12 WHEREAS, An ACLU report stated that 50% of U.S. cities surveyed reported that 13 domestic violence is a primary cause of homelessness; and

14 WHEREAS, Nationally, 57% of unhoused women reported domestic violence was an 15 immediate cause of their homelessness; and

16 WHEREAS, The threat of housing insecurity causes victims to stay in abusive 17 relationships – exposing loved ones of all ages to continued violence; and

18 WHEREAS, Several gaps in current state law leave survivors at risk and unable to 19 access protections for survivors under California Code of Civil Procedure Section 1161.3; and

20 WHEREAS, Survivors who lack required documentation of abuse, survivors who 21 previously shared tenancy with their abusive partner, and survivors who lose the protection 22 because the abusive partner returned to the property -even without the survivor's consent or 23 for common sense reasons such as collecting their belongings or child custody exchanges, all 24 are unable to access protections; and

1           WHEREAS, California State Senate Bill No. 1017, on file with the Clerk of the Board of 2 Supervisors in File No. 220302, which is hereby declared to be a part of this resolution as if set
3 forth fully herein, will help ensure that no survivor can be evicted because of acts of abuse 4 committed against them; and

5           WHEREAS, California State Senate Bill No. 1017 will support survivors, their families, 6 and their loved ones, stay safely housed by expanding allowable documentation of the 7 violence to include documentation from a victim of violent crime advocate, or other 8 documentation that reasonably proves the victimization and is acceptable to the court; and

9           WHEREAS, California State Senate Bill No. 1017 will eliminate a loophole in current 10 law, which does not allow survivors to utilize eviction protection if the abusive person was also 11 a tenant at the property and no longer lives there; and

12           WHEREAS, California State Senate Bill No. 1017 will eliminate language in current 13 statute that invalidates protections if the survivor “allows” the abusive person to visit the 14 property, which does not reflect the research-based realities of domestic violence 15 relationships; and

16           WHEREAS, California State Senate Bill No. 1017 will revoke eviction protections only if 17 the tenant voluntarily allows the abusive person’s presence at the property and the perpetrator
18 poses a threat to the safety of another person at the property; and

19           WHEREAS, California State Senate Bill No. 1017 will revoke eviction protections only if 20 the tenant voluntarily allows the abusive person’s presence at the property and the perpetrator
21 poses a threat to the safety of another person at the property; and

22           WHEREAS, California State Senate Bill No. 1017 will provide survivors with the option 23 to remain in the unit on the same terms as the previous lease, and ensuring the survivor will 24 not be a party in the eviction case, if the court finds the landlord ended the tenancy because 25 of the abuse; and

1           WHEREAS, California State Senate Bill No. 1017 will provide survivors, household 2 members, and immediate family members who terminate their lease early a cause of action if 3 their landlord fails to comply with the law; now, therefore, be it

4           RESOLVED, That the Board of Supervisors urges the California State Legislature to 5 pass Senate Bill No. 1017, introduced by Senator Susan Eggman; and, be it

6           FURTHER RESOLVED, That the Board of Supervisors hereby directs the Clerk of the 7 Board to send a copy of this resolution to the members of the Senate Appropriations
8 Committee, Senator Susan Eggman, the California State Legislature, and Governor Gavin
9 Newsom.

An act to amend Section 1946.7 of the Civil Code, and to amend Section 1161.3 of the Code of Civil Procedure, relating to housing.

LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL'S DIGEST

SB 1017, as introduced, Eggman. Leases: termination of tenancy: abuse or violence.

Existing law authorizes a tenant to provide a landlord with 180-day written notice, as specified, that the tenant, household member, or immediate family member, as defined, was a victim of an act of domestic violence, sexual assault, stalking, human trafficking, abuse of an elder or a dependent adult, or of other specified crimes, and that the tenant intends to terminate the tenancy. Existing law limits the amount of rent for which the tenant is responsible to not more than 14 calendar days after the notice is given and requires the tenant to be released from responsibility for making other rent payments under the lease, as specified.

Existing law prohibits a landlord from terminating or failing to renew a tenancy based upon an act or acts against a tenant or a tenant's household member that constitute domestic violence, sexual assault, stalking, human trafficking, or elder or dependent adult abuse if certain standards are met. Existing law requires the act to be documented in one of several ways, including by a court order, police report, or tenant statement and qualified third party statement, as specified, and existing law requires that the person against whom the order was issued, or who was named in the police report or tenant statement and qualified third party statement, not be a tenant of the same dwelling unit as the tenant or household member.

Existing law allows a landlord to terminate or decline to renew a tenancy if the tenant allows the person against whom the court order was issued or who was named in the police report or tenant statement and qualified third party statement to visit the property or if the landlord reasonably believes that the presence of the person poses a physical threat to other tenants, guests, invitees, or licensees, or to a tenant's right to quiet possession, and the landlord previously gave at least 3 days' notice to the tenant to correct the violation, as specified.

This bill would recast these provisions to prohibit a landlord from terminating or failing to renew a tenancy based on an act of abuse or violence, as defined, against a tenant, a tenant's immediate family member, as defined, or a tenant's household member. The bill would also recast these provisions to allow a landlord to terminate or refuse to renew a tenancy if the tenant voluntarily permits or consents to the presence of the perpetrator of abuse or violence, as defined, on the premises, the perpetrator has threatened to commit a crime, as specified, and the landlord gave at least 3 days' notice to the tenant to correct the violation in the last 90 days. The bill would make conforming changes to the required notice form and would require the Judicial Council to update its form by January 1, 2024.

This bill would set forth specific requirements for unlawful detainer proceedings under these provisions, and would require a court to make findings of whether a tenant is guilty of unlawful detainer because of an act of abuse or violence against them, their immediate family member, or their household member, and entitle the tenant to certain remedies, as specified.

This bill would make a landlord or agent liable to the tenant for actual damages of not less than $100 and punitive damages of not more than $10,000 in a civil action for violation of these provisions and would authorize the awarding of attorneys' fees and costs to the prevailing party, as specified.

Vote: majority. Appropriation: no. Fiscal committee: no.
State-mandated local program: no.

Dear Clerk,

Please see attached introduction form and resolution supporting SB 1017. I have also attached a PDF copy of SB 1017. The California State Association of Counties and League of California Cities have not taken a position on this bill. Because this is For Adoption Without Committee Reference, I can also confirm that these matters are routine, not contentious in nature, and of no special interest.

I have also added Natalie Gee from Supervisor Walton's office to confirm co-sponsorship. Please let me know if you have any questions or if I am missing anything.

Thank you,
Ana
