7
8 WHEREAS, Randall Kline is the Founder and Executive Artistic Director of SFJAZZ 9 and has led the organization for 40 years distinguishing him as a trailblazer in the world of 10 jazz; and

11 WHEREAS, Randall Kline has built SFJAZZ from a two-night festival into one of San 12 Francisco's most prized cultural institutions and plans to leave his role as executive artistic 13 director next year; and

14 WHEREAS, Mr. Kline founded the organization - originally named Jazz in the City, in 15 1983; in December 1999, he announced the establishment of SFJAZZ, the San Francisco
16 Jazz Organization, a much expanded organization with year-round concert and educational 17 programs; and

18 WHEREAS, Randall Kline has built the organization from a small community-based 19 organization to an internationally recognized, year-round jazz institution; and

20 WHEREAS, On Martin Luther King Jr. Day in 2013, the award winning SFJAZZ Center
21 had its Grand Opening in the Hayes Valley neighborhood and Civic Center performing arts 22 district; and

23 WHEREAS, The SFJAZZ Center is iconic and is the country's only stand-alone building 24 designed and dedicated to jazz presentation; and

25

1           WHEREAS, Randall Kline supports local and international artists by presenting over 2 450 concerts a year to more than 200,000 people at the SFJAZZ Center; and

3           WHEREAS, The SFJAZZ Center provides extensive education programs for people of 4 all ages, including middle school students in San Francisco and Oakland, and the award-
5 winning SFJAZZ High School All-Stars; and

6           WHEREAS, Randall Kline has made significant and remarkable contributions to the 7 vitality of our City, and his tremendous lifework truly represents San Francisco values at their 8 best; and
