Be it ordained by the People of the City and County of San Francisco:

Section 1. Findings. (a) The Planning Department has determined that the actions contemplated in this Ordinance are in compliance with the California Environmental Quality Act (California Public Resources Code sections 21000 et seq.). Said determination is on file with the Clerk of the Board of Supervisors in File No. 120669 and is incorporated herein by reference.

(b) A copy of the report on the fees identified herein is in Clerk of the Board of Supervisors File No. 120669 and is incorporated herein by reference. The City Controller's Office has independently confirmed that the fee amounts identified in said report remain valid.
This determination is on file with the Clerk of the Board of Supervisors File No. 120669 and is incorporated herein by reference.

Section 2. The San Francisco Subdivision Code is hereby amended by adding Section 1396.4, to read as follows:

SEC. 1396.4. CONDOMINIUM CONVERSION IMPACT FEE.
(a) Findings. The findings of Planning Code Section 415.1 concerning the City's inclusionary affordable housing program are incorporated herein by reference and support the basis for charging the fee set forth herein as it relates to the conversion of dwelling units into condominiums.

(b) Any building that: (1) participated in the 2013 condominium conversion lottery, but was not selected for conversion or (2) could have participated in the 2013 condominium conversion lottery, but elected not to do so, may bypass the provisions of Section 1396 (the annual lottery conversion limitation) if the building owners for said building comply with Section 1396.3(g)(1) and pay the condominium conversion impact fee subject to the requirements of this Section.

(c) Eligible buildings as set forth in Subsection (b) may exercise their option to participate in this fee program according to the following requirements:

(i) The applicant(s) for the subject building shall pay the fee specified in Subsection (e) no later than January 24, 2014 for the entire building.

(ii) No later than the last business day before July 25, 2014:

(i) DPW shall determined that the applicant's condominium conversion subdivision application is complete, or

(ii) The application is deemed complete by operation of law.

(3) The applicant shall obtain final and effective tentative approval of the condominium subdivision or parcel map no later than December 31, 2014.

(4) Any map application subject to a required public hearing on the subdivision or a subdivision appeal shall have the time limit set forth in Subsection (c)(3) suspended until March 13, 2015.

(5) The Director of the Department of Public Works is authorized to waive the time limit set forth in Subsection (c)(3) as it applies to a particular building due to extenuating or unique circumstances. Such waiver may be granted only after a public hearing and in no case shall the time limit extend beyond July 24, 2015.
(d) Should the subdivision application be denied or be rejected as untimely in accordance with the dates specified above, or the tentative subdivision map or tentative parcel map disapproved, DPW shall refund the entirety of the applicant's fee specified in Subsection (e).

(e) The fee amount is $20,000.00 per unit. Said fee is reduced for each year the building has participated in the condominium conversion lottery up to and including the 2013 lottery in accordance with the following formula:

(1) 2 years of participation, 20% fee reduction per unit;
(2) 3 years of participation, 40% fee reduction per unit;
(3) 4 years of participation, 60% fee reduction per unit; and
(4) 5 or more years of participation, 80% fee reduction per unit.

(f) For purposes of Section (e), a building shall get credit only for those years that it participated in the lottery even though such building could have qualified for and participated in other condominium conversion lotteries.

(g) Life Time Lease for Non-purchasing Tenants. No subdivider or subsequent condominium unit owner shall refuse to renew a lease or extend a rental agreement to any non-purchasing tenant at the time of Final Map or Parcel Map approval. Any extended leases or rental agreements made pursuant hereto shall expire only upon the death or demise of such tenant or the last surviving member of the tenant's household, provided such surviving member is related to the tenant by blood, marriage, or domestic partnership, and is aged 62 or older at the time of death or demise of such tenant, or at such time as the tenant voluntarily vacates the unit after giving due notice of such intent to vacate. Each lease shall contain a provision allowing the tenant to terminate the lease and vacate the unit upon 30 days' notice. Rent charged during the term of any extended lease or rental agreement pursuant to the provisions of this Section shall not exceed the rent charged at the time of filing of the application for conversion, plus any increases proportionate to the increases in the residential rent component of the "Bay Area Cost of Living Index, U.S. Dept. of Labor," provided that the rental increase provisions of this Section shall be operative only in the absence of other applicable rent increase or arbitration laws. This Section shall not alter or abridge the rights or obligations of the parties in performance of their covenants, including but not limited to the provision of services, payment of rent or the obligations imposed by Sections 1941, 1941.1 and 1941.2 of the California Civil Code. There shall be no decrease in dwelling unit maintenance or other services historically provided to such units and such tenants.

(h) In recognition of the rental requirements of Section (g), the fee for each unit in which a non-purchasing tenant resides at the time specified in Section (g) shall be refunded to the subdivider under the following formula:

(1) One unit, 10% fee reduction for such unit;

(2) Two units, 20% fee reduction for each unit;

(3) Three units, 30% fee reduction for each unit.

(i) Upon confirmation of compliance with the rental requirement, DPW shall refund the amount specified in Section (h) to the subdivider and have all remaining fee revenues transferred to the Citywide Affordable Housing Fund.

(j) Waiver or reduction of fee based on absence of reasonable relationship

(1) A project applicant of any project subject to the requirements in this Section may appeal to the Board of Supervisors for a reduction, adjustment, or waiver of the requirements based upon the absence of any reasonable relationship or nexus between the impact of development and the amount of the fee charged or for the reasons set forth in Subsection (2) below, a project applicant may request a waiver from the Board of Supervisors.

(2) Any appeal of waiver requests under this clause shall be made in writing and filed with the Clerk of the Board no later than 15 days after the date the sponsor is required to pay and has paid to the Treasurer the fee as required in this Section. The appeal shall set forth in detail the factual and legal basis for the claim of waiver, reduction, or adjustment. The Board of Supervisors shall consider the appeal at the hearing within 60 days after the filing of the appeal. The appellant shall bear the burden of presenting substantial evidence to support the appeal, including comparable technical information to support appellant's position. If a reduction, adjustment, or waiver is granted, any change of use or scope of the project shall invalidate the waiver, adjustment or reduction of the fee. If the Board grants a reduction, adjustment or waiver, the Clerk of the Board shall promptly transmit the nature and extent of the reduction, adjustment or waiver to the Treasurer and Department of Public Works.

(k) Any building that participates in the fee program set forth herein shall automatically be ineligible to participate in the 2014 condominium conversion lottery. DPW shall refund to the applicant any fees paid to participate in the 2014 lottery and shall remove any lottery tickets associated with the subject building from the lottery drawing.

(l) Buildings that convert pursuant to this Section shall have no effect on the terms and conditions of Section 1341A, 1385A, or 1396 of this Code.

Section 3. Effective Date. This ordinance shall become effective 30 days from the date of passage.

Section 4. This section is uncodified. In enacting this Ordinance, the Board intends to amend only those words, phrases, paragraphs, subsections, sections, articles, numbers, punctuation, charts, diagrams, or any other constituent part of the Subdivision Code that are explicitly shown in this legislation as additions, deletions, Board amendment additions, and Board amendment deletions in accordance with the "Note" that appears under the official title of the legislation.

REVISED LEGISLATIVE DIGEST
(1/15/2013, Substituted)

[Subdivision Code - Condominium Conversion Impact Fee]

Ordinance amending the Subdivision Code, by adding Section 1396.4, to adopt a condominium conversion impact fee applicable to buildings qualifying for, but not being selected or participating in, the 2013 condominium conversion lottery only, subject to specified requirements, including lifetime leases for non-purchasing tenants; and adopting environmental findings.

Existing Law

The San Francisco Subdivision Code regulates the conversion of apartments and tenancy-in-common buildings to condominium subdivisions and prohibits the conversion of buildings in excess of 6 units. Subdivision Code Section 1396 limits the number of conversions to 200 units annually which are selected in a condominium lottery. In order to participate in the lottery, a specified number of building owners must continuously occupy a unit(s) in the building for at least three years in advance of the lottery. Section 1396.3 sets forth the selection process for the annual 200-unit condominium lottery and bases the selection process, in part, on seniority of participation in past lotteries.

Amendments to Current Law

This Ordinance would impose a one-time fee on condominium conversions that would allow those buildings which participated but lost in the 2013 condominium lottery to by-pass the 2014 lottery by paying the specified $20,000 per unit fee. Also, the fee could be paid by buildings that could have qualified for the 2013 lottery, but elected not to do so. The fee would be reduced 20% for every year before 2013 that the building participated in the lottery, and the fee revenue collected would be placed into the Citywide Affordable Housing Fund. The Ordinance also would require that all non-purchasing tenants at the time of final or parcel map approval of the condominium subdivision receive a lifetime lease with certain specified terms. In recognition of the lifetime lease requirements, buildings would receive a refund on the condominium conversion fee tied to the number of units associated with a lifetime lease. The legislation would establish various time periods to pay the fee and complete steps of the conversion process. The Ordinance also would adopt environmental findings.

Hello Supervisor Farrell--

We have reviewed the January 2011 Condominium Conversion Nexus Analysis prepared by Keyser Marsten Associates. We believe the data in the report are recent enough to provide a reliable estimate of the nexus amount attributable to condominium conversion, and that an updated report is not necessary for fee discussions at this time.

Attached is an updated estimate of potential fee revenue, which depends heavily on 1) the assumed current value of TICs and 2) the fee level. We've chosen an average value of $500K, based on the nexus study, which estimates that the low end is $300K-$500K, and average recent sales prices (approximately $600K in the past two years).

Table IV-5 of the nexus study lists the maximum supported fees per unit to be:
$21,787 for a $300K unit
$30,117 for a $400K unit
$34,603 for a $500K unit.

Estimates of increased property and property transfer tax revenue that could result from condominium conversions also depend heavily on TIC values and the number of TIC owners that would elect to convert. Kurt Fuchs will look into this more next week and get back to you.

Please let us know if you have questions,
Michelle

MEMORANDUM

TO: The Honorable Supervisor Farrell
FROM: Ben Rosenfield, Controller
DATE: March 9, 2012

SUBJECT: Estimated Condominium Conversion Fee and Associated Property Tax and Property Transfer Tax

Per your request, the Controller’s Office has estimated the range of potential revenues that may be generated by the proposed Condominium Conversion Impact Fee Ordinance as currently drafted. As shown in Table 1, the estimated revenues range from $7.4 million to $24.6 million in fee revenues plus approximately $0.1 million in additional property tax and real property transfer tax revenues. These estimates are highly sensitive to several key assumptions outlined below.

Estimated Condominium Conversion Impact Fee Revenue

Our projections are based on Keyser Marsten Associates’ (KMA) January 2011 Condominium Conversion Nexus Analysis. We have reviewed this report and believe the market data and other assumptions are sufficiently current to provide a reliable estimate of the nexus amount attributable to condominium conversion, and that an updated report is not necessary for fee discussions at this time.

The Condominium Conversion Fee contemplated by the ordinance ranges from $20,000 to $40,000 per unit, with the fee reduced the longer the property has been in the condo conversion lottery. The proposed fees are less than the maximum per unit fee to convert a tenancy-in-common (TIC) to a condominium supported by the KMA nexus study, summarized below:

1. $300,000 TIC value; $21,787 maximum conversion fee,
2. $400,000 TIC value; $30,117 maximum conversion fee, and
3. $500,000 TIC value; $34,603 maximum conversion fee.
Memo – Condominium Conversion Fee

The first step in our analysis was to estimate the participation rate of TIC owners willing to pay the conversion fee rather than taking a chance on winning in subsequent rounds of the condo lottery. Our assumption is that the alternative to paying the fee is that the TIC owner borrows an amount equal to the net increase in value from converting from a TIC to a condo for the projected number of years to win the lottery without paying a fee (based on the increased probability of winning the lottery each subsequent year). If the net benefit from paying the fee is greater than the alternative described above, it is assumed that the TIC owner would opt to pay the fee.

For purposes of the analysis, we have assumed an average TIC value of $500,000, based on the range of values in the KMA nexus study, and average recent TIC sales prices of approximately $600,000 in the past two years.

The potential revenue generated by the proposed fee is dependent on several key variables summarized below, which also include the assumptions used in the analysis:

1. TIC Value ($500,000 per unit assumed in this analysis)
2. Value Premium from converting TIC to Condo (15%, per the KMA study)
3. Conversion Impact Fee level (based on proposed ordinance, initially $20,000)
4. Percent of owners willing to pay the fee, or the “take up rate” (to account for uncertainty, a range is presented, assuming 100%, 50%, and 30% of owners opt to pay the fee)
5. Cost to convert from TIC to Condo ($10,900 per unit for permits and code compliance corrections, per the KMA study)

Exhibit A presents a summary of the potential revenue generated by the proposed Condominium Conversion Impact Fee, based on the above key assumptions. As indicated, the fee is estimated to generate from $7.4 million to $24.6 million, depending on the participation rate. The bottom of Exhibit A includes an estimate of the fee revenue for a range of TIC values, as well as the revenue generated assuming fees were set at a rate to maximize participation.

Estimated Property Tax and Property Transfer Tax

The incremental value from converting a TIC to a condominium is not realized until the property is sold. In other words, the conversion process itself is not an “assessable event” and will not generate any increased property taxes or property transfer taxes. Only when the property is transferred will tax revenue be generated, based on the value enhancement from converting a TIC to a condominium (again, assumed to be 15% for purposes of this analysis).

Exhibit B presents an estimate of potential tax revenue generated from conversion. The analysis makes the simplifying assumption that the market value of the TIC is equal to the current assessed value. The key assumption in this analysis is the percent of units sold after conversion (which triggers reassessment and transfer taxes). The turnover rate of residential properties in San Francisco averaged about 5% per year, based on the average annual units sold from 1994 to 2011 divided by the owner-occupied housing inventory.

Applying this turnover rate to the incremental value added through conversion and the assumed “take up” rate provides an estimate of the total incremental value of condos sold each year. Applying the tax rates to this incremental value results in about $40,000 in property taxes and

$50,000 in transfer taxes, assuming 100% take up rate and a $500,000 base value, as indicated in Exhibit B.

Key Assumptions
- $500,000 Average TIC value
- 15% Value premium from converting TIC to condo
- $10,900 Average cost of condo conversion per unit (code compliance, permitting)
- 7.99% Annual interest rate

Note: 100% of units in each lottery group would participate if the net benefit from paying the fee is larger than net benefit of the alternative. The net benefit of paying the fee is a 15% increase in the value, minus the fee and average costs of condo conversion. The alternative to paying the fee is to borrow an amount equal to the increase in value that converting to a condo would provide for the number of years it would take to win the lottery without paying a fee (i.e., number of years until unit has been in lottery for seven years).

Key Assumptions

- 15% Value premium from converting TIC to condo; taxes estimated on this incremental value only.
- 5% Annual Residential Turnover rate (based on annual average residential units sold from 1994 to 2011 (6,000) divided by the City's owner-occupied housing inventory (125,000 units)). Source: Paragon Real Estate Group (based on MLS data); Dataquick; US Census, 2010.

Key Observations

Tax revenues will only be realized when converted units are sold, which are based on historic turnover for all property types. To the extent that newly converted condos turnover faster, the potential tax revenue will be realized sooner.

Re: File #120669 Condominium Conversion Impact Fee
Public Testimony

Dear Supervisors Wiener and Kim, President Chiu and Ms. Cavillo,

I was born and raised in San Francisco and have owned a home in this City for many years. I am in favor of the Condominium Conversion Impact Fee and ask that you support this proposal. I ask this for the following reasons:

- The Proposal will offer a solution to the lottery backlog. I was very much surprised to learn that many Tenancy-In-Common Owners have participated in the condo conversion lottery for more than ten years and have had no success.
- The Proposal will allow Tenancy-in-Common owners the opportunity to refinance into fixed 30 year mortgages with predictable payments. I understand that financing or refinancing for TIC's is extremely difficult and that the interest rates are high on such loans. However, the rate for condos is much lower. This will undoubtedly prevent foreclosures and preserve our neighborhoods.

I ask that you support this legislation.

Respectfully,

Public Testimony

Dear Supervisors Wiener and Kim, President Chiu and Ms Cavillo,

As a member of an owner-occupied TIC group, I urge you to vote in support of the Condominium Conversion Impact Fee. This legislation will allow TIC owners, who are often entry level buyers in San Francisco, the chance to refinance into fixed 30 year mortgages with stable predictable payments instead of short-term adjustable mortgages that are the only option for financing TICs. This will allow us to keep our properties, prevent foreclosures and stabilize our neighborhoods. The proposed fees will help to finance low income housing and tenants will be protected. This is a win-win for everyone in San Francisco. Please support this important piece of legislation.

Thank you,

Dear San Francisco Board of Supervisors:

The Sierra Club opposes the proposed Condominium Conversion Ordinance introduced by Supervisors Mark Farrell and Scott Wiener (File No. 120669) and urges its rejection by the San Francisco Board of Supervisors. The primary reasons for the Sierra Club’s opposition are as follows:

- Converting a Tenancy in Common unit ("TIC") to a condominium ("condo") doesn’t create new housing. It only converts a unit from one type of ownership to another, and makes it easier to sell.
- The proposed fees for converting a TIC to a condo ($4,000 to $20,000) do not come close to providing the needed funds to build replacement rental units.
- The proposed ordinance endangers San Francisco’s stock of rent-stabilized (commonly referred to as rent-controlled) units. While the ordinance does include a provision for a lifetime lease for existing tenants, those leases would leave tenants no less vulnerable to eviction, and moreover, once that lease expires and the condo is sold, another unit of housing with rent-stabilization protections is lost forever.

Instead of enacting this ordinance, the Sierra Club believes that the City of San Francisco should pursue policies that:

- Protect rent stabilization and rent-stabilized units, which are a housing type that can’t be expanded (by law).
- Support the construction of more affordable housing, including family-size units.

We urge the Board to reject this proposal and instead look for better solutions to the challenge of providing of housing for San Francisco families.

Yours truly,

Rebecca Evans
Chair
