RE: Request to Assign Resolution to Rules Committee

Dear President Cohen,

Due to the time-sensitive nature of Kaiser Permanente's intended outsourcing and layoffs of the 16 messenger drivers, parking attendants, a licensed vocational nurse, and a department secretary, effective October 5, 2018; I would like to ensure that my resolution on this matter returns to the Board of Supervisors by September 25, 2018.

Pursuant Board Rule 2.10 and in reference to the Presidential Memo issued on August 10, 2018 regarding Committee Assignments, I am respectfully requesting that the Resolution urging the protection of Kaiser Permanente's workers be assigned to the Rules Committee so that it can be heard on September 19, 2018 to meet the urgent timeline for the Board to act expediently.

I conferred with Rules Chair, Supervisor Safai, who has agreed to schedule the item once it is referred to the Committee.

Thank you for your support and consideration.

Sincerely,

District 7 Supervisor
