Member, Board of Supervisors
District 7

City and County of San Francisco

NORMAN YEE

July 25, 2016

Dear Colleagues,

I write in support for Judge Quentin L. Kopp's appointment to the vacant seat on the San Francisco Ethics Commission. As a former Board of Supervisor member, California State Senator, Superior Court Judge and Board member of many civic organizations, Judge Kopp will be a knowledgeable, judicious and experienced addition to the Ethics Commission.

I encourage you to support Judge Kopp's timely appointment to the Ethics Commission so he can commence work leading up to the fall elections.

Sincerely,

Subject: Endorse Judge Kopp for Ethics vacancy

Chair and Members:

I respectfully urge you to support the appointment of Judge Quentin L. Kopp to the vacant seat on the San Francisco Ethics Commission.

Since the voters created the Ethics Commission in 1974, there have been approximately 30 appointments to the Commission by the mayor, the Board, the City Attorney, the District Attorney, the Controller and the Assessor.

There has never been an appointee who ran and won election in San Francisco or who ran and served in the State Senate. Judge Kopp would be the first Ethics Commissioner to have the experience and knowledge that comes from the exact background that is the primary focus of the Ethics Commission, including the rules for campaigns at the local and state level as well as the standards of conduct and conflict of interest requirements.

Judge Kopp, who also served well as a Superior Court judge, uniquely has the first-hand experience of understanding San Francisco's political culture as well as a deep knowledge of the law. This will bring to the Commission a heightened capacity to ask insightful questions during the Commission's deliberations, as well as a grounding as the Commission moves forward with a new Executive Director and a new, current set of priorities and plans

Over the past several years, the political landscape has been altered by Supreme Court decisions such as Citizens United, by new tools that greatly increase transparency opportunities, while our city has experienced a deepening concern that undue influence has put private interest over public interest.

I strongly hold to the belief that ethical government, free of conflicts of interest and undue influence, is a nonpartisan issue that benefits the entire community and does not create an advantage for any political viewpoint or agenda.

As a member of the San Francisco Civil Grand Jury 2013-2014 that issued a detailed report on Ethics in the City, I am familiar with the challenges the Commission faces and the leadership that is needed now. As the original proponent of creating the Ethics Commission in 1993, the hopes I had for an effective commission are only now beginning to be realized. Judge Kopp's appointment to the Commission will enhance and advance its mission.

I am pleased that Judge Kopp has applied for the Ethics Commission vacancy, and I urge the Rules Committee and the full Board to confirm him in this appointment.

Dear Chair Tang and Members of the Rules Committee,

I write in strong support of the appointment of Judge Quentin L. Kopp to the vacant seat on the San Francisco Ethics Commission.

The core mission of the SF Ethics Commission is to strengthen, defend, and enforce San Francisco's campaign finance, lobbying, and ethics rules in an impartial manner in order to maintain the public's faith and trust in the operation of their government. Given the enormous and sustained pressure from lobbyists and powerful interests seeking to exploit loopholes in the law, it is imperative that the members of the Ethics Commission be informed, experienced, dedicated and – above all – independent.

I can think of nobody who fits this job description better than former San Francisco Supervisor, State Senator, and Judge Quentin L. Kopp.

I encourage you to support Judge Kopp's prompt appointment to the Ethics Commission in time for him to be able to assist the Commission with the enormous workload ahead of it during and following this fall's historic election. If he is appointed, I am confident that Judge Kopp will be ready to get to work once again on behalf of the people of San Francisco.

Sincerely,

Jon Golinger

Subject: Nomination of Quentin Kopp

Members of the Rules Committee,

I know it's a little ironic that I'm writing to you to show support for former Supervisor, Senator and Judge Quentin Kopp after I appeared before you last week seeking your support for my appointment to the Treasure Island Citizen's Advisory Board. But I have known Mr. Kopp since the 1970's and although our political points of view were rarely the same, it was always honest, reliable, fair, and generous. In my two attempts to be elected to the Board of Supervisors I was endorsed by the Bay Guardian both times and I note that Bruce Brugmann was then and now a supporter of someone whose politics were vastly different. Quentin Kopp will be a wonderful addition, again, to the body politic of San Francisco and I support him 100%.

Thank you,

Jesse Tepper

Re: Support for Appointment of Quentin Kopp to the Ethics Commission

Dear Rules Committee Members,

I strongly support the nomination of former Judge Quentin Kopp for appointment to San Francisco's Ethics Commission.

Over the 27 years he has served as a member of San Francisco's Board of Supervisors, a member of the State Senate, and a Superior Court Judge, Mr. Kopp has long been a strong advocate of open government in our City. Kopp clearly has demonstrated during his tenure on the Superior Court that he is exceptionally impartial, and obviously very knowledgeable about California state law.

His service as a board member of California's First Amendment Coalition is additional evidence of his dedication to clean, honest government. To the extent Ethics Commissioner Peter Keane may be correct that Mr. Kopp "can sniff out a rat better than any terrier," Quentin is precisely the type of Commissioner the Ethics Commission is sorely in need of, and he would be an excellent choice to join Professor Keane as an Ethics Commissioner.

Please forward a unanimous recommendation in support of Mr. Kopp's appointment to Ethics to the full Board of Supervisors. He is extremely competent, and deserves your unanimous support.

Respectfully submitted,

Patrick Monette-Shaw

Dear Supervisor,
I recommend that you approve Judge Quentin Kopp for the Ethics Commission. Judge Kopp's past experience as a member of the Board of Supervisors, a judge and a state senator all provide an extraordinary background for this position. He is a person of deep integrity.
I hope that you will approve this appointment.

BOARD OF SUPERVISORS

Members of the Commission shall be officers of the City and County, and may be removed by the appointing authority only pursuant to Section 15.105. No person may serve more than one six-year term as a member of the Commission, provided that persons appointed to fill a vacancy for an unexpired term with less than three years remaining or appointed to an initial term of three or fewer years shall be eligible to be appointed to one additional six-year term. Any term served before the effective date of this Section shall not count toward a member's term limit. Any person who completes a term as a Commissioner shall be eligible for reappointment six years after the expiration of his or her term.

During his or her tenure, a member of the Commission may not: hold any other City or County office or be an officer of a political party. No member or employee of the Ethics Commission may be a registered lobbyist or campaign consultant, or be employed by or receive gifts or other compensation from a registered lobbyist or campaign consultant. No member or employee of the Ethics Commission may participate in any campaign supporting or opposing a candidate for City elective office, a City ballot measure, or a City officer running for any elective office. Participation in a campaign includes but is not limited to making contributions or soliciting contributions to any committee within the Ethics Commission's jurisdiction, publicly endorsing or urging endorsement of a candidate or ballot measure, or participating in decisions by organizations to participate in a campaign.

The Commission may subpoena witnesses, compel their attendance and testimony, administer oaths and affirmations, take evidence and require by subpoena the production of any books, papers, records or other items material to the performance of the Commission's duties or exercise of its powers.

The Commission serves the public, city employees and officials and candidates for public office through education and enforcement of ethics laws. The Commission provides open access to public records in ethics-related matters. The Commission acts as filing officer for, and auditor of, financial disclosure statements filed by political candidates and committees and designated City and County employees. The Commission assesses fees and penalties for failure to adhere to deadlines and requirements, audits statements to ensure compliance with contribution limits, administers an education program, and produces educational materials. It also oversees registration and regulation of lobbyists, investigates ethics complaints, provides advice on ethical matters and publishes statistical reports.

Its duties include: filing and auditing of campaign finance disclosure statements; campaign consultant registration and regulation; lobbyist registration and regulation; filing officer for statements of economic interest; administration of the Whistleblower program; investigations of ethics complaints; enforcement education and training; and providing advice and statistical reporting.
