RESOLUTION NO. 370-04

[Resolution commending Instituto Laboral de la Raza.]

Resolution commending Instituto Laboral de la Raza on the occasion of their Annual Labor Awards Dinner, and, because of their compassionate work for the protection of all workers, but especially the rights of immigrant workers and because of their commitment to building a strong and united San Francisco, declare Friday, June 11, 2004, as Workers Rights Day.

WHEREAS, Instituto Laboral de la Raza is celebrating it's Annual Labor Awards Dinner, uniting National and Local Labor Leaders, Community and Elected Officials; and

WHEREAS, on this auspicious occasion, Instituto Laboral de la Raza honors and celebrates outstanding service to workers with honorees, R. Thomas Buffenbarger, President, International Association of Machinists and Aerospace Workers; Josie Mooney, Executive Director, Service Employees International Union, Local 790 and President, San Francisco Labor Council, AFL-CIO; and Laborers' International Union of North America, Local 261; and special guest, The Honorable Tom Harkin, U.S. Senator from Iowa; and

WHEREAS. Instituto Laboral de la Raza was founded by Jose Medina and other Latino Labor Leaders on January 2, 1982, concerned with the increased numbers of unorganized workers experiencing unfair labor practices; and

WHEREAS, the Instituto is a non-profit, workers' rights organization that provides labor counseling and legal advocacy for low income, unorganized workers, many of whom are immigrants from Mexico, and countries of Central and South America and who make an indispensable contribution to America's workforce; and

Supervisor Ammiano , Dalv BOARD OF SUPERVISORS

WHEREAS, Instituto Laboral de la Raza recognizes that our country was built by the honest and hard work of immigrants and whose value and dignity extends beyond national borders; and

WHEREAS, the Instituto serves the working poor, protecting their rights by advocating for loss of wages and benefits; and

WHEREAS; the Instituto has served nearly 40,000 people over its history and the number of clients increases each year; and

WHEREAS, for more than two decades, the Instituto has understood the vulnerability of poor and immigrant workers and has joined with organized labor to fight for basic human rights in the work place; and

WHEREAS, the Instituto recognizes that the responsibility of future generations will benefit from the tireless work we contribute today; and therefore be it

RESOLVED, that the Board of Supervisors of San Francisco, salutes Instituto Laboral de la Raza on the occasion of their Annual Labor Awards Dinner, and, because of their compassionate work for the protection of all workers, but especially the rights of immigrant workers and because of their commitment to building a strong and united San Francisco, declare Friday, June 11, 2004, as Workers Rights Day.
