10 WHEREAS, Cities across the country are experiencing a surge in both immigration and 11 homelessness as families fleeing violence and persecution come to the United States (U.S.) 12 to seek asylum; and

13 WHEREAS, Community members, immigrant families, and faith leaders, including 14 Faith in Action Bay Area have held multiple meetings with elected officials and organized 15 community actions to raise awareness about the City's inadequate shelter and housing for 16 vulnerable families, and the lack of transparency around access, follow up while waiting for 17 spots, and overall information; and

18 WHEREAS, Faith in Action Bay Area and families have requested on multiple 19 occasions to meet with the Department of Homelessness and Supportive Housing (HSH) 20 Director and the Mayor, receiving no response to their requests; and

21 WHEREAS, Despite San Francisco being a Sanctuary City, the Mayor's administration
22 has remained silent, leaving small children and their families to sleep in vehicles, on MUNI, 23 under gas station roofs, and in parks; and

24 WHEREAS, San Francisco Unified School District (SFUSD) data shows a significant 25 number of students experiencing homelessness in 2018 (2,580 students), under a definition

1 inclusive of households who are living doubled up with friends or relatives (1,661 students), 2 households who are paying for their own stays in hotels or motels (291 students), and 3 households who are sheltered or unsheltered (628 students); and

4 WHEREAS, HSH Strategic Plan acknowledges that “housing insecurity and 5 overcrowding also illustrate structural racism in San Francisco, with Asian-Pacific Islander and 6 Latine households more likely to live in overcrowded and severely overcrowded conditions, 7 and Black and Latine households reporting experiencing higher rates of housing insecurity;”
8 and

9 WHEREAS, HSH and the Mayor’s Administration have yet to respond to the growing 10 number of children and families living on our streets, despite the Department’s own strategic 11 plan calling for a redesign of the Coordinated Entry (CE) system to be “more focused on 12 welcoming people into services and not re-traumatizing people by making them tell their story 13 repeatedly” and recommending “access to services and housing should be provided much 14 more quickly”, instead showing absolute disregard for this population and failure to deliver on 15 their own goals; and

16 WHEREAS, Findings in these reports show that HSH has failed to engage with the 17 impacted community, improve language access, or provide culturally-responsive and 18 equitable services to families with children, despite these being key recommendations to 19 improve services and relationship with underserved, neglected communities; now, therefore,

1 FURTHER RESOLVED, That the Board of Supervisors urges HSH to provide 2 immediate services to ensure that families with children will receive shelter and/ or hotel 3 vouchers the same day that they arrive at an access point, and be allowed to extend their 4 hotel vouchers if there is no alternative for housing or shelter when the initial voucher expires;
5 and, be it

6 FURTHER RESOLVED, That the Board of Supervisors urges HSH to create 7 multilingual transparency measures, such as a publicly accessible dashboard, to monitor 8 participants' waitlist status and the Department's progress on transitioning children and 9 families into permanent housing, and create a seamless case management trail for each 10 family to keep track of their status and ensure they have shelter while more permanent 11 housing is pending; and, be it

12 FURTHER RESOLVED, That the Board of Supervisors calls upon this administration to 13 acknowledge the humanitarian crisis of unhoused children and families sleeping on our 14 streets and declare a state of emergency, adequately count unhoused families and children, 15 effectively report the number of vacant units/ beds to measure the need and help create 16 adequate responses, and proactively seek additional funding through private-public 17 partnerships that will ensure HSH achieves the goals set forth in their Strategic Plan with an 18 expressed pathway and timeline commensurate with the crisis at hand.
