8. We at Tank18, produce our own wines and brew our own beer. We are uniquely SF and only sold in SF. We provide a unique experience and product to the San Francisco market by providing our amazing wines and beer with our meal service. There is no other location in the city that provides this type of service with their in-house produced wine AND beers.

Our customers span the diverse swath of what makes SF an amazing place to live. Providing a haven for all citizens of SF, a typical evening at Tank18 consists of LGBT, people of all colors, blue collar and white collar, and many age groups all mixing together enjoying themselves. It's a true unique mixing pot that is rare in this amazing city going through its transformation.

Many of our customers have requested to be able to continue their experience at home by buying our wines and beers to take home with them. . There is no other location in the city that can offer this unique offering. We fell that buy offering this fun and uniquely SF experience we enrich the lifestyle and entertainment options that make SF special. In a market where many small business are going out of business and being taken over by chains we stand out.

In our neighbor hood, West SOMA, you would be hard pressed to find quality wine and beer offerings. There are no major high-end grocery stores with quality wines. All the bodegas in our area sell mass-produced low quality wines, the neighbors reluctantly purchase.

Our previous operations at this site was covered under a Winery license which allowed for the sale of wine for off premise consumption, we simply trying to get back to parity with our past offerings so we can, again offer our neighbors the wines they love to drink at home.

8. We at Tank18, produce our own wines and brew our own beer. We are uniquely SF and only sold in SF. We provide a unique experience and product to the San Francisco market by providing our amazing wines and beer with our meal service. There is no other location in the city that provides this type of service with their in-house produced wine AND beers.

Our customers span the diverse swath of what makes SF an amazing place to live. Providing a haven for all citizens of SF, a typical evening at Tank18 consists of LGBT, people of all colors, blue collar and white collar, and many age groups all mixing together enjoying themselves. It's a true unique mixing pot that is rare in this amazing city going through its transformation.

Many of our customers have requested to be able to continue their experience at home by buying our wines and beers to take home with them. . There is no other location in the city that can offer this unique offering. We feel that by offering this fun and uniquely SF experience we enrich the lifestyle and entertainment options that make SF special. In a market where many small business are going out of business and being taken over by chains we stand out.

In our neighbor hood, West SOMA, you would be hard pressed to find quality wine and beer offerings. There are no major high-end grocery stores with quality wines. All the bodegas in our area sell mass-produced low quality wines, the neighbors reluctantly purchase.

Our previous operations at this site was covered under a Winery license which allowed for the sale of wine for off premise consumption, we simply trying to get back to parity with our past offerings so we can, again offer our neighbors the wines they love to drink at home.
