Resolution declaring April 21, 2016, to be Steve Gibson Day in the City and County of San Francisco.

WHEREAS, Steve Gibson has been a community leader and HIV visionary for his tireless commitment to preventing the spread of HIV; and

WHEREAS, Steve has been a champion for improving the quality of life of gay, bisexual, and trans men through his work at the STOP AIDS Project, Magnet (which he cofounded in 2003), and the San Francisco AIDS Foundation; and

WHEREAS, Steve has worked tirelessly to serve the City's most vulnerable and at-risk populations and support his community with compassion and dedication; and

WHEREAS, Steve's creation, Magnet, has been studied and replicated around the world, and under his leadership it has grown from providing 1,250 visits to 15,000 clinical visits per year; and

WHEREAS, Steve and his team were instrumental in helping to launch a highly successful PrEP program at Magnet and 1035 Market Street that is close to enrolling its 1000th client; and

WHEREAS, Steve and his team helped expand screening in the city through the San Francisco AIDS Foundation mobile testing unit, supported the expansion of HIV and hepatitis C testing and therefore has helped San Francisco reduce HIV infections and link those living with HIV to care; and

WHEREAS, Steve will be remembered by his San Francisco colleagues and friends as the guy with the bow ties, a love for carnivorous plants, and guick wit; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, That the Board of Supervisors proclaims April 21, 2016, to be Steve Gibson Day in the City and County of San Francisco.
