Re: Police Commission Candidate Julius Turman

To The Honorable Board of Supervisors:

I write in support of Julius Turman's application for Police Commission. Julius is uniquely qualified for the position and brings a background of community involvement, legal analysis and training, amongst the many other gifts he would use to San Francisco's benefit.

I met Julius close to five years ago at Jones Memorial United Methodist Church, where Rev. James McCray, Jr. was pastor. Jones Memorial United Methodist Church has the history of aggressive leadership in the San Francisco community. History states that the Black population in San Francisco soared from pre-war figures of less than 5,000 to over 10,000, as Blacks migrated from the South, to seek out war-related employment in the shipyards and other industries. Jones Memorial United Methodist Church is one of the homes where African-Americans looked to find a sense of community and united purpose.

Julius and I worked closely together when he was President of Alice B. Tokias and I was President of Black Women Organized For Political Action – San Francisco Chapter. Both organizations hosted a candidate interview weekend where over 30 candidates and 15 propositions were heard. This event merged relationships from both organizations and continued conversations of collaboration that had never existed before. Julius was also the first African-American to chair the local LGBT Bar Association, the Bay Area Lawyers for Individual Freedom and was the organization's 2008 Community Service Award recipient.

Julius' resume speaks for itself and I am very proud to say that I am a colleague of Attorney Turman. He has a track record of producing results and this is why he is a change agent.

On a personal note, Julius has a kind and gentle spirit. He is a man who believes in confidentiality and he is genuinely concerned about all communities. He has an outgoing personality and I am honored that Julius Turman is a colleague.

Julius has proven his dedication to the citizenry of San Francisco through his tireless commitment to public service. He has the ability to work fairly with groups and individuals with similar or divergent interests. Julius is uniquely qualified for the role of Police Commissioner and I strongly urge you to make this appointment.

Sincerely,

Brigette R. LeBlanc, MTA

Honorable Jane Kim, Chair

Honorable Sean Elsbernd

Honorable Mark Farrell

Dear Madam and Gentlemen:

Please be informed of my enthusiastic support for the candidacy of David P. Waggoner to serve on the City Police Commission.

I have personally observed Mr. Waggoner in his capacity as an attorney, and have been highly impressed with the thoroughness, thoughtfulness and diligence with which he approaches his work, as well as with his deep compassion for his fellow citizens and his strong desire to serve the community.

Moreover, he has personal traits that will serve the Commission and the City well: a readiness and ability to speak his mind, coupled with the evenness of temperament necessary for dealing with the kinds of controversy that often attend police-related matters.

Mr. Waggoner would be an outstanding addition to the Police Commission. He strongly deserves your favorable consideration. Thank you for your attention.

Sincerely,

Richard A. Knee

Re: Letter of Support for the Appointment of David Waggoner to the Police Commission

Dear Supervisors:

As the President of the National Lawyers Guild, San Francisco Bay chapter, and a San Francisco civil rights and employment law attorney, I write to convey my strong support for David Waggoner as an appointment for the San Francisco Police Commission. David has over 15 years of demonstrated experience working for police accountability, and is dedicated to working collaboratively with the police department, commissioners, and San Francisco communities to end police practices that only serve to increase distrust and sow instability.

In 2003, voters passed Proposition H, which changed the composition of the Commission from five mayoral appointees to four mayoral appointees and three Supervisorial appointees, because San Franciscans wanted a police force accountable to the people of San Francisco. Since 2003, Commissioners have been working for significant reforms, notably language access, and disability rights issues. However, San Franciscans more than ever are demanding a police force that serves the people of San Francisco, which does not engage in violence, racial profiling, or otherwise violate the civil & human rights of the people. The Commission should now work to ensure that San Francisco's Sanctuary City Policy is respected, and that the police do not engage in racial profiling or otherwise unconstitutional conduct. With the U.S. Supreme Court re-affirming this week that California's overcrowded prison conditions are cruel and unusual, now is our opportunity to work to end "lock-them-up" policing practices. Given that the Board of Supervisors has only three appointees to the Commission, it is critical that each of those seats be occupied by someone who has a proven track record in being a voice for reform. We believe David Waggoner will be that voice at this critical time.

Over the years, David has shown his dedication to increasing public safety by working as a part of a variety of community- based efforts to challenge police brutality and ensure democratic control over the police. As an undergraduate, he worked on police use of force policy with the Kentucky Alliance Against Racist and Political Repression and the Louisville Police Department's Strategic Planning Group. As a law student, David was a legal observer with the National Lawyers Guild for dozens of political demonstrations. As an attorney, he has been a passionate advocate for the LGBT community, immigrant rights, people with disabilities, and people who are homeless.

David is a proven and effective ally to communities of color and to the immigrant rights community. He brought a broad vision for justice across race, class and gender to the Harvey Milk LGBT Democratic Club. As a Fellow with the New Leaders Council, he continues to bring diverse communities together to find common ground. Motivated by a deep sense of justice and fairness, David will be a fantastic Police Commissioner. I urge you to support David with your vote.

Sincerely,

LETTER OF SUPPORT FOR THE APPOINTMENT OF
DAVID WAGGONER TO THE POLICE COMMISSION

May 15, 2011

Dear Supervisors:

We write this letter with unreserved support for the appointment of David Waggoner to the San Francisco Police Commission. With over 15 years of police accountability experience, David knows firsthand how to work directly with law enforcement, the community and other commissioners in a collaborative way to achieve lasting reforms that will build trust between the police and the communities they serve.

In 2003, the voters passed Prop H, which changed the composition of the Commission from five mayoral appointees to four mayoral appointees and three supervisorial appointees. In the words of the supervisors who sponsored Prop H, "While most hardworking police officers perform their jobs admirably, insufficient oversight and poor management systems have led to significant problems... Despite these widely reported problems, the Police Commission... has failed to adequately address these issues... San Francisco needs real reform, not more of the same."

Since 2003, the Commission has made significant reforms, most notably on language access and disability rights issues. However, as the headlines indicate, the Department continues to face enormous credibility problems, especially regarding use of force, the crime lab, disclosure of relevant evidence to prosecutors, and the search & seizure rights of suspects. Given that the Board of Supervisors has only three appointees to the Commission, it is critical that each of those seats be occupied by someone who has a proven track record in being a voice for reform. We believe David Waggoner will be that voice at this critical time.

David has worked with a wide range of community groups on a variety of issues of great importance to social justice communities. As an undergraduate, he worked on police use of force policy with the Kentucky Alliance Against Racist and Political Repression and the Louisville Police Department's Strategic Planning Group. As a law student, David was a legal observer with the National Lawyers Guild for dozens of political demonstrations. As an attorney, he has been a passionate advocate for the LGBT community, immigrant rights, people with disabilities, and people who are homeless.

David is a proven and effective ally to communities of color and to the immigrant rights community. He brought a broad vision for justice across race, class and gender to the Harvey Milk LGBT Democratic Club. As a Fellow with the New Leaders Council, he continues to bring diverse communities together to find common ground. Motivated by a deep sense of justice and fairness, David will be a fantastic Police Commissioner. We urge you to support David with your vote.

Re: Mr. Philip S. Hogan

Dear Sirs:

I write this letter in total support of the candidacy of Philip Hogan for a position on the San Francisco Police Commission.

I have known Mr. Hogan for over the last 4 years of the 39 years that I have lived on Nob Hill. I was instrumental in getting him on the Nob Hill Association Board of Directors. As an Association Vice President over the Huntington Park Committee I recognized after getting to know him that he has a passion for law enforcement and a good understanding how that enforcement should work in a neighborhood and we needed help addressing various issues in this area facing Huntington Park as well as our overall neighborhood.

Mr. Hogan has been absolutely great to work with and a strong contributing Association Director. I am not only impressed with his knowledge of law enforcement but the enthusiasm as he uses that knowledge to benefit our neighborhood.

I am completely confident that the San Francisco Police Commission would be greatly benefited by having Mr. Hogan serve.

If you have any questions at all do not hesitate to contact me.

Sincerely,

*The Honorable Rules Committee
Board of Supervisors
City & County of San Francisco*

Dear Members of the Committee :

I am extremely honored to write this letter in support of the candidacy of Mr. Phillip S. Hogan for a position of the San Francisco Police Commissioner.

I have known Mr. Hogan over 20 years ,since Mr. Hogan and I opened a retail business in San Francisco in 1991 and operated it together for 6 years.

His everyday problem solving skill with many different personalities (customers, neighbors as well as wholesalers)is extremely impressive, as well as his knowledge and action over petty criminals who came into our business helped to keep the dangerous and unpleasant situations minimal. Many people probably do not even know but he also has been aiding and helping many senior citizens to get around the city when they need a ride with no cost.

He also does his own neighborhood crime watch and crime awareness program by initiating conversation with neighbors in a friendly and professional manner.

His presence and existence does make us feel more safe and enjoyable to live in our neighborhood, Nob Hill / Russian Hill areas.

I am very confident to state that Mr. Hogan would be the very best San Francisco Police Commissioner to keep this glorious city of San Francisco, safe ,enjoyable and friendly as it should be.

DEAR COMMITTEE MEMBERS :

I AM PROUD TO SUBMIT THIS NOTE TO SUPPORT OF THE CANDIDACY OF PHILLIP S. HOGAN FOR THE POSITION OF SAN FRANCISCO POLICE COMMISSION.

MR. HOGAN HAS BEEN THE MOST EXCELLENT AND TRUST WORTHY EMPLOYEE OVER LAST 8 YEARS TO MANAGE THE PROPERTIES THAT MY COMPANY OWNS .

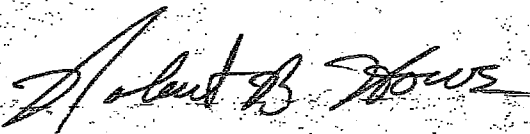

NOBODY I HAVE KNOWN HAS MORE KNOWLEDGE AND TACT IN DEALING WITH VARIOUS PEOPLE AND IN SOLVING PROBLEMS IN AND OUT OF THE LEGAL FIELDS.

HIS OBJECTIVITY AS WELL AS CARING ATTITUDE YET IN A PROFESSIONAL MANNER SHOULD HAVE A GREAT INFLUENCE OVER HIS COLLEAGUES AND OVER MANY DELICATE AND GRAVE ISSUES THAT THE CITY OF SAN FRANCISCO CONSTANTLY FACES.

I AM MORE THAN CONFIDENT IN AND PROUD OF MAKING THE STATEMENT ABOVE, SINCE MR. HOGAN WORKS WITH US VERY CLOSELY AND WE HAVE GOTTEN TO KNOW HIM EXTREMELY WELL.

The City of SAN FRANCISCO

To Whom It May Concern

I, Phillip S. Hogan, would like to apply for a police commissioner's position as soon as the next opening(s) comes available.

I have been involved in various aspects of law-enforcement, fire department and paramedics all through my life.

I am more than confident that I would make an excellent police commissioner for the City of San Francisco, as I fully understand the needs and the function of the residents, merchants and police officers since I am and /or have at one point or another been a resident, a merchant and a police officer.

I know the fact that this city has not offered the position of a police commissioner to any person with a law-enforcement back ground for quite sometime which I personally find that it may lead the city to a dysfunctional, one-sided, unhealthy and a rather dangerous direction, realizing the rapid increase of new kinds of criminal activities in the city and the county of San Francisco.

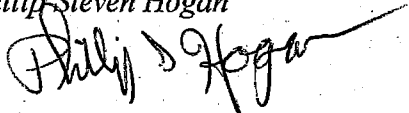

As most of law-abiding and hard-working citizens are aware, all the major cities in this country appoint someone who has a solid law-enforcement experience and knowledge as a police commissioner.

I strongly feel that the city needs at least one police commissioner with such background, and I am one who is eager to take the task.

I assure that you, as the citizens of extremely special and popular city, would be proud of me as a partner for the best community of the country, should you chose me as one of the next police commissioners.

Please also know my intention does never contain any desire to run for any other elected office of the city.

Truly Yours,
Phillip Steven Hogan
