Message: Vote NO on Early Re-Appointment to the Police Commission on 1/10

Dear Supervisors,

I write to object to Supervisor Peskin's motion that seeks the inappropriately early reappointment of Police Commissioner Cindy Elias.

This motion is currently set for a vote on January 10, 2023 yet her term doesn't end until April 30th, 2023.

Usually during the final 4 or 5 months of a Police Commissioner's term, several candidates will emerge to compete for the position and present policy positions for open discussion.

Supervisor Peskin's motion is an attack on public participation, dissuading applicants from coming forward and recklessly quashes what should be a robust debate about police department reform priorities in front of a newly seated Board of Supervisors.

I urge that you vote NO and respect due process as an elected representative.

Thank you.

Dear Board of Supervisors:

Public Safety has never been more important to San Franciscans. The role of the Police Commissioner should not be taken lightly. Therefore we/HVSafe recommend that the board reconsider not re-appointing Cindy Elias at this time and allow for an open and democratic process. We urge you as a board member to Vote NO on this appointment in order to ensure due process.

Moreover, we hereby advocate that we hear from all candidates and their policy positions between now and April 30th 2023 as to allow the opportunity for an open discussion and debate.

Thank you.

Message: Vote NO on Early Re-Appointment to the Police Commission on 1/10

Dear Supervisors,

I write to object to Supervisor Peskin's motion that seeks the inappropriately early reappointment of Police Commissioner Cindy Elias.

This motion is currently set for a vote on January 10, 2023 yet her term doesn't end until April 30th, 2023.

Usually during the final 4 or 5 months of a Police Commissioner's term, several candidates will emerge to compete for the position and present policy positions for open discussion.

Supervisor Peskin's motion is an attack on public participation, dissuading applicants from coming forward and recklessly quashes what should be a robust debate about police department reform priorities in front of a newly seated Board of Supervisors.

I urge that you vote NO and respect due process as an elected representative.

Thank you.

Message: Vote NO on Early Re-Appointment to the Police Commission on 1/10

Dear Supervisors,

I write to object to Supervisor Peskin's motion that seeks the inappropriately early reappointment of Police Commissioner Cindy Elias.

For months, I have been active in reviewing and commenting upon the Commission's proposed traffic order that, at least in its first draft, would have barred SFPD from stopping or citing in connection with more than a dozen motor vehicle infractions. I have seen first hand how the zealous advocates of this order created a biased, unfair participatory process yet all the while congratulating themselves on designing a public input system. In this context, it is simply unconscionable for the Board of Supervisors to prematurely move a reappointment of Commission President Elias. Honestly, I for one am considering applying but would now be denied that opportunity.

Basic principles of fair play and justice demand that the Board not take action on this appointment at this time.

This motion is currently set for a vote on January 10, 2023 yet her term doesn't end until April 30th, 2023.

I urge that you vote NO.

Message: Vote NO on Early Re-Appointment to the Police Commission on 1/10

Dear Supervisors,

I am writing to object to Supervisor Peskin's motion seeking the early reappointment of Police Commissioner Cindy Elias.

This is a cynical, politically motivated motion that is disrespectful to San Francisco voters because it unnecessarily rushes an important decision with a candidacy that would likely not, in an open, public election, received majority support. Our City is in distress and this exactly the wrong process to manipulate in this way without a normal timeframe for consideration.

Further, the Board of Supervisors is failing to properly represent residents and protect the rights of tax payers and law abiding citizens. The police are unable to properly enforce law and order due to the restrictions in public safety law. I cannot fathom why the Board of Supervisors seems disinterested in taxpayers rights, we live here, we have a right to safety and protection. Police are unable to protect San Francisco citizens, and instead you have curtailed are are proposing more curtailment of laws that allow out-of-town pimps, prostitutes and more unsavory characters to destroy this beautiful city. The police are unable to do anything. This has led to car crashes (2 in the past month) in our neighborhood, speeding up and down residential streets, gun shots, physical violence against women (a woman was dragged into a car screaming a few weeks back). This city is becoming destitute - why the Board of Supervisors accepts destitution is beyond my comprehension. You all need to stop doing nothing, and act on behalf of the city's residents. We have rights too, you seem to have forgotten that.

Thank you,
Mark.

January 7, 2022

Supervisor Melgar,

As a District 7 resident who is appalled by the rampant open air drug dealing fueling the opioid crisis and the uncontrolled property crime destroying our neighborhoods - enough is enough. The fact that owning a car with a catalytic converter or inadvertently leaving a bag inside a vehicle all but guarantees one as a target of a smash and grab is problematic. I'm sickened by the uncontrolled shoplifting that affects small local businesses, and drives larger employers from our City.

Most importantly and timely, I'm dissatisfied by the policies of the Police Commission.

The Police Commission seems to care more about debilitating and challenging law enforcement than enacting policies that address the everyday experiences by San Francisco residents and our visitors. The Police Commission's unyielding policies make public safety and enforcement in San Francisco more difficult for law enforcement. The blatant lack of action by the Commission to answer and address the hue and cry from our residents is infuriating, demoralizing and debilitating.

It is time for a new direction for the Police Commission.
Their policies have failed San Francisco.

Commissioner Elias's seat is due to expire on April 30, 2023 and I urge you to reject the early renewal of her seat without consideration of other candidates and input from the community.

Therefore, please conduct a full search for qualified candidates and reverse your intent to reappoint Supervisor Elias prior to the expiration of her seat.

Signed by,

Steve Roditti

Message: Vote NO on Early Re-Appointment to the Police Commission on 1/10

Dear Supervisors,

I write to object to Supervisor Peskin's motion that seeks the inappropriately early reappointment of Police Commissioner Cindy Elias.

This motion is currently set for a vote on January 10, 2023 yet her term doesn't end until April 30th, 2023.

Usually during the final 4 or 5 months of a Police Commissioner's term, several candidates will emerge to compete for the position and present policy positions for open discussion.

Supervisor Peskin's motion is an attack on public participation, dissuading applicants from coming forward and recklessly quashes what should be a robust debate about police department reform priorities in front of a newly seated Board of Supervisors.

I urge that you vote NO and respect due process as an elected representative.

Thank you.

January 7, 2022

Supervisor Melgar,

As a District 7 resident who is appalled by the rampant open air drug dealing fueling the opioid crisis and the uncontrolled property crime destroying our neighborhoods - enough is enough. The fact that owning a car with a catalytic converter or inadvertently leaving a bag inside a vehicle all but guarantees one as a target of a smash and grab is problematic. I'm sickened by the uncontrolled shoplifting that affects small local businesses, and drives larger employers from our City.

Most importantly and timely, I'm dissatisfied by the policies of the Police Commission.

The Police Commission seems to care more about debilitating and challenging law enforcement than enacting policies that address the everyday experiences by San Francisco residents and our visitors. The Police Commission's unyielding policies make public safety and enforcement in San Francisco more difficult for law enforcement. The blatant lack of action by the Commission to answer and address the hue and cry from our residents is infuriating, demoralizing and debilitating.

It is time for a new direction for the Police Commission.
Their policies have failed San Francisco.

Commissioner Elias's seat is due to expire on April 30, 2023 and I urge you to reject the early renewal of her seat without consideration of other candidates and input from the community.

Therefore, please conduct a full search for qualified candidates and reverse your intent to reappoint Supervisor Elias prior to the expiration of her seat.

Signed by,

Karen Breslin

District 7 resident suffers from open air drug dealing and property crime both of which are destructive to our neighborhoods and threaten our residents. The fact that owning a car with a catalytic converter or inadvertently leaving a bag inside a vehicle all but guarantees one as a target of a smash and grab is problematic, not to mention the systematic victimization of tourists who visit the city and the brazen and sometimes violent thefts on Twin Peaks. Uncontrolled shoplifting affects small local businesses and drives larger employers from our City.

Most importantly and timely, I'm dissatisfied by the policies of the Police Commission. In speaking to a reporter a few weeks ago about crime on Twin Peaks I said that policy and lack of resources are to blame for this state of affairs.

The Police Commission cares more about challenging law enforcement than enacting policies that address the everyday experiences by San Francisco residents and our visitors. These policies make public safety and enforcement in San Francisco more difficult. Residents continued requests for more action is essentially ignored and neighbors are told there are not enough resources and it isn't their job to prevent crime, only investigate crimes that have been committed.

It is time for a new direction for the Police Commission.
Their policies have failed San Francisco.

Usually during the final 4 or 5 months of a Police Commissioner's term, several candidates will emerge to compete for the position and present policy positions for open discussion.

Supervisor Peskin's motion is an attack on public participation, dissuading applicants from coming forward and recklessly quashes what should be a robust debate about police department reform priorities in front of a newly seated Board of Supervisors.

I urge that you vote NO and respect due process as an elected representative. There is absolutely no legitimate reason for the early appointment, except of course, politics as usual!

Thank you.

Supervisor Peskin's motion is an attack on public participation, dissuading applicants from coming forward and recklessly quashes what should be a robust debate about police department reform priorities in front of a newly seated Board of Supervisors.

I urge that you vote NO and respect due process as an elected representative.

We expect our district supervisors to carry our voices to City Hall. Please listen to our request!

Thank you.

Message: Vote NO on Early Re-Appointment to the Police Commission on 1/10

Dear Supervisors,

I write to object to Supervisor Peskin's motion that seeks the inappropriately early reappointment of Police Commissioner Cindy Elias.

This motion is currently set for a vote on January 10, 2023 yet her term doesn't end until April 30th, 2023.

Usually during the final 4 or 5 months of a Police Commissioner's term, several candidates will emerge to compete for the position and present policy positions for open discussion.

Supervisor Peskin's motion is an attack on public participation, dissuading applicants from coming forward and recklessly quashes what should be a robust debate about police department reform priorities in front of a newly seated Board of Supervisors.

I urge that you vote NO and respect due process as an elected representative.

Thank you.

Message: Vote NO on Early Re-Appointment to the Police Commission on 1/10

Dear Supervisors,

I write to object to Supervisor Peskin's motion that seeks the inappropriately early reappointment of Police Commissioner Cindy Elias.

This motion is currently set for a vote on January 10, 2023 yet her term doesn't end until April 30th, 2023.

Usually during the final 4 or 5 months of a Police Commissioner's term, several candidates will emerge to compete for the position and present policy positions for open discussion.

Supervisor Peskin's motion is an attack on public participation, dissuading applicants from coming forward and recklessly quashes what should be a robust debate about police department reform priorities in front of a newly seated Board of Supervisors.

I urge that you vote NO and respect due process as an elected representative.

Thank you.

Message: Vote NO on Early Re-Appointment to the Police Commission on 1/10

Dear Supervisors,

I write to object to Supervisor Peskin's motion that seeks the early reappointment of Police Commissioner Cindy Elias.

This motion is currently set for a vote at the next Board meeting.

Usually the Board of Supervisors entertains a number of Candidates to consider for such an important commission. This early reappointment measure is inappropriate and unfair to others who may wish to serve.

Ultimately, this measure cuts out the opportunity to bring a new voice with new credentials to the Police Commission, if desired. And it diminishes public trust.

I urge you to consider tabling this matter and to allow the usual process to move forward.

Thank you.

Russell Davis, Chair
Mt. Davidson Manor HOA

January 7, 2022

Supervisor Melgar,

As a District 7 resident who is appalled by the rampant open air drug dealing fueling the opioid crisis and the uncontrolled property crime destroying our neighborhoods - enough is enough. The fact that owning a car with a catalytic converter or inadvertently leaving a bag inside a vehicle all but guarantees one as a target of a smash and grab is problematic. I'm sickened by the uncontrolled shoplifting that affects small local businesses, and drives larger employers from our City. Most importantly and timely, I'm dissatisfied by the policies of the Police Commission.

The Police Commission seems to care more about debilitating and challenging law enforcement than enacting policies that address the everyday experiences by San Francisco residents and our visitors. The Police Commission's unyielding policies make public safety and enforcement in San Francisco more difficult for law enforcement. The blatant lack of action by the Commission to answer and address the hue and cry from our residents is infuriating, demoralizing and debilitating. It is time for a new direction for the Police Commission. Their policies have failed San Francisco.

Commissioner Elias's seat is due to expire on April 30, 2023 and I urge you to reject the early renewal of her seat without consideration of other candidates and input from the community. Therefore, please conduct a full search for qualified candidates and reverse your intent to reappoint Supervisor Elias prior to the expiration of her seat.

Sincerely,
