Item 13 File 16-1015	Department: Department of Children, Youth and Their Families (DCYF)
---------------------------------------	---

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY*Legislative Objectives

- Ordinance appropriating $9,000,000 of Real Property Transfer Tax in FY 2016-17 for funding the Community College Fund to support students attending City College of San Francisco and placing funds on Controller's Reserve pending the outcome of General Fund tax revenue measures in the November 8, 2016 Election.

Key Points

- On September 27, 2016, the Board of Supervisors amended the Administrative Code to establish the San Francisco City College Enrollment Fee Assistance Fund as a category four fund for use by DCYF to make block grants to City College to offset student enrollment fees and other education-related costs for eligible students.
- Proposition W was approved by San Francisco voters in November, 2016, which will increase transfer tax rates for properties over $5,000,000. The Controller's Office estimates the new transfer tax rates will generate an additional $14 million in FY 2016-17.

Fiscal Impact

- DCYF has not yet negotiated nor entered into any agreements with City College regarding the amount of block grants that would be awarded, nor the specific process that would be used to apply for, calculate, award or disburse payments to individual students. DCYF does not yet know how the $9,000,000 would be allocated, if approved.

Policy Consideration

- Proposition K, which would have increased the City's Sales Taxes, was not approved by San Francisco voters. However, the FY 2016-17 City budget included $37.5 million of additional funding from projected increased Sales Tax revenues, with 2/3<sup>rds</sup> in SFMTA's budget and 1/3rd in the new Department of Homelessness's budget. Expenditure reserves prevent these two City departments from incurring these expenditures in FY 2016-17.
- The Mayor's Office will provide a plan to rebalance the FY 2016-17 and FY 2017-18 budgets by mid-December, 2016.

Recommendations

- Amend the proposed ordinance to delete the language on page 1, lines 5-7 " and placing the funds on Controller's Reserve, pending the outcome of General Fund tax revenue measures in the November 8, 2016 Election" and all of Section 3 on page 2, "Section 3. The uses of funding outline above for $9,000,000 are herein placed on Controller's Reserve pending the outcome of General Fund tax revenue measures to be determined in the November 8, 2016 election."
- Approval of the proposed ordinance, as amended, is a policy decision for the Board of Supervisors.

MANDATE STATEMENT

City Charter Section 9.105 provides that amendments to the Annual Appropriations Ordinance, after the Controller certifies the availability of funds, are subject to Board of Supervisors approval by ordinance.

BACKGROUND

City College Enrollment Fee Assistance Fund

On September 27, 2016, the Board of Supervisors approved an ordinance amending the City's Administrative Code to establish the San Francisco City College Enrollment Fee Assistance Fund (File 16-0892; Ordinance No. 186-16). This Fund was established as a category four fund<sup>1</sup> for use by the Department of Children, Youth and Their Families (DCYF) to make block grants to City College to offset student enrollment fees and provide other education-related financial support for eligible students enrolled in credit courses at City College who

(1) Reside in San Francisco; or

(2) Are employees of the City and County of San Francisco (CCSF), San Francisco Unified School District (SFUSD) or City College.

City College would use these funds to

(1) Reduce or waive enrollment fees for eligible students, less any state or federal financial aid the student receives, or

(2) For other education-related financial support, including purchasing required books and supplies, lab fees and activity fees, as specified in the block grant agreement<sup>2</sup>.

While benefits would not be based on individual need, no student can receive more than $1,000 for any academic year. City College can use up to 1% of the total block grant each fiscal year for administration of the program. An Oversight Committee, consisting of nine members appointed by the City College Board of Trustees (3 members), City College Academic Senate (2 members), City College Associated Students Executive Council (1 member), the Board of Supervisors (2 members) and the San Francisco Board of Education (1 member), would review implementation of the grant agreement and provide annual reports on implementation of the grant agreement and disbursements from the Fund to the Mayor, Board of Supervisors, DCYF and City College.

<sup>1</sup> In accordance with Section 10.100 of the City's Administrative Code, a category four fund (a) is not automatically appropriated, but rather is subject to Board of Supervisors appropriation approval, (b) accumulates interest and (c) the fund balance carries forward.

<sup>2</sup> The ordinance specified that DCYF and City College develop and execute an agreement governing the block grants and the process for applying for, calculating, awarding and disbursing payments to individual students. The block grant agreement would give priority to offsetting enrollment fee increases over other education-related financial support.

City Real Property Transfer Tax

Currently, the City collects a one-time real property transfer tax at the time of most transactions of residential and commercial real estate in San Francisco, based on the sales price. This transfer tax also applies to leases that extend for 35 years or more and on real estate owned when a business changes ownership. The revenues collected from transfer taxes are deposited into the City's General Fund. Table 1 below shows the actual and budgeted transfer taxes over the past three fiscal years.

Table 1: Transfer Tax Revenues in FY 2014-17

Fiscal Year	Transfer Taxes
FY 2014-15 (actual)	$314.6 million
FY 2015-16 (actual)	269.1 million
FY 2016-17 (budgeted)	235.0 million

Proposition W

Proposition W, which was approved by San Francisco voters on the November 8, 2016 San Francisco ballot, will increase transfer tax rates for real estate with a sale price of more than $5,000,000, including leases of 35 years or more. Table 2 below shows the existing and new transfer tax rates based on Proposition W.

Table 2: Current and New City Transfer Tax Rates based on Proposition W

Real Estate Sale Price	Current Transfer Tax Rates	New Transfer Tax Rates	Change
Greater than $250,000 and less than $1,000,000	0.68%	0.68%	No change
At least $1,000,000 and less than $5,000,000	0.75%	0.75%	No change
At least $5,000,000 and less than $10,000,000	2.00%	2.25%	0.25%
At least $10,000,000 and less than $25,000,000	2.50%	2.75%	0.25%
At least $25,000,000	2.50%	3.00%	0.50%

The new transfer tax rates will become effective when the election results are certified, or approximately mid-December 2016. The Controller's Office estimates the new transfer tax rates under Proposition W will generate an additional $14 million in FY 2016-17.

The Controller's statement in the San Francisco Voters Information Pamphlet estimates that Proposition W would result in additional annual revenue to the City's General Fund ranging from $10,000,000 to $73,000,000, with an average of $45,000,000 annually. However, the Controller cautions that transfer taxes are the City's most volatile revenue source and that this estimate is based on recent economic cycle transactions. Therefore, the Controller notes that estimates based on prior years' activity may not accurately predict future revenues.

DETAILS OF PROPOSED LEGISLATION

Ordinance (a) appropriating a total of $9,000,000 of Real Property Transfer Tax in FY 2016-17 for funding the Community College Fund to support students attending City College of San Francisco and (b) placing funds on Controller’s Reserve, pending the outcome of General Fund tax revenue measures in the November 8, 2016 Election.

The proposed sources and uses for the requested $9,000,000 are shown in Table 3 below.

Table 3: Proposed Sources and Uses

Sources
General Fund-Real Property Transfer Tax	$9,000,000
Uses
City Grants-Financial Support for City College Students	$9,000,000

Given that the November 8, 2016 Election has already occurred, and based on discussions with the Controller’s Office, the proposed ordinance should be amended to delete the language placing the funds on Controller’s Reserve, pending the outcome of General Fund tax revenue measures in the November 8, 2016 Election.

FISCAL IMPACT

According to Mr. Leo Chyi, Chief Financial Officer for the Department of Children, Youth and Their Families (DCYF), the proposed ordinance that created the San Francisco City College Enrollment Fee Assistance Fund (File 16-0892) specified under Administrative Code Section 10.100-288(d)(4) the Fund “shall not become operative until the City appropriates monies to the Fund”. The proposed $9,000,000 supplemental appropriation of Transfer Tax revenues would be the first monies appropriated into the Fund. Therefore, DCYF has not yet negotiated nor entered into any agreements with City College regarding specifics of the amount of block grants that would be awarded, nor the specific process that would be used to apply for, calculate, award or disburse payments to individual students. As a result, DCYF does not yet know specifically how the $9,000,000 would be allocated, if approved by the Board of Supervisors.

The Controller’s Office conducted a cost analysis of providing City funding for City College for students who live in San Francisco or work for City College, SFUSD or the City, assuming implementation beginning in FY 2017-18. Table 4 below summarizes the Controller’s cost analysis which shows a range of estimated costs based on various assumptions regarding City College enrollment and fee levels.

Table 4: Controller’s Analysis of Estimated Costs

Cost Estimates ($Mil)	FY 2017-18		Average Annual
	Low	High	Low	High
Enrollment Fee	$6.5	$8.8	$8.3	$12.1
Financial Aid Support	$5.1	$7.9	$6.8	$10.9
Total	$11.6	$16.7	$15.1	$23.0

While the above analysis is for FY 2017-18, the requested $9,000,000 supplemental appropriation would be appropriated for FY 2016-17. If approved, the $9,000,000 would be deposited into the newly created San Francisco City College Enrollment Fee Assistance Fund, which as a category four fund, would carry forward any fund balance to the following fiscal years. Revenue transfers into this Fund and expenditures from this Fund would be subject to future annual appropriations by the Board of Supervisors.

POLICY CONSIDERATION

As noted above, Proposition W was approved by San Francisco voters on November 8, 2016, which increased City Real Property transfer taxes. However, Proposition K, also on the November 8, 2016 ballot, which would have increased the City’s Sales Taxes by 0.75% for a total tax rate of 9.25%, was not approved by San Francisco voters. The FY 2016-17 City budget assumed that Proposition K would be approved, and included $37.5 million of additional funding from the projected increased Sales Tax revenues.

Of the $37.5 million in the FY 2016-17 budget, approximately 2/3rds is in the San Francisco Municipal Transportation Agency’s (SFMTA) budget and approximately 1/3rd is in the new Department of Homelessness’s budget. The Controller’s Office has placed expenditure reserves on the $37.5 million of funds, which prevents these two City departments from incurring these expenditures in FY 2016-17. The FY 2017-18 City budget also assumed $155 million of increased revenues from the passage of Proposition K, such that $155 million is also on expenditure reserve in the FY 2017-18 budget. The Controller’s Office, Mayor’s Budget Office and the Board of Supervisors Budget and Legislative Analyst’s Office are currently preparing the FY 2018-2022 Five Year Budget Projections, which should be completed on December 8, 2016. The current FY 2017-18 budget projection reflects an approximate $130 million shortfall.

Ms. Melissa Whitehouse, Mayor’s Budget Director, advises that the Mayor’s Office is currently analyzing the FY 2016-17 and FY 2017-18 budgets and will provide a plan to re-balance these budgets by mid-December, 2016. As part of this re-balancing plan, the Mayor’s Office is reviewing the proposed expenditures for transportation, homelessness, street trees, free City College and also potential impacts from the federal election.

RECOMMENDATIONS

1. Amend the proposed ordinance to delete the language on page 1, lines 5-7 “ and placing the funds on Controller’s Reserve, pending the outcome of General Fund tax revenue measures in the November 8, 2016 Election” and all of Section 3 on page 2, “Section 3. The uses of funding outline above for $9,000,000 are herein placed on Controller’s Reserve pending the outcome of General Fund tax revenue measures to be determined in the November 8, 2016 election.”
2. Approval of the proposed ordinance, as amended, is a policy decision for the Board of Supervisors.

In the fall of 1977, at the age of 18, I used a modest bequest to pay for my first semester at St. Mary's College in Moraga, California.

I don't know what I was thinking. I certainly wasn't listening to my father's advice that we didn't have the financial resources for me to continue at St. Mary's after the first semester. I learned quickly enough.

In the spring of 1978, I entered City College of San Francisco. At that point, I was completely broke, and City College was a beacon of light for me in an otherwise confusing time. At City, I completed the necessary units and moved onto Long Beach State University to finish my degree.

Everyone should have this opportunity. But in San Francisco where so many working people are struggling to make their $3,000 per month rent and figure out how they're going to eat after that, a college education is a pipe dream.

If we are truly committed to educating our youth and helping those families living in poverty rise up to the middle class, we need to make City College free.

A college education is a powerful countermeasure to the city's obscene cost of living.

And while free tuition at City College is a not a cure-all, it will provide a path to more economic opportunity and supply an educated workforce, which we so desperately need for our democracy to thrive.

We are the city of St. Francis, named after a 13th century saint who venerated and celebrated poverty and who said:

Start by doing what's necessary; then do what's possible; and suddenly you are doing the impossible.

We cannot let the events of the last month overwhelm us and lead us astray from doing what we know to be right for future generations.

To quote St. Francis one more time: For it is in giving that we receive.

City Council,

I commend and thank the Board of Supervisors for pledging to make City College FREE for San Franciscans. I urge you to support the next crucial step in this process by voting yes on Supervisor Kim's ordinance to appropriate $9 million of Real Property Transfer Tax in FY2016-2017 to fund the Community College Fund and make City College of San Francisco tuition-free for all San Francisco residents starting in 2017. This budget appropriation is a critical step to fulfill the wishes of the overwhelming majority of San Francisco voters who supported Proposition W on November 8th. Thank you in advance for your support of this important effort to expand access to higher education for all San Franciscans.

City Council,

Prop W was passed with the promise of free City College. We can find other ways to fund the City's other pressing needs.

I studied journalism at CCSF over 20 years ago, and in 2010, I took Art of MesoAmerica at CCSF for my final three credits to earn my B.S. from USF.

Free City College is vital.

City Council,

Because I live with a disability and have a low income, CCSF has been free for me through the Board of Governor's Fee waiver. I've personally experienced how a free CCSF education can benefit students like myself. Not only have I been accepted to UC Davis and UC Berkeley, but I've also been inspired to give back to my community through various volunteer positions and even an internship at the AIDS Emergency Fund. I even start serving on SF'S Shelter Monitoring Committee next month, and I truly believe that a free community college education has afforded me with all these opportunities. Please make CCSF free for other San Franciscans like myself. It's a great way to fuel our community forward! Thank you!

Subject: In Support of Free City College in SF

City Council,

Given that Prop W passed, I want to urge the Board of Supervisors to vote yes on Supervisor Kim's ordinance, which will appropriate $9 million of Real Property Transfer Tax in FY2016-2017 to make City College tuition-free for all San Francisco residents, from 2017 onwards.

Tuition-free City College is an important step in leveling the playing field and giving higher education to those with access to fewer resources. In a city with such high levels of income inequality, we can both fund City College and find funding for other services like homelessness and transportation.

Thank you.

City Council,

I commend and thank the Board of Supervisors for pledging to make City College FREE for San Franciscans. I urge you to support the next crucial step in this process by voting yes on Supervisor Kim's ordinance to appropriate $9 million of Real Property Transfer Tax in FY2016-2017 to fund the Community College Fund and make City College of San Francisco tuition-free for all San Francisco residents starting in 2017. This budget appropriation is a critical step to fulfill the wishes of the overwhelming majority of San Francisco voters who supported Proposition W on November 8th. Thank you in advance for your support of this important effort to expand access to higher education for all San Franciscans.

City Council,

I commend and thank the Board of Supervisors for pledging to make City College FREE for San Franciscans. I urge you to support the next crucial step in this process by voting yes on Supervisor Kim's ordinance to appropriate $9 million of Real Property Transfer Tax in FY2016-2017 to fund the Community College Fund and make City College of San Francisco tuition-free for all San Francisco residents starting in 2017. This budget appropriation is a critical step to fulfill the wishes of the overwhelming majority of San Francisco voters who supported Proposition W on November 8th. Thank you in advance for your support of this important effort to expand access to higher education for all San Franciscans.

Additionally, to not follow through on a incredible mandate from the voting public will undermine our democratic process and injure the perception of government in a time when our country is in grave danger because of a fundamental lack of trust in politicians, as evidenced by Trump's electoral win.

City Council,

When I first started teaching at City College, it was free. I had students from every walk of life, every color, every belief - and they could get a really great education and the cost was their time and textbooks or whatever project they would undertake to learn the subject of their desire.

It has become more than clear to me that the ills of our country (and likely the world) come from lack of education. Currently I have students that struggle to keep a roof over their heads or food to keep them going. Never before has there been more need to give these struggling students an education to get them into a job force that can pay them enough to live here and support their families. I know my one class has made a difference to many students. But I also have seen so much hardship amongst their ranks in the past few years. I commend and thank the Board of Supervisors for pledging to make City College FREE for San Franciscans. I urge you to support the next crucial step in this process by voting yes on Supervisor Kim's ordinance to appropriate $9 million of Real Property Transfer Tax in FY2016-2017 to fund the Community College Fund and make City College of San Francisco tuition-free for all San Francisco residents starting in 2017. Thank you in advance for your support of this important effort to expand access to higher education for all San Franciscans - because we need to be leading the way and setting an example. I guarantee you that an educated society is one that has less crime, strife and is a lot more healthy. Please support this. It really is a matter of life and health!

Thank you!

City Council,

Dear SF Supervisors:

I am an SF resident and also a community college faculty member at De Anza College. I see everyday first hand the students who come to community college to pursue their dreams and many of my students are first generation college students, or are retraining for new careers after being unable to find employment. I commend and thank the Board of Supervisors for pledging to make City College FREE for San Franciscans. City Council,

I commend and thank the Board of Supervisors for pledging to make City College FREE for San Franciscans. I urge you to support the next crucial step in this process by voting yes on Supervisor Kim's ordinance to appropriate $9 million of Real Property Transfer Tax in FY2016-2017 to fund the Community College Fund and make City College of San Francisco tuition-free for all San Francisco residents starting in 2017. This budget appropriation is a critical step to fulfill the wishes of the overwhelming majority of San Francisco voters who supported Proposition W on November 8th. Thank you in advance for your support of this important effort to expand access to higher education for all San Franciscans.

City Council,

I commend and thank the Board of Supervisors for pledging to make City College FREE for San Franciscans. I urge you to support the next crucial step in this process by voting yes on Supervisor Kim's ordinance to appropriate $9 million of Real Property Transfer Tax in FY2016-2017 to fund the Community College Fund and make City College of San Francisco tuition-free for all San Francisco residents starting in 2017. This budget appropriation is a critical step to fulfill the wishes of the overwhelming majority of San Francisco voters who supported Proposition W on November 8th. Thank you in advance for your support of this important effort to expand access to higher education for all San Franciscans.

Please do not allow a split between the need for free college tuition and homeless services. Please urge /the mayor to use the funding from prop E for homeless services. Rather than tree maintenance. People are the priority.

WE, THE VOTERS, APPROVED THIS MEASURE AND IT IS NOT ACCEPTABLE TO REVERSE IT BECAUSE OTHER REVENUE PROPOSALS FAILED!

CCSF is essential to the economic health of San Francisco and to our well-being as city residents. Please follow through now on the electoral mandate.

City Council,

It's important to follow through with what the voters approved last month: fund the Community College Fund so CCSF is tuition-free for all San Francisco residents starting in 2017. The next crucial step for you is to Vote YES on Supervisor Kim's ordinance (which appropriates $9 million of Real Property Transfer Tax in FY2016-2017). Please do your job, the Prop W Yes vote assigned it to you. Thank you, Gail Williams

City Council,

I commend and thank the Board of Supervisors for pledging to make City College FREE for San Franciscans. I urge you to support the next crucial step in this process by voting yes on Supervisor Kim's ordinance to appropriate $9 million of Real Property Transfer Tax in FY2016-2017 to fund the Community College Fund and make City College of San Francisco tuition-free for all San Francisco residents starting in 2017. This budget appropriation is a critical step to fulfill the wishes of the overwhelming majority of San Francisco voters who supported Proposition W on November 8th. Thank you in advance for your support of this important effort to expand access to higher education for all San Franciscans.

City Council,

I support City College and its City Build program. Many members of my union (Operating Engineers Local Union #3) and their families have taken advantage of City Build or taken classes at CCSF. The continued, uninterrupted functioning helps union members and their families as well as countless other workers not fortunate enough to be in a union. These programs and the college must continue to be accessible to all.

I commend and thank the Board of Supervisors for pledging to make City College FREE for San Franciscans. City Council,

I commend and thank the Board of Supervisors for pledging to make City College FREE for San Franciscans. I urge you to support the next crucial step in this process by voting yes on Supervisor Kim's ordinance to appropriate $9 million of Real Property Transfer Tax in FY2016-2017 to fund the Community College Fund and make City College of San Francisco tuition-free for all San Francisco residents starting in 2017. This budget appropriation is a critical step to fulfill the wishes of the overwhelming majority of San Francisco voters who supported Proposition W on November 8th. Thank you in advance for your support of this important effort to expand access to higher education for all San Franciscans.

Subject: Vote today for Prop W Free City College

Please deliver this message to our Board of Supervisors in time for today's vote:

Dear Board of Supervisors,
A vote for Free City College IS a vote for homeless services.

After three years of watching City College maligned by the SF Chronicle, this morning's FRONT PAGE above the fold article, sculpting information that somewhere on the second page finally shows how the school has gone through its own records with a fine tooth comb and scrubbed itself squeaky clean--I KNOW that this article is not about City College but about the Board of Supervisors vote whether to uphold the voter mandate for the Prop W funding of free City College.

BUT the rest of the City hasn't followed the accreditation story (untold by the Chronicle) as thoroughly as I have, and when I see this type of a story all I can think is Ed Lee wants his money and he really doesn't care if he kills the school to get it. The front page headline handed more doubt about the hard work done by the school to the state and the crooked accreditor trying to close the school, all to benefit the Mayor and his budget.

---A recent study found that 1/3 of community college students are either homeless or close to homeless.
---People interviewed recently by NPR who are going to school while homeless are clear that school is their only way forward, out of poverty.
---A graduate from City College's Radiology program ENTERS THE WORKFORCE making $120K a year.
---Those who qualify for fee waivers can attend City College for free already, yes and in order to support the programs that they will attend the school must have enough students and this is not happening yet—in part thanks to the anemic marketing campaign put together by administrator Jeff Hamilton WHO IS INTERVIEWED PROMINENTLY IN THIS HIT PIECE ARTICLE.

PLEASE UPHOLD THE VOTERS MANDATE FOR FREE CITY COLLEGE.

Please do not appease those in this City who would risk the future of City College to balance their own budgets and we're going to need the extra enrollment now because without Free City College, this front-page article will just about kill the school.

Please know, a vote for Free City College IS ALSO a vote for homeless services.

Sincerely,
Christine Hanson
San Francisco Voter

I commend and thank the Board of Supervisors for pledging to make City College FREE for San Franciscans. I urge you to support the next crucial step in this process by voting yes on Supervisor Kim's ordinance to appropriate $9 million of Real Property Transfer Tax in FY2016-2017 to fund the Community College Fund and make City College of San Francisco tuition-free for all San Francisco residents starting in 2017. This budget appropriation is a critical step to fulfill the wishes of the overwhelming majority of San Francisco voters who supported Proposition W on November 8th. Thank you in advance for your support of this important effort to expand access to higher education for all San Franciscans.

Subject: Appropriate $$ for free City College

City Council,

Dear Supervisors:

Pledging to make City College free for all San Franciscans was a wonderful thing. Now, please take the critical next step and approve Supervisor Kim's proposal to appropriate $9 million of real estate transfer tax in FY 2016-17 for the Community College Fund. This appropriation will make City College tuition free beginning in 2017, which is what I and other voters asked for when we voted on Prop W in November.

With thanks in advance,

Subject: Support Free Cities College appropriation

City Council,

The results of last month's election showed that City College remains the single most supported and trusted public entity in San Francisco despite unfair and illegal attacks against it by various governmental and privatizing forces, along with much completely spurious negative publicity coming from highly suspicious media sources. This especially includes the latest ludicrous hit piece in the SF Chronicle regarding CCSF's on line education, considered by many a model of excellence in the State. Shame on the Chronicle for again sinking to publishing false news!

Over 200,000 San Francisco voters (an astonishing number!) recently passed Proposition B for CCSF by a "super majority" of almost 80%. This vote of confidence is unique in San Francisco and indeed in any California city. It should serve as a warning to those who want to not support the college.

Breaking promises made to help City College students which led to the passage of Proposition W will not be tolerated by the voters of San Francisco. They will no doubt view this correctly as an attack on a much beloved Institution.

In the late 80's, CCSF won 3 campaigns against anti- City College proposals attempted by the then Mayor's Office, which also led to the defeat at that time of the incumbent. With current voter numbers still strong for the College this could certainly happen again.

I urge voting yes on Supervisor Kim's ordinance to appropriate $9 million of Real Property Transfer Tax in FY2016-2017 to fund the Community College Fund and make City College of San Francisco tuition-free for all San Francisco residents starting in 2017. This budget appropriation is a critical step to fulfill the wishes of the overwhelming majority of San Francisco voters who supported Proposition W on November 8th. Thank you in advance for your support of this important effort to expand access to higher education for all San Franciscans.

City Council,

I commend and thank the Board of Supervisors for pledging to make City College FREE for San Franciscans. I urge you to support the next crucial step in this process by voting yes on Supervisor Kim's ordinance to appropriate $9 million of Real Property Transfer Tax in FY2016-2017 to fund the Community College Fund and make City College of San Francisco tuition-free for all San Francisco residents starting in 2017. This budget appropriation is a critical step to fulfill the wishes of the overwhelming majority of San Francisco voters who supported Proposition W on November 8th. Thank you in advance for your support of this important effort to expand access to higher education for all San Franciscans.

City College is loved by all and if it weren't for this school, I wouldn't be able to achieve my dreams of striving to be a social worker to give back to the homeless youth in our beloved city, many of which would benefit from free City college. Please follow through and make these underrepresented populations of the city have access to achieving their own dreams of a better life.

I commend and thank the Board of Supervisors for pledging to make City College FREE for San Franciscans and urge you to support the next crucial step in this process by voting yes on the $9 million supplemental.

And we must do more: if CCSF is to be free to San Franciscans as of Fall 2017, CCSF's Chancellor Lamb has been very clear that we need to seed the fund in January with funding for the upcoming year. Students will register in the spring for Fall 2017 classes, and we should not leave them or the college hanging or worried about false promises or about how or whether the City will provide the funds.

Thank you for your continuing support of City College of San Francisco, its students, and its workers and for your support of this important effort to expand access to higher education for all San Franciscans. Let's make City College of San Francisco tuition-free!

Thank you in advance for your support of this important effort to expand access to higher education for all San Franciscans.

I lived in San Francisco from 1988 until 2008 when I moved to Berkeley to buy my first house. While in San Francisco I attended City College as an adult. The dance programs enabled me to rehabilitate from a work injury so I could continue to work and succeed in my profession and support, raise, and educate my child. The music programs enabled me to develop my passion and skills and led me to found a composers collective that continues to operate and put on yearly concerts to this day. The intergenerational and social aspects of City College should also not be underestimated. They provide the cohesion and culture that supports positive mental and physical health for all, throughout the various phases of our lives.

Thank you.
