Hon. Angela Calvillo
Clerk, San Francisco Board of Supervisors
City Hall
San Francisco, CA 94102

Dear Ms. Calvillo:

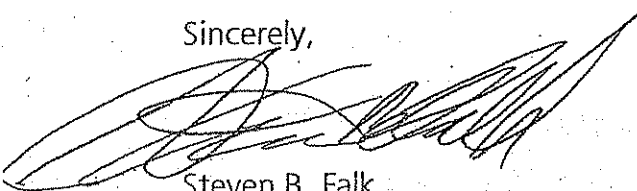

The Chamber of Commerce has been following with great interest the Board of Supervisors' deliberations over the selection of an interim mayor.

It appears that a majority of the Board of Supervisors have properly defined the attributes needed in an interim mayor; a proven executive who can manage the city, work with the Board and complete the unfinished business of the current administration.

With over two decades of city management experience, Ed Lee certainly meets these criteria. An effective administrator with knowledge of virtually every aspect of San Francisco city government, respected for his integrity and common sense and more than capable in representing the city from Sacramento, to Washington, to our sister cities around the world, Ed is the right person, at the right time to occupy the Mayor's Office during this challenging time.

Please let the members of the Board know of the Chamber's strong support for the appointment of Ed Lee as interim mayor.

Sincerely,

Steven B. Falk
President
