

AZALINA EUSOPE

Chef/Entrepreneur

HOBBIES

Writing – Currently working on a book exploring the journey and food of my people and country.

Cooking – love to make dishes and prepare foods from various cuisines.

Azalina is an active participant in her daily community, the Tenderloin, as she cultivates relationships with people that live in and work in the TL. She is active in working with SF Mayor to improve the lives of residents and businesses and was a charter member of the Tenderloin Business Coalition.

She is active in a group working on a community blockchain project to help businesses and residents.

WORK EXPERIENCE

MamakFood LLC - Chef/Owner – Malaysian Food Company
2010-Present

Azalina's 499 Ellis

I continue to run a restaurant in SF. Azalina's Malaysian Tasting Menu restaurant in TL, SF, post pandemic. Pre-pandemic Azalina's had multiple locations in SF.

Azalina's Catering

Have in the past catered to heads of state and other VIP. My team and I take pride in every meal regardless of who we are feeding and put passion and effort in delivering the flavors of Malaysia to our customers.

Azalina's brand products

I produce 12+ jar products for sale in NorCal grocery stores alongside 12 different grab-n-go meals that are distributed to a sub-set of the grocery stores we work with.

Delfina - Pastry Chef

2006 – 9 months

Filled in this position as favor to friend and owners while they searched for a permanent replacement. Was responsible for working with owners/chefs defining and execute the pastry items on the menu.

Taste Catering - Chef

2004-2006

Manage and run back of house food services for high end events and large catering engagements.
