RESOLUTION NO. 4/8-16

[Honoring Nancy Kwan and James Shigeta's Return to San Francisco]

Resolution honoring Flower Drum Song legends Nancy Kwan and James Shigeta's return to San Francisco

WHEREAS, In 1960, at the age of 18, Hong Kong-born Nancy Kwan was discovered studying dance at England's Royal Ballet School, and cast in the starring role of a free-spirit who captivates artist William Holden in The World of Suzie Wong, and gained international fame; and

WHEREAS, James Shigeta was discovered on a 1958 television talent show and groomed as Hollywood's first Asian leading man in films including roles in Crimson Kimono and Bridge to the Sun where he "got the girl," and subsequently was awarded the1960 Golden Globe for Most Promising Newcomer; and

WHEREAS, In 1961, Universal-International produced Rodgers and Hammerstein's Flower Drum Song, the most expensive movie musical of its time, and took the bold step of casting an all-Asian cast including the boyishly-handsome Shigeta and drop-dead gorgeous Kwan as the romantic leads; and

WHEREAS, The film was a national success and became a watershed moment for second-generation Chinese and Japanese in post-war America and inspired an entire generation of Asian actors, performers and media personalities that would become the public faces and voices of Asian Americans; and

WHEREAS, Flower Drum Song, a story of romance and clashing cultures, is set in San Francisco's Chinatown, and with songs such as "Grant Avenue" became a smash-hit and brought national attention to the rapidly-changing Asian population and its cultural contributions to the diversity of this great City; and

SUPERVISOR MIRKARIMI BOARD OF SUPERVISORS WHEREAS, Both Nancy Kwan and James Shigeta have enjoyed successful careers in film and television spanning over five decades and became instant "crossover" stars — even before the term existed — by giving Asians a new, fresh image that appealed to both Hollywood and an increasingly accepting movie audience; and

WHEREAS, Nancy Kwan and James Shigeta are reuniting in San Francisco for the first-time since Flower Drum Song debuted 45 years ago for a one-night production of A.R. Gurney's Love Letters at the San Francisco's War Memorial & Performing Arts Center's Herbst Theatre benefiting the Japanese Cultural and Community Center of Northern California; now therefore, be it

RESOLVED, The Board of Supervisors of the City and County of San Francisco hereby proclaims July 7th, 2006 Nancy Kwan and James Shigeta Day in honor of their return to San Francisco, the City where "A Hundred Million Miracles" are happening everyday.
