"8.1.1. (a) This Agreement shall expire of its own accord on the expiration of the Booking Period set forth in Section 2.1.

(b) City shall have the option, with not less than sixty (60) days' written notice to Hotel, to terminate this Agreement for any reason. City may send the termination notice to Hotel at any time during the Booking Period. Within the notice, City will specify the termination date, which will be at least sixty (60) days after the effective date of the notice. For example, if City sends a termination notice to Hotel with an effective date of May 1, 2022, the Booking Period will terminate sixty (60) days thereafter (City's last night of occupancy would be no earlier than June 30, 2022).

City agrees to use commercially reasonable efforts to provide more advanced notice of City's intent to vacate the Premises, to the extent it is practical or able to do so. Any notice provided by City in advance of the minimum sixty (60) days required under this Agreement will be considered "Advance Notice". Upon receipt of any Advance Notice, Hotel may submit to City a request for City to assess the feasibility of accelerating the termination period to occur at a mutually agreeable date earlier than the date specified in the Advance Notice; provided, however, that failure of either party to agree upon an earlier termination through the Advance Notice procedure will not be deemed an event of default under this Agreement."

(f) Addition of Section 8.1.4. Section 8.1.4 is hereby added to the Agreement.

"Upon the expiration of the Booking Period or earlier termination of this Agreement, City and Hotel will enter into the Final Agreement Closeout and Release of Claims, attached hereto as Appendix F."

Hotel Dispute Review Board Protocol

HOTEL DISPUTE REVIEW BOARD PROTOCOL

1. Dispute

A Dispute is a disagreement, related to a damages claim by the Hotel under the Booking Agreement between the City and the Hotel.

2. Intent

This Dispute Review Protocol is an informal and nonbinding process intended to provide third-party review of and a proposed resolution for each Dispute under the Booking Agreement. The Protocol will result in a cost assessment report (“DRB Report”). The DRB Report is a non-binding, privileged and confidential settlement document inadmissible in evidence under California Evidence Code Section 1152. The DRB Report may not be used in discovery, in evidence, or for any purpose other than an informal, nonbinding, attempt at resolution of a Dispute. Failure by either party to utilize the process described herein shall not be deemed a waiver of any underlying claims.

3. Dispute Review Board (DRB)

The DRB is a two-member board, consisting of one member selected by the City and one member selected by the Hotel. The Parties reserve the right to select a mutually agreeable third member not aligned with the City or the Hotel (for example, a local mediation professional with experience in construction) to act as Chair for all DRB activities. For ease of contracting, the Hotel will contract with the Chair, subject to review and approval of the Contract and associated fees by the City.

4. Parties’ Communication

All DRB Protocol communications shall be made through a designee of the Hotel and a designee of the City, as established when the process is triggered.

5. DRB Protocol

Both Parties are responsible for implementing the DRB Protocol. The Protocol may include formulating rules of operation, scheduling site visits, holding DRB meetings, and identifying other procedures as mutually agreed by the Parties.

As early as practicable, the Parties each will identify and exchange the name of a selected DRB member. Within five calendar days of the exchange, the Parties will meet and agree upon a mutually agreeable schedule and scope for the Hotel site inspection, as necessary, and will agree upon a date for the exchange of cost estimates.

On a mutually agreed upon schedule, the DRB members and Parties will meet to review the cost estimates and attempt resolution of the Dispute.

6. Written Notice of Dispute Resolution Failure

Should the Parties fail to resolve a Dispute within 30 days of the cost estimate exchange, the Parties will provide written notice to the DRB of the Dispute resolution failure.

7. DRB Report

Within 15 days of issuance of the Dispute resolution failure notice, the DRB will issue a DRB Report. The DRB Report is an informal non-binding, inadmissible written recommendation for Dispute resolution.

The Parties will have 3 calendar days to accept or reject the DRB Report recommendation for Dispute resolution and/or to request clarification. If the DRB provides clarification, the Parties will have an additional 3 calendar days to accept or reject the DRB Report. If accepted, the Parties will execute a Booking Agreement Closeout and Release.

8. San Francisco Board of Supervisors Approval

The City and Hotel each understands and agrees that any proposed Dispute resolution may require formal approval by the San Francisco Board of Supervisors acting in its sole discretion.

9. Government Code Claim Filing Requirements

The Hotel understands and agrees that nothing herein shall operate to toll, waive, or excuse the Hotel's compliance with the Government Code Claim requirements under California Government Code Section 900, et seq., and San Francisco Administrative Code Chapter 10 as to the disputed claims.

10. Compensation of the Dispute Review Board

The City and Hotel agree that each will bear its own fees and expenses for that Party's individually selected DRB member and that each DRB member shall not be entitled to any additional compensation for their work as a representative of the Hotel or City. The Parties will share equally the fees and expenses of DRB Chair after approval of the DRB Chair's invoice by both parties, which approval will not be unreasonably withheld.
