

REVISED LEGISLATIVE DIGEST
(Amended in Committee - September 12, 2018)

[Police Code - Access to Reproductive Health Care Facilities]

Ordinance amending the Police Code to require law enforcement officials to provide a verbal warning, rather than having to provide a written warning, prior to issuing a dispersal order to ensure access to a reproductive health care facility.

Existing Law

Currently, officers are required to provide a written warning prior to issuing a dispersal order.

Amendments to Current Law

This amendment would allow officers to provide a verbal warning prior to issuing a dispersal order.
