RE: Nomination for Reappointment of Doreen Woo Ho to the Port Commission

Dear Honorable Supervisors Yee, Campos & Tang,

I am writing in support of Commissioner Doreen Woo Ho's reappointment to the Port Commission.

Commissioner Woo Ho provides a sharp, insightful approach to matters before the Commission. Her financial acumen often proves invaluable as we discuss and debate various issues of significance to the Port. Currently, each Commissioner brings different skills and expertise to the Port, and Doreen not only provides financial insight, but also lends a strong eye towards improving processes and procedures. Her management background affords her a unique perspective on waterfront concerns, and is a voice that should continue on the Commission. As the current President, I appreciate the wisdom and analysis she provides on a myriad of issues.

Please support Commissioner Woo Ho's reappointment and ensure continuity and diversity on the Port Commission.

Very truly yours,

Leslie Katz

RE: Nomination for Reappointment of Doreen Woo Ho to Port Commission

Dear Honorable Supervisors Yee, Campos & Tang,

I write to support the nomination of Doreen Woo Ho to be reappointed to the Port Commission. I apologize that I cannot attend the June 19, 2014 Rules Committee hearing in person. However, there will be several Port staff members present should you want any additional information.

Doreen Woo Ho has been a Port Commissioner for the past 3 years. By trade, she is a distinguished commercial banker, having worked with numerous banks and lenders of all sizes. Additionally, early in her career, Ms. Woo Ho worked in international journalism, both investigating and reporting social and economic incidents. As you can imagine, these are very disparate fields with unique demands and traits. Ms. Woo Ho brings all of her expertise and unique perspectives to her role as Port Commissioner.

Ms. Woo Ho served two years as Port Commission president. During this time she gave generously of her time, investing at least 40 hours per month in her role. She also invested her analytical expertise and problem-solving skills in guiding the Port's work, which was voluminous. In fiscal year 2012/13, Ms. Woo Ho presided over:

- √ 123 Commission items (52 more than the previous year);
- ✓ Realization of an historic $80 million (unaudited) in operating revenues;
- ✓ Capital investment of $83 million, 235% more than the Port's annual average:
- ✓ Rebuilding of a fire-ravaged facility (Pier 29) in an unprecedented 10 months;
- ✓ Negotiation & unanimous Board of Supervisors approvals for 2 complex development deals (Mission Rock Resort & Forest City Development Corp);

- ✓ Management of 573 commercial tenancies generating revenues of $61 million, the highest amount of real estate revenues in Port history;
- ✓ Reduction of the Port's portfolio vacancy rate to 8% (25% lower than normal); and
- ✓ Completion and opening of 10 new public amenities.

Ms. Woo Ho has also given detailed and thoughtful guidance on matters affecting good governance and operation of the Port as well as negotiation of complex leases and development agreements. She has ensured that the Port seeks the most value for its properties while mitigating risk.

For all of the above reasons, I support Ms. Woo Ho's nomination for reappointment to the Port Commission. Should you have any questions regarding the above, please do not hesitate to contact me at 415/274-0401.

Sincerely,

Monique Moyer

Dear Supervisor Yee:

I am writing you today to express my strong support for Doreen Woo Ho and to urge you to reappoint her to the San Francisco Port Commission.

I have served on the Port Commission since May 2011 with Doreen Woo Ho and she has been a pleasure to work with. Doreen has been a leader on the Commission using her skills and expertise to ensure that our Port remains and continues to create great opportunities for City and County of San Francisco. She has the courage to make tough decisions that promote the waterfront while being keenly aware of the need to support smart business opportunities. She is thoughtful, deliberate and knowledgeable about the diverse issues that come before the Commission. I believe Doreen will continue to work effectively with her colleagues and the staff of the Port to ensure San Francisco's waterfront continues to showcase the beauty of the City.

I strongly recommend the reappointment of Commissioner Woo Ho to the San Francisco Port Commission and will be happy to answer any questions that you may have.

Dear Supervisor Yee:

I would like to add my name to the many members of the community who support the nomination of Doreen Woo Ho to continue to serve on the San Francisco Port Commission. Doreen has been a tremendous supporter of the 2013 Parks Bond campaign. In addition, she helped raise money for the city to host the 34th America's Cup. I can think of no one better qualified to serve the City of San Francisco as a member of the Port Commission.

Sincerely,
