8 SEC. 3300G.4. ADVANCE NOTICE OF WORK SCHEDULES AND CHANGES IN 9 WORK SCHEDULES.

10 (a) Initial Estimate of Minimum Hours.

11 (1) Prior to the start of employment, an Employer shall provide a new Employee 12 with a good faith estimate in writing of the Employee's expected minimum number of 13 scheduled shifts per month, and the days and hours of those shifts. The estimate shall not 14 include On-Call Shifts. The estimate shall not constitute a contractual offer and the Employer 15 shall not be bound by the estimate.

16 (2) Prior to the start of employment, the Employee may request that the 17 Employer modify the proposed work schedule provided under subsection (a)(1) of this Section 18 3300G.4. The Employer shall consider any such request, and in its sole discretion may 19 accept or reject the request, provided that the Employer shall notify the Employee of its 20 determination prior to the start of employment.

21 (b) Two Weeks' Notice of Work Schedules.

22 An Employer shall provide its Employees with at least two weeks' notice of their work
23 schedules by doing one of the following at least every 14 days (on a "Biweekly Schedule"): (1) 24 posting the work schedule in a conspicuous place at the workplace that is readily accessible
25 and visible to all Employees, or (2) transmitting the work schedule by electronic means, so

1 long as all Employees are given access to the electronic schedule at the workplace. For new 2 Employees, an Employer shall provide the new Employee on his or her first day of 3 employment with an initial work schedule that runs through the date that the next Biweekly 4 Schedule for existing Employees is scheduled to be posted or distributed; thereafter, the 5 Employer shall include the new Employee in an existing Biweekly Schedule with other 6 Employees. For all Employees, the work schedule shall include any On-Call Shifts, where 7 applicable. If the Employer changes the work schedule after it is posted and/or transmitted, 8 such changes shall be subject to the notice and compensation requirements set forth in 9 subsection (c) of this Section 3330G.4.

10 (c) Notice and Compensation For Schedule Changes.

11 (1) Notice Required. An Employer shall provide an Employee notice of any 12 change to the Employee's schedule that has been posted or transmitted pursuant to 13 subsection (b) of this Section 3300G.4. The Employer shall provide such notice by in-person 14 conversation, telephone call, or email, text message, or other electronic communication. This 15 notice requirement shall not apply to any schedule changes that the Employee requests, such 16 as Employee-requested sick leave, time off, shift trades, or additional shifts.

17 (2) Predictability Pay For Schedule Changes. Subject to the exceptions in 18 subsection (e) of this Section 3300G.4, an Employer shall provide an Employee with the 19 following compensation per shift for each previously scheduled shift that the Employer moves 20 to another date or time or cancels, or each previously unscheduled shift that the Employer
21 requires the Employee to come into work:

22 (A) With less than seven days' notice but 24 hours or more notice to the 23 Employee, one hour of pay at the Employee's regular hourly rate;

24 (B) With less than 24 hours' notice to the Employee, two hours of pay at 25 the Employee's regular hourly rate for each shift of four hours or less; and

1 (C) With less than 24 hours' notice to the Employee, four hours of pay at 2 the Employee's regular hourly rate for each shift of more than four hours.

3 Where the Employee is required to come into work, the compensation mandated by 4 this subsection (c)(2) shall be in addition to the Employee's regular pay for working that shift.
5 This subsection (c)(2) shall not apply to On-Call Shifts.

6 (d) Pay for On-Call Shifts. Subject to the exceptions in subsection (e) of this Section 7 3300G.4, an Employer shall provide an Employee with the following compensation for each 8 On-Call Shift for which the Employee is required to be available but is not called in to work:

9 (1) Two hours of pay at the Employee's regular hourly rate for each On-Call 10 Shift of four hours or less; and

11 (2) Four hours of pay at the Employee's regular hourly rate for each On-Call 12 Shift of more than four hours.

13 This subsection (d) shall not apply when the Employee is in fact called in for the On-14 Call Shift or the Employer provides the Employee with 24 hours' or more notice that the On-15 Call Shift has been cancelled or moved to another date or time.

16 (e) Exceptions. The requirements in subsections (c) and (d) of this Section 3300G.4 17 shall not apply under any of the following circumstances:

18 (1) Operations cannot begin or continue due to threats to Employees or 19 property, or when civil authorities recommend that work not begin or continue;

20 (2) Operations cannot begin or continue because public utilities fail to supply 21 electricity, water, or gas, or there is a failure in the public utilities, or sewer system;

22 (3) Operations cannot begin or continue due to an Act of God or other cause
23 not within the Employer's control, for example, an earthquake or a state of emergency 24 declared by the Mayor or the Governor;

1 (4) Another Employee previously scheduled to work that shift is unable to work
2 due to illness, vacation, or employer-provided paid or unpaid time off where the Employer did 3 not receive at least seven days' notice of the absence;

4 (5) Another Employee previously scheduled to work that shift has not reported 5 to work on time and/or is fired or sent home or told to stay home as a disciplinary action;

6 (6) The Employer requires the Employee to work overtime (i.e., mandatory 7 overtime); or

8 (7) The Employee trades shifts with another Employee or requests from the 9 Employer a change in shift(s), hours, or work schedule.

10 (f) Nothing in this Section 3300G.4 shall be construed to prohibit an Employer from 11 providing greater advance notice of Employees' work schedules and/or changes in schedules 12 than that required by this Section.

13 (g) The requirements imposed by this Section 3300G.4 shall apply to Property
14 Services Contractors as to work performed in San Francisco at a Formula Retail
15 Establishment covered by this Article 33G, under a contract with an Employer. An Employer
16 shall include in any such contract executed on or after the operative date of this Article 33G,
17 (1) a provision requiring the Property Services Contractor to comply with this Article and (2) a
18 copy of this Article. The Employer shall retain copies of such contracts for a period of not less 19 than three years following the expiration or termination of the contract, and make such copies
20 available to the Agency for inspection upon request. In addition, Sections 3300G.6, 3300G.7,
21 3300G.9, 3300G.10, and 3300G.11 of this Article shall apply to a Property Services
22 Contractor as if it is an Employer for purposes of notice, record retention, compliance,
23 investigation, and enforcement of the requirements of this Section 3300G.4.

24
25 SEC. 3300G.5. EQUAL TREATMENT FOR PART-TIME EMPLOYEES.

1 (a) Hourly Wage. Employers shall provide Part-Time Employees with the same 2 starting hourly wage as that provided to starting Full-Time Employees who hold jobs that 3 require equal skill, effort, and responsibility, and that are performed under similar working 4 conditions, provided that hourly pay differentials between Part-Time and Full-Time Employees 5 are permissible if such differentials are based on reasons other than the Part-Time status of 6 the Employee, such as a seniority system, merit system, system which measures earnings by 7 quantity or quality of production, performance or responsibilities. This subsection (a) shall not 8 affect the minimum hourly requirements for receipt of benefits including but not limited to 9 health care benefits.

10 (b) Access to Time Off. Employers shall provide Part-Time Employees with the same 11 access to Employer-provided paid and unpaid time off as that afforded to Full-Time
12 Employees for the same job classification. A Part-Time Employee's eligibility for Employer-13 provided paid or unpaid time off may be pro-rated based on the number of hours that the Part-14 Time Employee works. This subsection (b) shall not apply to Employers that are subject to 15 the Minimum Compensation Ordinance, Administrative Code Chapter 12P.

16 (c) Eligibility for Promotions. Employers shall provide Part-Time Employees with the 17 same eligibility for promotions as that afforded to Full-Time Employees for the same job 18 classification, provided that an Employer may condition eligibility for promotion on the 19 Employee's availability for Full-Time employment and on reasons other than the Part-Time 20 status of the Employee, such as nature and amount of work experience.

21 (gd) The requirements imposed by this Section 3300G.5 shall apply to Property
22 Services Contractors as to work performed in San Francisco at a Formula Retail
23 Establishment covered by this Article 33G, under a contract with an Employer. An Employer
24 shall include in any such contract executed on or after the operative date of this Article 33G,
25 (1) a provision requiring the Property Services Contractor to comply with this Article and (2) a

1 copy of this Article. The Employer shall retain copies of such contracts for a period of not less
2 than three years following the expiration or termination of the contract, and make such copies
3 available to the Agency for inspection upon request. In addition, Sections 3300G.6, 3300G.7,
4 3300G.9, 3300G.10, and 3300G.11 of this Article shall apply to a Property Services
5 Contractor as if it is an Employer for purposes of notice, record retention, compliance,
6 investigation, and enforcement of the requirements of this Section 3300G.5.

LEGISLATIVE DIGEST

[Police Code - Property Services Contractors at Formula Retail Establishments]

Ordinance amending the Police Code to require Formula Retail Establishments that have entered into contracts with Property Services Contractors that are in effect between April 1, 2015, and July 3, 2015, to provide such contractors with copies of Police Code, Articles 33F, and 33G, which establish certain rights of employees of such contractors.

Existing Law

The Board of Supervisors enacted two ordinances on November 25, 2014 that, collectively, have been referred to as the "Formula Retail Workers' Bill of Rights."

One of the ordinances, No. 236-14, is entitled, "Predictable Scheduling and Fair Treatment for Formula Retail Employees Ordinance." It requires Formula Retail Establishments to provide employees with two weeks' notice of work schedules, notice of changes to work schedules, and compensation for schedule changes made on less than seven days' notice and unused on-call shifts. The ordinance also provides part-time employees with the same starting rate of hourly pay, access to time off, and eligibility for promotions, as provided to full-time employees. The other ordinance, No. 241-14, requires Formula Retail Establishments to offer additional hours of work, when available, to current part-time employees. The ordinance also requires successor employers to retain employees for 90 days upon a change in control of the business. Both ordinances will become effective at the end of the day on January 4, 2015, and will become operative 180 days thereafter.

The ordinances apply to "Property Services Contractors," defined as contractors or subcontractors of Formula Retail Establishments that provide janitorial and/or security services to Formula Retail Establishments. Both ordinances require Formula Retail Establishments to provide Property Services Contractors with which they execute contracts on or after July 3, 2015 a copy of the ordinances.

The ordinances do not require Formula Retail Establishments to provide copies of the ordinances to Property Service Contractors with which they have existing contracts or with which they enter into contracts before July 3, 2015.

Amendments to Current Law

The proposed legislation would require Formula Retail Establishments that have contracts with Property Services Contractors that are in effect as of April 1, 2015 to provide a copy of the "Formula Retail Workers' Bill of Rights" ordinances to the Property Services Contractor on or before April 15, 2015. For any contract between a Formula Retail Establishment and a Property Services Contractor that is executed between April 1, 2015 and July 3, 2015, the Formula Retail Establishment must provide a copy of the "Formula Retail Workers' Bill of Rights" ordinances to the Property Services Contractor within 10 days of the date the parties execute the contract.
