- (bc) The Tax Collector may impose a penalty upon any person who fails to file a return or returns required under this Article 6 on or before the date prescribed for filing up to $500 for each such failure. The penalty under this provision shall be in addition to any other liability that may be imposed under the provisions of this Article. Filing a return that the Tax Collector determines to be incomplete in any material aspect may be deemed failure to file a return in violation of this Section 6.17-3. Any return required to be filed on a combined basis, and which is not filed on that basis, is an incomplete return. In addition, any return required to report worldwide gross receipts and payroll of a person or combined group under Section 956.2, which does not report gross receipts and payroll on a worldwide basis, is an incomplete return.

- (de) Unless the failure to allow inspection was due to reasonable cause and not willful neglect, any person who fails to provide records pursuant to a written request made by the Tax Collector may not contest the Tax Collector's decision regarding the amount of such person's liability for any taxes, administrative collection costs, interest, penalties, or other costs and charges imposed under the Business and Tax Regulations Code, or oppose the collection of such amount, in any subsequent administrative or judicial proceeding, on the basis of any record the Tax Collector previously requested in writing that such person failed to make available to the Tax Collector on or before the earliest to occur of the following:

- (1) The conclusion of the hearing on a petition for redetermination held pursuant to Sections 6.12-5 or 6.13-2;
- (2) The date the jeopardy determination became final under Section 6.12-5 if such person did not request hearing thereon;

Section 2. The Business and Tax Regulations Code is hereby amended by deleting Section 856.1, to read as follows:

SEC. 856.1. APPLICATION FOR DUPLICATE REGISTRATION CERTIFICATE

(a) A holder of a registration certificate as defined in Section 852.2 shall apply to the Tax Collector for a duplicate certificate if the original certificate has been lost or destroyed. The registration certificate holder shall give an affidavit to the Tax Collector stating that the affiant is the person to whom the Tax Collector has issued the registration certificate and that the registration certificate was lost or destroyed. The registration certificate holder shall pay a fee for the issuance of the duplicate registration certificate in the amount of Twenty-Five Dollars ($25.00).

(b)—If the Tax Collector determines that the affiant has satisfied all of the requirements of this Article, including the payment of all outstanding liabilities owed to the City as enumerated in Section 856 of this Article, the Tax Collector shall issue a duplicate registration certificate. The duplicate registration certificate shall be plainly marked or stamped as a duplicate. The Tax Collector shall enter the fact of the duplicate in the Tax Collector's files. The Tax Collector shall maintain a record of the alleged loss or destruction, whether or not the duplicate certificate is issued.

Section 3. Effective Date. This ordinance shall become effective 30 days after enactment. Enactment occurs when the Mayor signs the ordinance, the Mayor returns the ordinance unsigned or does not sign the ordinance within ten days of receiving it, or the Board of Supervisors overrides the Mayor's veto of the ordinance.

If any section, subsection, sentence, clause, phrase, or word of this ordinance, or any application thereof to any person or circumstance, is held to be invalid or unconstitutional by a decision of a court of competent jurisdiction, such decision shall not affect the validity of the remaining portions or applications of the ordinance. The Board of Supervisors hereby declares that it would have passed this ordinance and each and every section, subsection, sentence, clause, phrase, and word not declared invalid or unconstitutional without regard to whether any other portion of this ordinance or application thereof would be subsequently declared invalid or unconstitutional.

LEGISLATIVE DIGEST

[Business and Tax Regulations Code - Business Registration with Tax Collector]

Ordinance amending the Business and Tax Regulations Code to remove the $100 minimum penalty from one of the penalties for failing to register with the Tax Collector; and to remove the fee and administrative requirements for obtaining a duplicate registration certificate.

Existing Law

Existing law imposes a penalty for failure to obtain a business registration certificate under Business and Tax Regulations Code ("Code") Section 6.17-3. That penalty is in addition to any other liability imposed under Article 6 of the Code (including administrative penalties), and is either $100, or a percentage of the amount owed per Code Section 6.17-1, whichever is greater.

Existing law provides procedures and a $25 fee to obtain a duplicate business registration certificate.

Amendments to Current Law

This ordinance would alter the calculation of the penalty in Code Section 6.17-3 for failure to obtain a business registration certificate so that it is calculated only as the penalty assessed under Code Section 6.17-1. In other words, it would remove the $100 minimum penalty for failure to obtain a business registration certificate from Code Section 6.17-3 such that Code Section 6.17-3 would only impose a penalty for failure to obtain a business registration certificate based on a percentage of the amount owed.

This ordinance would also delete the required procedures and fee to obtain a duplicate business registration certificate.

Background Information

In addition to the penalty for failure to obtain a business registration certificate in Code Section 6.17-3, existing Code Section 6.19-3 permits the Office of the Treasurer and Tax Collector to impose a $100 administrative penalty (through the administrative citation process) for the failure to obtain a business registration certificate. Thus, a taxpayer that failed to obtain a business registration certificate but was not subject to a penalty under Code Section 6.17-1 (because, for example, the taxpayer was not required to pay the business registration fee), could still be liable for the $100 administrative penalty under Code Section 6.19-3.

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

Legislative Objectives

• The proposed ordinance would amend the City's Business and Tax Regulations Code to delete (i) the $100 minimum penalty from one of the penalties for failing to register with the Tax Collector and (ii) the $25 fee for obtaining a duplicate Business Registration Certificate.

Key Points

- San Francisco's Business and Tax Regulations Code requires that every person engaging in business within the City, regardless of whether such person is subject to taxation, must register within 15 days after commencing business within the City and obtain a Business Registration Certificate.
- Currently, a business that fails to register must pay a penalty equal to either $100 or the penalty assessed pursuant to Code Section 6.17-1 (starting at 5 percent of the tax), whichever is greater. Smaller businesses that fail to register are assessed a $100 minimum penalty, while larger businesses are assessed a percentage penalty. The proposed ordinance would delete the $100 minimum penalty but continue to require the percentage penalty for all businesses.
- The majority of businesses subject to the $100 minimum penalty are small businesses that renew their registration late.

Fiscal Impact

- If the proposed business registration penalty structure were implemented in 2015 and taxpayers paid on the same schedule, the Office of the Treasurer and Tax Collector would have collected approximately $1.5 million less in penalties each year, with most of the reduction in penalties benefitting the smallest businesses that come into compliance quickly after missing a business registration deadline.
- The $25 fee to obtain a duplicate Business Registration Certificate has not been enforced and therefore had not generated revenue to the City because the Office of the Treasurer and Tax Collector has determined that the cost of printing a duplicate certificate is minimal as a result of technological upgrades. Given that California law requires counties to collect a fee of not more than 100 percent of the cost of the service, the Office of the Treasurer and Tax Collector opted to forego the fee entirely.

Recommendation

Approval of the proposed ordinance is a policy matter for the Board of Supervisors.

MANDATE STATEMENT

Charter Section 2.105 requires that legislative acts in San Francisco be by ordinance, subject to approval by a majority of the Board of Supervisors.

BACKGROUND

San Francisco's Business and Tax Regulations Code requires that every person engaging in business within the City, regardless of whether such person is subject to taxation, must register within 15 days after commencing business within the City and obtain a Business Registration Certificate. The Business Registration Certificate must be conspicuously displayed at the place of business. The fees for obtaining a Business Registration Certificate range from $75 to $35,000, based on the type of business activities and the annual gross receipts. Such fees were set as part of Proposition E, which was approved by San Francisco's voters on November 6, 2012, and resulted in the establishment of a Gross Receipts Tax and changes to the Payroll Expense Tax, the Business Registration Fee, and the Common Administrative Provisions of the Business and Tax Regulations Code. Business Registration Certificates must be renewed each year by May 31st. Table 1 below outlines the Business Registration Certificate fees based on gross receipts for the calendar year and business activity type.

The City's existing Business and Tax Regulations Code imposes a penalty for failure to obtain a Business Registration Certificate under Section 6.17-3. That penalty is in addition to any other liability imposed under Article 6 of the Code (including administrative penalties), and is either

$100, or a percentage of the amount owed per Code Section 6.17-1<sup>2</sup>, whichever is greater. Thus, a person that failed to obtain a Business Registration Certificate but was not subject to a penalty under Code Section 6.17-1 (because, for example, the person was not required to pay the Business Registration fee), could still be liable for the $100 administrative penalty under Code Section 6.19-3. The existing Code also provides procedures and a $25 fee to obtain a duplicate Business Registration Certificate.

DETAILS OF PROPOSED LEGISLATION

The proposed ordinance would amend the City's Business and Tax Regulations Code to delete (i) the $100 minimum penalty from one of the penalties for failing to register with the Tax Collector and (ii) the $25 fee for obtaining a duplicate business registration certificate.

Currently, a business that fails to register must pay a penalty equal to either $100 or the penalty assessed pursuant to Section 6.17-1 (starting at 5 percent of the tax), whichever is greater. Smaller businesses that fail to register are assessed a $100 minimum penalty, while larger businesses are assessed a percentage penalty.<sup>3</sup> The proposed ordinance would delete the $100 minimum penalty but continue to require the percentage penalty for all businesses.

According to Ms. Amanda Fried, Policy and Legislative Manager at the Office of the Treasurer and Tax Collector, 8,253 businesses were penalized for failing to renew their business registration in 2015, with penalties ranging from $100 to $1750. The majority of businesses subject to the $100 minimum penalty are small businesses that renew their registration late. 84 percent of businesses that registered late in 2015 had gross receipts of less than $250,000 annually, while almost 9 percent of businesses had gross receipts of less than $100,000 annually. According to Ms. Fried, the proposed ordinance aims to facilitate the overall tax compliance for small businesses. Under the proposed ordinance, businesses of all sizes would be subject to the same penalty structure, which starts at 5 percent of the tax amount due per month late, and caps out at 40 percent of the tax amount due, as shown in Table 2 below.

&lt;sup>2</sup> Section 6.17-1 states that any person who fails to pay any tax to the City, or any operator or other person who fails to collect and remit any third-party taxes shall pay a penalty of 5 percent of the tax, if the failure is for not more than 1 month after the tax became delinquent, plus an additional 5 percent for each following month or fraction of a month during which such failure continues, up to 20 percent in the aggregate, until the date of payment. Any taxes remaining unpaid for a period of 90 days after notification that the tax is delinquent shall be subject to an additional penalty of 20 percent of the tax or amount of the tax. Therefore, the total penalty is up to 40 percent of the business registration fee. Unpaid taxes and penalties shall also accrue interest at the rate of 1 percent per month, or fraction of a month, from the date the taxes become delinquent through the date the taxpayer or operator pays the delinquent taxes, penalties, interest and fees accrued to the date of payment in full.

<sup>3</sup> For example, a business that was required to pay a business registration fee of $200 (see Table 1 above) and failed to register would pay the $100 minimum penalty which is greater than the percentage penalty of 5 percent or $10 per month up to 40 percent or $80. A larger business that was required to pay a business registration fee of $3,750 and failed to register would be assessed the percentage penalty of 5 percent or $187 per month up to 40 percent or $1500.

Table 2: Business Registration Penalty Structure under the Proposed Ordinance

	1 month	2 months	3 months	4 months	5 months	6 months
Penalty	5%	10%	15%	40%	40%	40%
Interest	1%	2%	3%	4%	5%	6%
Administrative Fee	$55.00	$55.00	$55.00	$55.00	$55.00	$55.00

Removal of $100 Minimum Business Registration Certificate Penalty for Failing to Register a Business with the Tax Collector

According to Ms. Fried, if the proposed business registration penalty structure were implemented in 2015 and taxpayers paid on the same schedule, the Office of the Treasurer and Tax Collector would have collected approximately $1.5 million less annually in penalties, with most of the reduction in penalties benefitting the smallest businesses that come into compliance quickly after missing a business registration deadline.

Removal of $25 Fee for Not Obtaining a Duplicate Business Registration Certificate

According to Ms. Fried, the $25 fee to obtain a duplicate Business Registration Certificate has not been enforced and therefore had not generated revenue to the City because the Office of the Treasurer and Tax Collector has determined that the cost of printing a duplicate certificate is minimal as a result of technological upgrades. Given that California law requires counties to collect a fee of not more than 100 percent of the cost of the service, the Office of the Treasurer and Tax Collector opted to forego the fee entirely.
