LEGISLATIVE DIGEST

[Business and Tax Regulations Code - Transfer Tax Reduction for Union Labor-Built and Union Pension Fund-Financed Housing]

Ordinance amending the Business and Tax Regulations Code to reduce the real property transfer tax rates from 5.5% to 3% when the consideration or value of the interest or property conveyed is at least $10,000,000 but less than $25,000,000; and from 6% to 3% when the consideration or value of the interest or property conveyed equals or exceeds $25,000,000, for transfers of certain properties with at least 12% rent restricted affordable units, that were constructed using union labor, and had a debt or equity investment of at least $25,000,000 from a union pension fund at the time of the transfer; and affirming the Planning Department's determination under the California Environmental Quality Act.

Existing Law

Since 2008, the voters have increased the real property transfer tax on the transfer of properties with a consideration or value of $5 million or more from 0.75% of consideration or value to between 2.25% and 6%, depending on the consideration or value. (November 2008 Prop. N; November 2010 Prop. N; November 2016 Prop. W; and November 2020 Prop. I). In March 2024, the voters passed Proposition C, which permits the Board of Supervisors to exempt transfers from all or any part of the transfer tax.

Amendments to Current Law

This ordinance would partially exempt transfers of certain residential rental properties that meet each of the following four requirements:

- (1) At the time of the transfer at least 12% of the residential units on the property, calculated by excluding any density bonus units, are, or concurrently with such transfer become, subject to a recorded restriction that:
 - (a) Limits the maximum household income for each residential rental unit to no more than 110% of area median income;
 - (b) Limits the maximum monthly rent for each residential rental unit to no more than one-twelfth of 30% of 110% of the area median income;
 - (c) Provides for the regulation, monitoring, and enforcement of the recorded restriction by a governmental agency; and
 - (d) Has a remaining term of at least 55 years from the date of the transfer.

- (2) On or after June 3, 2014, received a certificate of final completion and occupancy for a newly-constructed building.
- (3) All on-site construction of the newly-constructed building was performed by workers represented by a labor organization and that were paid prevailing wages.
- (4) At least one year before and through the date of the transfer, one or more qualified pension plans (defined in the ordinance as requiring, among other things, that they be bargained and maintained by a labor organization or benefit individuals represented by a labor organization) collectively held a $25 million debt or equity investment in the single property being transferred, and each such investor maintained and enforced a policy requiring that all construction work be performed by workers represented by a labor organization with respect to that investor's portion of the $25 million investment.

For properties with a consideration or value of at least $10 million but less than $25 million, the ordinance would reduce the transfer tax rate from 5.5% to 3% of the consideration or value of the property transferred. For properties with a consideration or value of $25 million or more, the ordinance would reduce the transfer tax rate from 6% to 3% of the consideration or value of the property transferred.

The Office of Labor Standards Enforcement would certify that the conditions of the exemption have been met.

This exemption would apply to transfers that occur on or after the effective date of the ordinance. For transfers of property that received a certificate of final completion and occupancy before the effective date of the ordinance, this exemption would expire on June 30, 2029. For transfers of property that received a certificate of final completion and occupancy on or after the effective date of the ordinance, this exemption would expire on December 31, 2033.

Item 2 File 24-0728	Department: Office of the Assessor-Recorder

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

Legislative Objectives

- The proposed ordinance would amend the Business and Tax Regulations Code to reduce the real property transfer tax rates for union pension fund-financed housing, newly constructed with union labor since June 3, 2014 with at least 12 percent rent-restricted affordable units. The transfer tax rates would be reduced from 5.5 percent to 3.0 percent for eligible properties of at least $10 million but less than $25 million. Transfer tax rates would be reduced from 6.0 percent to 3.0 percent for eligible properties with values equal to or greater than $25 million.

Key Points

- Since 2008, San Francisco voters have approved increases in transfer tax rates for property transfers exceeding $5.0 million in value from 0.75 percent to between 2.25 percent and 6.0 percent, depending on the property value. The Board of Supervisors is authorized to exempt rent restricted affordable housing from the increases in transfer taxes on property values of $5 million or more. Under an existing exemption, transfers of multifamily rental housing with at least 90 percent rent-restricted affordable units qualify for reduced transfer tax rates.
- Under the proposed ordinance, eligible properties must have at least $25 million in debt or equity investment from a qualified labor organization pension plan at least one year before and through the date of transfer. The exemption applies to transfers on or after the effective date of the ordinance and before the sunset date of January 1, 2034. For properties that received a Certificate of Final Completion between June 3, 2014 and the effective date, the sunset date is July 1, 2029.

Fiscal Impact

- According to estimates provided by Chief Economist Ted Egan, the proposed ordinance would reduce General Fund revenues by up to $5 million per year over the 11-year period based on a review of sales of all multifamily rental properties built since 2014 and projected new units built through 2034. However, this is an overestimate that assumes all multifamily rental properties built after 2014 would be eligible due to the lack of data on which properties qualified as union pension fund-owned.

Recommendation

- Approval of the proposed ordinance is a policy matter for the Board of Supervisors.

MANDATE STATEMENT

City Charter Section 2.105 states that all legislative acts shall be by ordinance, approved by a majority of the members of the Board of Supervisors.

BACKGROUND

Transfer Tax

Article 12C of the City’s Business Tax and Regulations Code imposes a real property transfer tax on property acquisitions or leases of 35 years or more. The tax rate increases by the value of the property. Certain property transfers are exempt from this tax, including transfers of property between married couples, domestic partners, or parents and children, gifts and inheritances, or between individuals and their limited liability companies, limited partnerships, or trusts. According to the Controller’s FY 2024-25 – FY 2025-26 Revenue Letter, real property transfer tax revenues are budgeted at $218.9 million in FY 2024-25 and $267.6 million in FY 2025-26, down from $222.0 million in FY 2023-24.

Administrative Code Section 10.60(c) requires the maintenance of a Budget Stabilization Reserve, which is funded, in part, by depositing 75 percent of real property transfer tax collections in excess of a rolling five-year average collection, adjusted for rate increases during that period. According to the Controller’s Revenue Letter, no deposits are expected in FY 2024-25 and FY 2025-26 as transfer taxes are expected to be below the prior five-year average.

Exemptions for Affordable Housing

Since 2008, San Francisco voters have approved increases in transfer tax rates for property transfers exceeding $5.0 million in value from 0.75 percent to between 2.25 percent and 6.0 percent, depending on the property value. The Board of Supervisors is authorized to exempt rent restricted affordable housing from the increases in transfer taxes on property values of $5 million or more.¹

In 2023, the Board of Supervisors broadened and extended existing exemptions for rent-restricted affordable housing from the increases in transfer taxes (File 23-1007). The ordinance broadened the definition of affordable housing to include projects with at least 90 percent units rent restricted (rather than 100 percent), to allow affordable housing projects that have site manager units or units for other program use besides rent-restricted affordable housing to qualify. Eligible rent-restricted affordable housing is defined as: (1) property transferred under the Community Opportunity to Purchase Act; or (2) residential rental property that either is vacant, has qualified for a welfare exemption under Section 214 of the California Revenue and ¹ In November 2020, voters approved Proposition I, which increased the transfer tax on property transactions above $5 million. The tax became effective January 1, 2021. Voters also approved increases in 2016 (Proposition W), 2010 (Proposition N), and 2008 (Proposition N).

Taxation Code for at least 90 percent of residential units, or was owned by one or more non-profit organizations prior to the time of transfer and is being transferred to one or more entities who intend to comply with the welfare exemption for at least 90 percent of residential units and certify to MOHCD that an application for the welfare exemption will be submitted to the County Assessor within nine months of the date of transfer.² This exemption applies to property transactions between January 2017 and December 2030.

DETAILS OF PROPOSED LEGISLATION

The proposed ordinance would amend the Business and Tax Regulations Code to reduce the real property transfer tax rates for union pension fund-financed housing, newly constructed with union labor since June 3, 2014 with at least 12 percent rent-restricted affordable units. The transfer tax rates would be reduced from 5.5 percent to 3.0 percent for eligible properties of at least $10 million but less than $25 million. Transfer tax rates would be reduced from 6.0 percent to 3.0 percent for eligible properties with values equal to or greater than $25 million.

Under the ordinance, eligible properties are defined as:

- Having at least 12 percent rent-restricted affordable housing units, excluding any density bonus units. Qualifying rent-restricted housing must be restricted to households making up to 110 percent of area median income, and the property must have affordability restrictions recorded with a remaining term of at least 55 years from the date of transfer.
- Receiving a Certificate of Final Completion and Occupancy for a newly constructed building on or after June 3, 2014.
- Constructed by workers represented by a labor organization, paid at least the prevailing rate of wages, from the date of first construction document through the date of certificate of final completion and occupancy.
- With a $25 million debt or equity investment from a qualified labor organization pension plan³ at least one year before and through the date of transfer.

To claim the exemption, the claimant must: (a) maintain records to prove they qualify for the exemption; (b) obtain a certificate from the Office of Labor Standards Enforcement confirming that the transfer qualifies for the exemption; and (c) submit the certificate and an affidavit stating any relevant information needed to determine the transfer tax to the County Recorder.

Effective Date and Sunset Date

The exemption applies to transfers on or after the effective date of the ordinance (i.e., 30 days after enactment) and before the sunset date of January 1, 2034. For properties that received a

² In addition, qualifying residential rental property must also have affordability restrictions recorded for at least 55 years, with at least 35 years remaining in the term from the date of transfer. Qualifying rent restricted housing must be restricted to households making up to 120 percent of area median income.

³ Governmental pension plans do not meet the definition of a qualified pension plan under the proposed ordinance.

Certificate of Final Completion between June 3, 2014 and the effective date, the sunset date is July 1, 2029.

Proposed Transfer Tax Rates

Exhibit 1 below shows the proposed transfer tax rates for eligible property transactions. For properties greater than $5 million, the proposed rates are less than the rates for non-exempt properties, but greater than the rates for 90 percent to 100 percent rent restricted affordable housing (under an existing exemption).

Exhibit 1: Proposed Transfer Tax Rates for Rent Restricted Pension Fund-Financed Housing

FISCAL IMPACT

The proposed ordinance would reduce transfer taxes paid on transfers of eligible properties between the effective date of the ordinance and January 1, 2034. For an eligible property valued at $50.0 million, the ordinance would reduce transfer taxes paid from $3.0 million to $1.5 million, a reduction of $1.5 million (50 percent).

According to estimates provided by Chief Economist Ted Egan, the proposed ordinance would reduce General Fund revenues by up to $5 million per year over the 11-year period based on a review of sales of all multifamily rental properties built since 2014 and projected new units built through 2034.⁴ However, this is an overestimate that assumes all multifamily rental properties built after 2014 would be eligible due to the lack of data on which properties qualified as union pension fund-owned. The estimate also reflects an off-setting revenue gain from the reduced transfer tax rate and the provision that only allows properties built prior to the date of the ordinance to qualify for a five-year period that may encourage some sales to occur sooner than they otherwise would without the reduction.

⁴ The projected number of new units built per year is based on the 2022 level and assumes the real estate market remains depressed through 2034.

Because the proposed ordinance would reduce General Fund revenues, we consider approval to be a policy matter for the Board of Supervisors.

RECOMMENDATION

Approval of the proposed ordinance is a policy matter for the Board of Supervisors.

RE: Item 240728 - Business and Tax Regulations Code - Transfer Tax Reduction for Union Labor-Built and Union Pension Fund-Financed Housing

Dear Chair Chan,

I am writing in support of Item 240728 - Business and Tax Regulations Code - Transfer Tax Reduction for Union Labor-Built and Union Pension Fund-Financed Housing.

The AFL-CIO Housing Investment Trust is a $6.6 billion mutual fund that invests union pension capital in high credit quality securities, to generate competitive fixed income returns for our investors. Our particular specialty is investing in debt for the construction of rental housing, including affordable and workforce housing. We require the use of 100% union labor for all developments whose construction we finance.

Since our launching in 1984, we have invested in 13 rental housing developments in San Francisco. These developments represent more than $370 million in HIT capital, with a total development cost of $729.2 million. Our financing has created 2,007 units of rental housing, 588 of them affordable or workforce housing, and generated 8.34 million union construction work hours. We estimate that wages paid thanks to these developments is $819 million, with corresponding local and state tax revenue totaling $84.4 million. Recent examples of developments whose construction we financed in San Francisco include Jazzie Collins Apartments, Ventana Residences, and San Cristina Apartments.

Item 240728 would create a significant incentive to our further investment in San Francisco. Particularly in the current economic environment, with commercial real estate development facing headwinds from higher interest rates, Item 240728 would make rental housing with substantial collateral benefits feasible. With its careful limits on which projects could avail themselves of the measure, Item 240728 ensures that San Francisco would reap substantial benefits from its enactment.

By providing an incentive to union pension fund investors to finance development, we believe that the City will see an increase in the supply of rental housing. Crucially, for a city still suffering from a housing affordability crisis, we also believe that the incentive will produce more affordable and workforce housing. At the same time, as an investor we make sure that the people who build those developments are skilled, are paid wages on which they can support a family, and both pay into a pension plan and receive retirement benefits. The pension plans that invest with us benefit from the competitive returns we provide, as well as the collateral benefits that our investments produce.

For these reasons, I encourage you to approve Item 240728. Thank you for your consideration.

Sincerely,
