9 Be it ordained by the People of the City and County of San Francisco:

10 Section 1. Findings.

11 1. The Political Reform Act of 1974, Government Code section 81000, et seq., 12 requires certain candidates and committees to file campaign statements and reports with local 13 filing officers. The San Francisco Campaign and Governmental Conduct Code imposes 14 additional filing requirements on local candidates and committees. These state and local 15 filings disclose a candidate's contributors and the financial activity of committees. They also 16 provide necessary information for local campaign finance initiatives such as San Francisco's 17 public financing program.

18 2. In the decades since the enactment of the Political Reform Act, candidates and 19 committees have complied with their filing requirements by filing paper copies of their 20 campaign statements and reports with the appropriate local and state agencies. Locally, the 21 San Francisco Ethics Commission has endeavored to make its paper filings readily available
22 to the public through its website by scanning and posting these documents as portable
23 document format (PDF) files. But to scan and post these filings requires a substantial amount 24 of staff time, particularly around filing deadlines when the public often desires immediate 25 disclosure of campaign-related information.

1 of staff time, particularly around filing deadlines when the public often desires immediate
2 disclosure of campaign-related information.

3 3. In July 2012, the Legislature approved Assembly Bill 2452 (AB 2452),
4 sponsored by Assemblyman Tom Ammiano, which authorizes local jurisdictions to require 5 candidates and committees to forego paper filings and to instead file their required statements
6 electronically. The Governor approved the legislation on July 13, 2012. The City and County
7 of San Francisco sponsored the legislation, and the Ethics Commission played a significant 8 role in ensuring its passage.

9 4. To conserve staff resources and make the information publicly available in a 10 shorter time-frame and more usable format, the San Francisco Ethics Commission should 11 take advantage of this recent change in state law. The public will be able to access the 12 information disclosed in campaign statements in a more timely manner, by eliminating any 13 manual processing of filings. An electronic filing system also allows the public to run searches
14 and compile information more easily. By moving to an electronic filing system, the Ethics 15 Commission also will no longer need to expend staff time and limited resources to accept, 16 process, and store copious campaign statements as paper copies.

17 5. The Board of Supervisors and the Ethics Commission find that the Ethics 18 Commission's electronic filing system will operate securely and effectively. The Board of 19 Supervisors and the Ethics Commission also find that the electronic filing system would not 20 unduly burden filers.

21 Section 2. The San Francisco Campaign and Governmental Conduct Code is hereby 22 amended by amending Section 1.112, to read as follows:

23 SEC. 1.112. ELECTRONIC CAMPAIGN DISCLOSURE.
