[National Mental Health Awareness Month - May 2023]

Resolution recognizing May 2023 as National Mental Health Awareness Month in the City and County of San Francisco.

WHEREAS, Prior to the COVID-19 pandemic, one in every five adults in the United States reported experiencing mental illness; and

WHEREAS, 19% of people experiencing homelessness in San Francisco cite alcohol, drug use, or mental health issues as the primary cause of their homelessness, and 23% cite these as their primary barriers to employment; and

WHEREAS, 52% of people experiencing homelessness in San Francisco report experiencing drug or alcohol abuse issues, 38% report experiencing post-traumatic stress disorder (PTSD), and 36% report experiencing psychiatric or emotional conditions; and

WHEREAS, Over 1 million Americans have died of fatal overdoses since 1999; and WHEREAS, Suicide rates in the United States have increased 36% since 2000, making it the 11th leading cause of death in the United States and the second leading cause of death in youth ages 15-24; and

WHEREAS, Nearly 99% of those who died of suicide have an underlying mental illness; and

WHEREAS, Most mental health issues are preventable and treatable with early care and intervention; and

WHEREAS, There is still a prevalent stigma associated with mental health that makes it difficult for those affected to seek help; and

WHEREAS, Mental health is often less prioritized and less accessible in health care systems; and

WHEREAS, African Americans and Latinos access mental health services at about one-half the rate of Caucasian Americans and Asian Americans at about one-third the rate; and

WHEREAS, The COVID-19 pandemic and orders to "shelter in place' caused both a psychological and economic depression that negatively affected the mental health and stability of many people, especially those already suffering from mental illness and substance use disorders; and

WHEREAS, A broad body of research links social isolation and loneliness to poor mental health; and

WHEREAS, Existing mental illness among adolescents was exacerbated by the pandemic, and school closures limited access to key mental health resources; and

WHEREAS, 20% of high school students report experiencing serious thoughts of suicide, and 9% have made an attempt to take their own lives; and

WHEREAS, San Francisco has many dedicated community-based providers that offer culturally competent and bilingual resources to serve at-risk communities; and

WHEREAS, Raising awareness about mental health and removing the stigma encourages a safe environment for people to seek treatment; and

WHEREAS, President Barack Obama proclaimed May National Mental Health Awareness Month in 2013 to bring nationwide attention to this significant issue; and

WHEREAS, The Board of Supervisors has twice declared May to be National Mental Health Awareness Month in the City and County of San Francisco, in Resolutions on file with the Clerk of the Board in File Nos. 150502 and 200467; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, The San Francisco Board of Supervisors recognizes the efforts to bring awareness to mental health and to commit more resources to accessible services; and, be it

FURTHER RESOLVED, That the Board of Supervisors recognizes and designates the month of May 2023 as National Mental Health Awareness Month in the City and County of San Francisco.
