

A close-up photograph of a dark blue San Francisco Police uniform. On the right shoulder, there is a large, shield-shaped patch with a blue background and yellow border. The patch features the words "SAN FRANCISCO" and "POLICE" in yellow at the top, a yellow eagle with spread wings in the center, and a yellow banner at the bottom with the text "ORO EN PAZ FIERRO EN GUERRA". To the left of this patch, there is a smaller, silver, star-shaped badge with "SAN FRANCISCO" and "POLICE" inscribed on it.

PRESENTATION TO THE BOARD OF SUPERVISORS

Collaborative Reform in San Francisco

The Path to Sustainability

October 2, 2023

An aerial photograph of a city skyline, likely Chicago, with the Willis Tower prominently in the center. A river flows through the city, and various skyscrapers and buildings are visible. The image has a slightly hazy, atmospheric quality.

ABOUT JENSEN HUGHES

- Jensen Hughes (formerly Hillard Heintze) is one of this nation's foremost strategic risk management firms specializing in independent ethics, integrity and oversight services – with a special focus on federal, state and local law enforcement agencies including police departments, sheriff departments and internal affairs bureaus.
- Sole private contractor selected by the USDOJ to advise and engage on collaborative reform across the country.

Reform Foundation

- The U.S. DOJ Collaborative Reform Initiative published An Assessment of the San Francisco Police Department, on October 12, 2016
 - 94 findings and 272 recommendations
- Goal - to guide reform efforts to achieve model policing practices and enhance community partnerships in San Francisco

SAN FRANCISCO AND COLLABORATIVE REFORM

Strategic Reform Initiatives:

- Use of force
- Bias in policing
- Community oriented policing
- Organizational Accountability
- Personnel practices

COLLABORATIVE REFORM - CURRENT STATE

- CADOJ Oversight
- Jensen Hughes monitor and report
- Three Reports tracking progress
 - Final Report delivered February 2022
 - Key outcome – improved policy, practice and training for use of force

A large, dark, textured wall with the words "SAN FRANCISCO" and "POLICE DEPARTMENT" in large, white, three-dimensional capital letters. The wall is part of a modern building with large glass windows in the background.

SAN FRANCISCO
POLICE DEPARTMENT

Current Reform Focus

- Work under the current reform program began September 2022
- Five projects plans with delivery timelines concluding April 2024
- Sustainability review for completed recommendations
- Independent monitoring, review, and reporting on the Department's ongoing transformation

Use of Force – Two Project Plans (1&2)

Reccs 20.1, 20.2, 20.3, 20.4, 21.2, 22.1

- Data reconciliation and ongoing analysis
- Further enforces the commitment to use of force proportionate necessary

Sustainability

Model Policy and Practices

- Disengagement policy
- Field Tactics Force Options Unit (FTFO)

Project Plan 3 – Community Policing and Management Dashboard

Reccs 26.1, 40.6, 48.1, 48.2, 28.1, 28.4, 28.5, 30.3, 30.4, 35.3, 68.1, 79.1, 79.2, and 79.3

Management Dashboard

- Officer actions and engagement will be visible and transparent to managers
- Focus on training, coaching and mentoring
- Forward vision, unique to SFPD

COLLABORATIVE REFORM AND SUSTAINABILITY

Progress

- Project Plans
- Management Dashboard
- Operational
- Sustainability

Challenges

- Resourcing
- IT Completion
- Timeline
- Policy Development

SAN FRANCISCO AND COLLABORATIVE REFORM

San Francisco Distinction

- Internally driven and owned
- Collaborative approach
- External Oversight – CADOJ
- Organizational Investment

QUESTIONS?

JENSEN HUGHES

(i)

Debra Kirby, JD MA

Global Service Line Leader
debra.kirby@jensenhughes.com

jensenhughes.com