8 WHEREAS, In 1969, the state of California mandated that all local governments plan 9 for the housing needs of their residents, regardless of income, by ensuring adequate 10 opportunities for housing development exist within municipal boundaries, known as the 11 Regional Housing Needs Allocation (RHNA); and

12 WHEREAS, San Francisco’s RHNA allocation for the 2023-2030 cycle is 82,069 13 housing units, a significant increase over prior RHNA allocations; which will be addressed by 14 this Housing Element update; and

15 WHEREAS, State Law requires that the Housing Element addresses, removes, or 16 mitigates governmental and non-governmental constraints to housing production in order to 17 meet RHNA allocations; and

18 WHEREAS, Failure to submit an adopted Housing Element that complies with the 19 California Department of Housing and Community Development’s deadlines and requirements 20 would result in fines, a potential reduction in City jurisdiction over housing production, and 21 ineligibility for future affordable housing funding; now, therefore, be it

22 MOVED, That the Board of Supervisors of the City and County of San Francisco
23 convene as a Committee of the Whole on November 15, 2022, at 3:00 p.m., to hold a public
24 hearing requesting the Planning Department to present on the draft Housing Element 2022
25 Update, including its goals, objectives, policies, and actions.
