7 WHEREAS, Many local and state jurisdictions throughout the United States have 8 initiated long-overdue updates to tax codes that reflect the financial impacts of Transportation
9 Network Companies (TNCs) on local and regional public infrastructure, as TNC services 10 reduce public transit ridership and revenue while inducing demand for vehicles on city streets, 11 causing congestion, collisions and pedestrian safety impacts; and

12 WHEREAS, Chicago has imposed a $0.15 on Uber, Lyft and other TNC services in 13 order to pay for track, signal and electrical upgrades to ensure transit safety and efficiency; 14 and

15 WHEREAS, Portland has imposed a $0.50 fee per TNC trip which generates over 16 $8 million per year for city traffic police and parking enforcement efforts; and

17 WHEREAS, Philadelphia is generating $2.6 million a year for the city's public schools
18 and $1.5 million a year for additional local traffic police and parking enforcement through a 19 1.4% tax on Transportation Network Companies; and

20 WHEREAS, New York City has proposed $2 to $5 per TNC trip in order to generate up 21 to $605 million a year for the city's failing subway system; and

22 WHEREAS, Massachusetts has begun collecting $0.20 per TNC trip statewide to 23 generate revenue for a State Transportation Fund to improve roads and bridges and build out 24 an educational and job training program specifically designed to help the taxi industry adapt to 25 new technologies; and

1 WHEREAS, New York State has assessed a 4% tax on ride-hail trips that originate 2 outside of New York City elsewhere in the state, which is expected to raise $24 million a year, 3 for local bus and commuter rail services; and

4 WHEREAS, San Francisco seeks to pass a revenue measure that would fund deferred
5 maintenance of public transit vehicles and facilities, pedestrian safety and Vision Zero 6 improvements and bolster police enforcement of double-parking and unsafe driving; and

7 WHEREAS, The State of California Public Utilities Commission recently voted to 8 reduce its 0.33% fee of gross revenues from TNCs to 0.25%, but continues to refuse to share 9 of any said revenues with local governments to ameliorate the impacts of TNCs; and

10 WHEREAS, The San Francisco Transportation Task Force 2045, made up of a broad 11 cross-section of San Francisco residents, business, labor and transit representatives acting as 12 advisors to the Mayor and Board of Supervisors, including SFMTA Director Ed Reiskin and
