relocate elephants Lulu and Tinkerbelle to a credible sanctuary and to make the move in compliance with applicable state and federal regulations, and to immediately bring into the zoo representatives of the sanctuary to begin the transfer process USDA regulations and the American Zoo and Aquarium Association's Elephant Species Survival Plan as soon as reasonably possible.  WHEREAS, The San Francisco Zoo houses one African and one Asian elephants; and WHEREAS, On March 6, 2004, Calle, a 37-year-old female Asian elephant at the Sar Francisco Zoo was euthanized due to a worsening condition of degenerative joint disease and possible relapse of tuberculosis; and,  WHEREAS, On April 22, 2004, Maybelle, one of two African elephants at the Sar Francisco Zoo and the third oldest elephant in the country, died of cardiovascular failure; and, WHEREAS, On April 8, 2004, the San Francisco Commission of Animal Control and Welfare voted unanimously to recommend that the Board of Supervisors immediately act to transfer the remaining elephants at the Zoo to a sanctuary; and,  WHEREAS, Due to the current situation of lone elephants now inhabiting older exhibits it is in the remaining elephants' best interests to relocate them to a credible sanctuary where they will have elephant companionship; and.  WHEREAS. The Performing Animal Welfare Society operates a sanctuary for elephants in San Andreas, California, less than three hours away from San Francisco, tha Resolution urging the San Francisco Zoological Society to transfer ownership of and relocate elephants Lulu and Tinkerbelle to a credible sanctuary and to make the move in compliance with applicable state and federal regulations, and to immediately bring into the zoo representatives of the sanctuary to begin the transfer process USDA regulations and the American Zoo and Aquarium Association's Elephant Species Survival Plan as soon as reasonably possible.  WHEREAS, The San Francisco Zoo houses one African and one Asian elephants; and WHEREAS, On March 6, 2004, Calle, a 37-year-old female Asian elephant at the Sar Francisco Zoo was euthanized due to a worsening condition of degenerative joint disease and possible relapse of tuberculosis; and,  WHEREAS, On April 22, 2004, Maybelle, one of two African elephants at the Sar Francisco Zoo and the third oldest elephant in the country, died of cardiovascular failure; and,  WHEREAS, On April 8, 2004, the San Francisco Commission of Animal Control and Welfare voted unanimously to recommend that the Board of Supervisors immediately act to transfer the remaining elephants at the Zoo to a sanctuary; and,  WHEREAS, Due to the current situation of lone elephants now inhabiting older exhibits it is in the remaining elephants' best interests to relocate them to a credible sanctuary where they will have elephant companionship; and.  WHEREAS. The Performing Animal Welfare Society operates a sanctuary for elephants in San Andreas, California, less than three hours away from San Francisco, tha offers 100 acres of naturalistic habitat for elephants and has expertise in treating sick and	1	[Urging the Transfer and Relocation of the Elephants at the San Francisco Zoo.]
relocate elephants Lulu and Tinkerbelle to a credible sanctuary and to make the move in compliance with applicable state and federal regulations, and to immediately bring into the zoo representatives of the sanctuary to begin the transfer process USDA regulations and the American Zoo and Aquarium Association's Elephant Species Survival Plan as soon as reasonably possible.  WHEREAS, The San Francisco Zoo houses one African and one Asian elephants; and WHEREAS, On March 6, 2004, Calle, a 37-year-old female Asian elephant at the Sar Francisco Zoo was euthanized due to a worsening condition of degenerative joint disease and possible relapse of tuberculosis; and,  WHEREAS, On April 22, 2004, Maybelle, one of two African elephants at the Sar Francisco Zoo and the third oldest elephant in the country, died of cardiovascular failure; and, WHEREAS, On April 8, 2004, the San Francisco Commission of Animal Control and Welfare voted unanimously to recommend that the Board of Supervisors immediately act to transfer the remaining elephants at the Zoo to a sanctuary; and,  WHEREAS, Due to the current situation of lone elephants now inhabiting older exhibits it is in the remaining elephants' best interests to relocate them to a credible sanctuary where they will have elephant companionship; and.  WHEREAS. The Performing Animal Welfare Society operates a sanctuary for elephants in San Andreas, California, less than three hours away from San Francisco, that offers 100 acres of naturalistic habitat for elephants and has expertise in treating sick and	2
in compliance with applicable state and federal regulations, and to immediately bring into the zoo representatives of the sanctuary to begin the transfer process USDA regulations and the American Zoo and Aquarium Association's Elephant Species Survival Plan as soon as reasonably possible.  WHEREAS, The San Francisco Zoo houses one African and one Asian elephants; and WHEREAS, On March 6, 2004, Calle, a 37-year-old female Asian elephant at the Sar Francisco Zoo was euthanized due to a worsening condition of degenerative joint disease and possible relapse of tuberculosis; and,  WHEREAS, On April 22, 2004, Maybelle, one of two African elephants at the Sar Francisco Zoo and the third oldest elephant in the country, died of cardiovascular failure; and, WHEREAS, On April 8, 2004, the San Francisco Commission of Animal Control and Welfare voted unanimously to recommend that the Board of Supervisors immediately act to transfer the remaining elephants at the Zoo to a sanctuary; and,  WHEREAS, Due to the current situation of lone elephants now inhabiting older exhibits it is in the remaining elephants' best interests to relocate them to a credible sanctuary where they will have elephant companionship; and,  WHEREAS. The Performing Animal Welfare Society operates a sanctuary for elephants in San Andreas. California, less than three hours away from San Francisco, that offers 100 acres of naturalistic habitat for elephants and has expertise in treating sick and	3	Resolution urging the San Francisco Zoological Society to transfer ownership of and into the zoo representatives of the sanctuary to begin the transfer process USDA regulations and the American Zoo and Aquarium Association's Elephant Species Survival Plan as soon as reasonably possible.  WHEREAS, The San Francisco Zoo houses one African and one Asian elephants; and WHEREAS, On March 6, 2004, Calle, a 37-year-old female Asian elephant at the Sar Francisco Zoo was euthanized due to a worsening condition of degenerative joint disease and possible relapse of tuberculosis; and,  WHEREAS, On April 22, 2004, Maybelle, one of two African elephants at the Sar Francisco Zoo and the third oldest elephant in the country, died of cardiovascular failure; and,  WHEREAS, On April 8, 2004, the San Francisco Commission of Animal Control and Welfare voted unanimously to recommend that the Board of Supervisors immediately act to transfer the remaining elephants at the Zoo to a sanctuary; and,  WHEREAS, Due to the current situation of lone elephants now inhabiting older exhibits it is in the remaining elephants' best interests to relocate them to a credible sanctuary where they will have elephant companionship; and.  WHEREAS. The Performing Animal Welfare Society operates a sanctuary for elephants in San Andreas, California, less than three hours away from San Francisco, that offers 100 acres of naturalistic habitat for elephants and has expertise in treating sick and	4	relocate elephants Lulu and Tinkerbelle to a credible sanctuary and to make the move regulations and the American Zoo and Aquarium Association's Elephant Species Survival Plan as soon as reasonably possible.  WHEREAS, The San Francisco Zoo houses one African and one Asian elephants; and WHEREAS, On March 6, 2004, Calle, a 37-year-old female Asian elephant at the Sar Francisco Zoo was euthanized due to a worsening condition of degenerative joint disease and possible relapse of tuberculosis; and,  WHEREAS, On April 22, 2004, Maybelle, one of two African elephants at the Sar Francisco Zoo and the third oldest elephant in the country, died of cardiovascular failure; and, WHEREAS, On April 8, 2004, the San Francisco Commission of Animal Control and Welfare voted unanimously to recommend that the Board of Supervisors immediately act to transfer the remaining elephants at the Zoo to a sanctuary; and, WHEREAS, Due to the current situation of lone elephants now inhabiting older exhibits it is in the remaining elephants' best interests to relocate them to a credible sanctuary where they will have elephant companionship; and.  WHEREAS. The Performing Animal Welfare Society operates a sanctuary for elephants in San Andreas, California, less than three hours away from San Francisco, tha offers 100 acres of naturalistic habitat for elephants and has expertise in treating sick and	5	in compliance with applicable state and federal regulations, and to immediately bring
WHEREAS, The San Francisco Zoo houses one African and one Asian elephants; and WHEREAS, On March 6, 2004, Calle, a 37-year-old female Asian elephant at the San Francisco Zoo was euthanized due to a worsening condition of degenerative joint disease and possible relapse of tuberculosis; and,  WHEREAS, On April 22, 2004, Maybelle, one of two African elephants at the San Francisco Zoo and the third oldest elephant in the country, died of cardiovascular failure; and,  WHEREAS, On April 8, 2004, the San Francisco Commission of Animal Control and Welfare voted unanimously to recommend that the Board of Supervisors immediately act to transfer the remaining elephants at the Zoo to a sanctuary; and,  WHEREAS, Due to the current situation of lone elephants now inhabiting older exhibits it is in the remaining elephants' best interests to relocate them to a credible sanctuary where they will have elephant companionship; and.  WHEREAS. The Performing Animal Welfare Society operates a sanctuary for elephants in San Andreas, California, less than three hours away from San Francisco, that offers 100 acres of naturalistic habitat for elephants and has expertise in treating sick and	6	into the zoo representatives of the sanctuary to begin the transfer process USDA
WHEREAS, The San Francisco Zoo houses one African and one Asian elephants; and WHEREAS, On March 6, 2004, Calle, a 37-year-old female Asian elephant at the San Francisco Zoo was euthanized due to a worsening condition of degenerative joint disease and possible relapse of tuberculosis; and,  WHEREAS, On April 22, 2004, Maybelle, one of two African elephants at the San Francisco Zoo and the third oldest elephant in the country, died of cardiovascular failure; and,  WHEREAS, On April 8, 2004, the San Francisco Commission of Animal Control and Welfare voted unanimously to recommend that the Board of Supervisors immediately act to transfer the remaining elephants at the Zoo to a sanctuary; and,  WHEREAS, Due to the current situation of lone elephants now inhabiting older exhibits it is in the remaining elephants' best interests to relocate them to a credible sanctuary where they will have elephant companionship; and.  WHEREAS, The Performing Animal Welfare Society operates a sanctuary for elephants in San Andreas, California, less than three hours away from San Francisco, that offers 100 acres of naturalistic habitat for elephants and has expertise in treating sick and	7	regulations and the American Zoo and Aquarium Association's Elephant Species
WHEREAS, The San Francisco Zoo houses one African and one Asian elephants; and WHEREAS, On March 6, 2004, Calle, a 37-year-old female Asian elephant at the San Francisco Zoo was euthanized due to a worsening condition of degenerative joint disease and possible relapse of tuberculosis; and,  WHEREAS, On April 22, 2004, Maybelle, one of two African elephants at the San Francisco Zoo and the third oldest elephant in the country, died of cardiovascular failure; and, WHEREAS, On April 8, 2004, the San Francisco Commission of Animal Control and Welfare voted unanimously to recommend that the Board of Supervisors immediately act to transfer the remaining elephants at the Zoo to a sanctuary; and,  WHEREAS, Due to the current situation of lone elephants now inhabiting older exhibits it is in the remaining elephants' best interests to relocate them to a credible sanctuary where they will have elephant companionship; and.  WHEREAS, The Performing Animal Welfare Society operates a sanctuary for elephants in San Andreas, California, less than three hours away from San Francisco, that offers 100 acres of naturalistic habitat for elephants and has expertise in treating sick and	8	Survival Plan as soon as reasonably possible .
WHEREAS, On March 6, 2004, Calle, a 37-year-old female Asian elephant at the Sar Francisco Zoo was euthanized due to a worsening condition of degenerative joint disease and possible relapse of tuberculosis; and,  WHEREAS, On April 22, 2004, Maybelle, one of two African elephants at the Sar Francisco Zoo and the third oldest elephant in the country, died of cardiovascular failure; and, WHEREAS, On April 8, 2004, the San Francisco Commission of Animal Control and Welfare voted unanimously to recommend that the Board of Supervisors immediately act to transfer the remaining elephants at the Zoo to a sanctuary; and,  WHEREAS, Due to the current situation of lone elephants now inhabiting older exhibits it is in the remaining elephants' best interests to relocate them to a credible sanctuary where they will have elephant companionship; and.  WHEREAS, The Performing Animal Welfare Society operates a sanctuary for elephants in San Andreas, California, less than three hours away from San Francisco, that offers 100 acres of naturalistic habitat for elephants and has expertise in treating sick and	9
Francisco Zoo was euthanized due to a worsening condition of degenerative joint disease and possible relapse of tuberculosis; and,  WHEREAS, On April 22, 2004, Maybelle, one of two African elephants at the Sar Francisco Zoo and the third oldest elephant in the country, died of cardiovascular failure; and,  WHEREAS, On April 8, 2004, the San Francisco Commission of Animal Control and Welfare voted unanimously to recommend that the Board of Supervisors immediately act to transfer the remaining elephants at the Zoo to a sanctuary; and,  WHEREAS, Due to the current situation of lone elephants now inhabiting older exhibits it is in the remaining elephants' best interests to relocate them to a credible sanctuary where they will have elephant companionship; and.  WHEREAS. The Performing Animal Welfare Society operates a sanctuary for elephants in San Andreas, California, less than three hours away from San Francisco, that offers 100 acres of naturalistic habitat for elephants and has expertise in treating sick and	10	WHEREAS, The San Francisco Zoo houses one African and one Asian elephants; and possible relapse of tuberculosis; and,  WHEREAS, On April 22, 2004, Maybelle, one of two African elephants at the Sar  Francisco Zoo and the third oldest elephant in the country, died of cardiovascular failure; and,  WHEREAS, On April 8, 2004, the San Francisco Commission of Animal Control and  Welfare voted unanimously to recommend that the Board of Supervisors immediately act to  transfer the remaining elephants at the Zoo to a sanctuary; and,  WHEREAS, Due to the current situation of lone elephants now inhabiting older exhibits  it is in the remaining elephants' best interests to relocate them to a credible sanctuary where  they will have elephant companionship; and,  WHEREAS. The Performing Animal Welfare Society operates a sanctuary for  elephants in San Andreas, California, less than three hours away from San Francisco, that  offers 100 acres of naturalistic habitat for elephants and has expertise in treating sick and	11	WHEREAS, On March 6, 2004, Calle, a 37-year-old female Asian elephant at the Sar
WHEREAS, On April 22, 2004, Maybelle, one of two African elephants at the Sar Francisco Zoo and the third oldest elephant in the country, died of cardiovascular failure; and, WHEREAS, On April 8, 2004, the San Francisco Commission of Animal Control and Welfare voted unanimously to recommend that the Board of Supervisors immediately act to transfer the remaining elephants at the Zoo to a sanctuary; and, WHEREAS, Due to the current situation of lone elephants now inhabiting older exhibits it is in the remaining elephants' best interests to relocate them to a credible sanctuary where they will have elephant companionship; and.  WHEREAS, The Performing Animal Welfare Society operates a sanctuary fo elephants in San Andreas, California, less than three hours away from San Francisco, that offers 100 acres of naturalistic habitat for elephants and has expertise in treating sick and	12	Francisco Zoo was euthanized due to a worsening condition of degenerative joint disease and
Francisco Zoo and the third oldest elephant in the country, died of cardiovascular failure; and, WHEREAS, On April 8, 2004, the San Francisco Commission of Animal Control and Welfare voted unanimously to recommend that the Board of Supervisors immediately act to transfer the remaining elephants at the Zoo to a sanctuary; and, WHEREAS, Due to the current situation of lone elephants now inhabiting older exhibits it is in the remaining elephants' best interests to relocate them to a credible sanctuary where they will have elephant companionship; and.  WHEREAS, The Performing Animal Welfare Society operates a sanctuary fo elephants in San Andreas, California, less than three hours away from San Francisco, that offers 100 acres of naturalistic habitat for elephants and has expertise in treating sick and	13	possible relapse of tuberculosis; and,
WHEREAS, On April 8, 2004, the San Francisco Commission of Animal Control and Welfare voted unanimously to recommend that the Board of Supervisors immediately act to transfer the remaining elephants at the Zoo to a sanctuary; and,  WHEREAS, Due to the current situation of lone elephants now inhabiting older exhibits it is in the remaining elephants' best interests to relocate them to a credible sanctuary where they will have elephant companionship; and.  WHEREAS, The Performing Animal Welfare Society operates a sanctuary fo elephants in San Andreas, California, less than three hours away from San Francisco, that offers 100 acres of naturalistic habitat for elephants and has expertise in treating sick and	14	WHEREAS, On April 22, 2004, Maybelle, one of two African elephants at the Sar Welfare voted unanimously to recommend that the Board of Supervisors immediately act to transfer the remaining elephants at the Zoo to a sanctuary; and,  WHEREAS, Due to the current situation of lone elephants now inhabiting older exhibits it is in the remaining elephants' best interests to relocate them to a credible sanctuary where they will have elephant companionship; and.  WHEREAS, The Performing Animal Welfare Society operates a sanctuary for elephants in San Andreas, California, less than three hours away from San Francisco, that offers 100 acres of naturalistic habitat for elephants and has expertise in treating sick and	15	Francisco Zoo and the third oldest elephant in the country, died of cardiovascular failure; and, transfer the remaining elephants at the Zoo to a sanctuary; and,  WHEREAS, Due to the current situation of lone elephants now inhabiting older exhibits  it is in the remaining elephants' best interests to relocate them to a credible sanctuary where they will have elephant companionship; and,  WHEREAS, The Performing Animal Welfare Society operates a sanctuary for elephants in San Andreas, California, less than three hours away from San Francisco, that offers 100 acres of naturalistic habitat for elephants and has expertise in treating sick and	16	WHEREAS, On April 8, 2004, the San Francisco Commission of Animal Control and
WHEREAS, Due to the current situation of lone elephants now inhabiting older exhibits it is in the remaining elephants' best interests to relocate them to a credible sanctuary where they will have elephant companionship; and.  WHEREAS, The Performing Animal Welfare Society operates a sanctuary for elephants in San Andreas, California, less than three hours away from San Francisco, that offers 100 acres of naturalistic habitat for elephants and has expertise in treating sick and	17	Welfare voted unanimously to recommend that the Board of Supervisors immediately act to it is in the remaining elephants' best interests to relocate them to a credible sanctuary where they will have elephant companionship; and,  WHEREAS, The Performing Animal Welfare Society operates a sanctuary fo elephants in San Andreas, California, less than three hours away from San Francisco, that offers 100 acres of naturalistic habitat for elephants and has expertise in treating sick and	18	transfer the remaining elephants at the Zoo to a sanctuary; and, they will have elephant companionship; and. WHEREAS, The Performing Animal Welfare Society operates a sanctuary fo  elephants in San Andreas, California, less than three hours away from San Francisco, that  offers 100 acres of naturalistic habitat for elephants and has expertise in treating sick and	19	WHEREAS, Due to the current situation of lone elephants now inhabiting older exhibits
22 WHEREAS, The Performing Animal Welfare Society operates a sanctuary fo 23 elephants in San Andreas, California, less than three hours away from San Francisco, tha 24 offers 100 acres of naturalistic habitat for elephants and has expertise in treating sick and	20	it is in the remaining elephants' best interests to relocate them to a credible sanctuary where elephants in San Andreas, California, less than three hours away from San Francisco, that  offers 100 acres of naturalistic habitat for elephants and has expertise in treating sick and	21	they will have elephant companionship; and,
offers 100 acres of naturalistic habitat for elephants and has expertise in treating sick and	22	WHEREAS, The Performing Animal Welfare Society operates a sanctuary fo
	23	elephants in San Andreas, California, less than three hours away from San Francisco, that
25 debilitated elephants; and,	24	offers 100 acres of naturalistic habitat for elephants and has expertise in treating sick and
	25	debilitated elephants; and,

1	WHEREAS, The Performing Animal Welfare Society sanctuary far exceeds federal
2	requirements and zoo-industry standards for housing elephants and has offered to accept the
3	San Francisco Zoo elephants at no cost to the City or Zoo; and
4	WHEREAS, The City of San Francisco owns the zoo and maintains legal "ownership"
5	of the animals housed therein and contracts with the San Francisco Zoological Society to
6	operate the zoo for the City; now, therefore, be it
7	RESOLVED, That the Board of Supervisors of the City and County of San Francisco
8	urges directs the San Francisco Zoological Society to transfer ownership of and relocate
9	elephants Lulu and Tinkerbelle to a credible sanctuary the Performing Animal Welfare Society
10	sanctuary, and to make the move in compliance with USDA applicable state and federal
11	regulations, and to immediately bring in representatives of the sanctuary to begin the transfer
12	process and the American Zoo and Aquarium Association's Elephant Species Survival Plan
13	as soon as reasonably possible.
14
15
16
17
18
19
20
21
22
23
24
25	