Resolution urging the Mayor and the Department of Human Resources to work with the public sector unions in San Francisco to ensure their health and success; and supporting the freedom of city employees to participate in strong unions post a United States Supreme Court decision on Janus v. AFSCME.

[Supporting Strong Public Sector Unions Post a Janus v. AFSCME Supreme Court Decision]

WHEREAS. All families should have the means to thrive in safe and healthy communities; and

WHEREAS. The working people who make our city run deserve good jobs that can support families: and

WHEREAS, Over the last forty years, working people have become more productive than ever, yet real wages have declined and CEOs make more than ever before; i.e., 347 times more than the average person in 2016; and

WHEREAS, Being able to come together in unions gives people – particularly women and people of color – a powerful voice in speaking up for themselves, their families, and their communities and ensures they are treated with dignity and respect at work; and

WHEREAS, When people stick together in unions, they gain the power in numbers to raise wages and improve benefits like health care for themselves, their families, and all of our communities; and

WHEREAS. People working collectively together in unions have won victories like the 40-hour work week, overtime pay, and health and safety standards, as well as advanced policies especially important to women like paid leave, earned sick time, and reducing the gender pay gap; and

WHEREAS, When people can negotiate together for strong contracts, higher wages, and safer, dignified working conditions, all of us benefit, our communities are stronger, and our entire economy is made more fair; and

WHEREAS, The United States Supreme Court is considering the case *Janus v.*AFSCME Council 31, which could restrict unions from requiring dues from non-member employees who benefit from collective bargaining, thereby weakening the unions' power to effectively negotiate on behalf of all public sector workers - such as nurses, teachers, and firefighters; and

WHEREAS, An unfavorable decision by United States Supreme Court may deny public sector workers the freedom to access strong unions that make our communities safe, more equitable, and strong; and

WHEREAS, In states where public union rights have come under attack, we have seen different outcomes – in Wisconsin, for example, union membership has fallen 38% after the state passed a law curtailing collective bargaining in 2011, but in other states such as Ohio and New Hampshire, unions have been able to survive similar attacks through proactive strategies; and

WHEREAS, The late Mayor Ed Lee, meeting with statewide and local labor leaders before his passing, committed his administration to doing all it could to encourage city employees to continue membership in their unions; and

WHEREAS, the City of San Francisco relies on those who work in public service to provide health care, educate our children, put out fires, fix our potholes, drive our buses, pick up our trash, and more; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, That the City and County of San Francisco supports the freedom of all city employees to exercise their rights to a voice and dignity on the job through joining together in strong unions; and, be it

FURTHER RESOLVED, That the Board of Supervisors urges the Mayor and the Department of Human Resources to work with the public sector unions in San Francisco to ensure their health and success post a Janus v. AFSCME Supreme Court case decision by engaging in good faith discussions around implementing a "gold card" membership such as that which is being proposed by the San Francisco Labor Council's Public Employee Committee, providing annual membership commitments and adequate release time for rank and file union leaders to explain the implications of a negative Janus decision and to encourage continued union membership to their city employee colleagues.
