Re: Board of Supervisors Resolution No. 218-16

Dear Senator Jackson:

On May 24, 2016, the Board of Supervisors adopted Resolution No. 218-16 (Urging Support for the California Legislative Women's Caucus' Request and Priority to Invest $800,000,000 in the FY2016-2017 California Budget), which was enacted on June 3, 2016.

The Board of Supervisors directs the Clerk of the Board to forward the following document to your attention:

- One copy of Resolution No. 218-16 (File No. 160565)

If you have any questions or require additional information, please contact the Office of the Clerk of the Board at (415) 554-5184, or by e-mail: board.of.supervisors@sfgov.org.

Sincerely,

10
11 WHEREAS, The Legislative Women's Caucus recognizes that California is a state 12 where mothers and families with children are significant contributors in the economy; and

13 WHEREAS, California has cut over $1,000,000,000 from early child care programs 14 between 2009 and 2011; and

15 WHEREAS, Only $500,000,000 of these cuts have been restored despite the growth in 16 the economy; and

17 WHEREAS, The current level of the Standard Reimbursement Rate (SRR) is set at 18 $36.10 per child per full day of enrollment, is less than half of the current market rate in San 19 Francisco; and

20 WHEREAS, The current Regional Market Rate (RMR) reimbursement ceilings for 21 voucher-subsidized early care and education services are based on data collected in 2009, 22 severely suppressing the reimbursement rate, and impacting the quality of care; and

23 WHEREAS, The recent passage of minimum wage ordinances and parental leave has 24 added increased economic burden on child care programs without an increase in state 25 subsidies; and

1 WHEREAS, The child care educators' work is not minimum-wage work, and requires 2 skill, expertise, and consistency to deliver quality, but a typical child care educators' wage in 3 San Francisco is $16.85; and

4 WHEREAS, The current level of SRR and RMR increasingly limit low income families' 5 access to the child care market and, in particular, quality care options; and

6 WHEREAS, The Legislative Women's Caucus recognizes that currently parents have 7 only five days to report changes within class and/or work schedules and changes to familial 8 structure, and parents with variable schedules have to report every four months; and

9 WHEREAS, This onerous burden on both parent and employer is causing a revolving 10 door of eligibility; and

11 WHEREAS, As the Legislative Women's Caucus recognizes, currently, the entry and 12 exit level for child care eligibility is 70% of the Standard Median Income that was in use 13 for 2007-2008, and this causes parents to pass up slight raises or job advancement for fear of 14 losing their wage increase; and

15 WHEREAS, The Legislative Women's Caucus FY2016-2017 budget request includes
