The Epicurean Trader is a husband-and-wife owned and operated specialty food store. We currently have a location on Cortland Avenue in the Bernal Heights neighborhood.

We support small batch, artisanal food products across a number of categories including: farmstead cheeses; charcuterie; oils and vinegars; craft chocolates; loose leaf teas; herbs and spices; and other pantry items.

We support small, local artisans who produce high quality, hand crafted products but don't have the production capacity, brand awareness or marketing budget to work with larger, higher volume supermarkets. We see our store as an incubator for the next generation of food producers, who will help push their respective crafts forward in a positive way.

We have tremendous respect for our vendors and work with them directly versus using distributors like the majority of other markets in San Francisco. We host regular demonstration and sampling events in-store to help educate our customers about the people and the craftsmanship behind the products that we sell.

Our existing location in Bernal Heights has received several accolades since opening, including:

- Featured as a must see in Saveur Magazine's 'Culinary Guide to San Francisco'
- #1 Rated Specialty Food store in San Francisco by Yelp.com
- #3 Gourmet Shop in San Francisco by Foursquare
- Named the 'Best Neighborhood Market in San Francisco' by Pure Wow
- Named the 'Best Spirits Store in the San Francisco Bay Area' by San Francisco Magazine

OR

Alcohol sales are expected to be a minor percentage of overall sales, but an important part of our mission to bring awareness of small producers across both food and drink categories. We support small production wine producers both domestically and internationally, we support craft beers from local breweries, and distilled spirits from micro-distilleries, many of whom distill their products here in San Francisco!

Through the ABC Liquor Licensing process, we have already reached out to our local Board of Supervisors representative, local neighborhood committees in the Marina and Pacific Heights, the San Francisco Police Department Alcohol Liaison Unit and sent out a mailing to residents within 500 feet of the store and a notification on the front window of the proposed location for thirty consecutive days.

160818

Not only have we not had any complaints about our plans to convert the location into a specialty market, we have had neighbors call the ABC to express their delight that there would be more options to purchase quality groceries along Union Street (currently there are none).

Our existing store has received 5.0/5.0 stars on Yelp.com with 34 reviews; and 5.0/5.0 stars on Facebook with 23 reviews which demonstrates the support the local community has for our store and our mission. We hope that the local residents around Union Street will provide a similar support.

The hours of operation are anticipated to be between 9am and 10pm daily.

We respectfully request your support of our proposed new location on Union St as we feel it will serve as a "Public Convenience and Necessity" not only for the local residents around Union Street, but also citywide for all the small, local food businesses in San Francisco that we support that very few other retailers in San Francisco are willing to.

Sincerely,

Mat Pond and Holly McDell
