15 Section 1. Findings.

16 (a) On October 18, 2005, the President signed the Department of Homeland Security 17 Appropriations Act of 2006 which provided approximately $2.5 billion dollars in funding 18 needed to ensure the safety and security of our nation.

19 (b) The 2006 Homeland Security Grant Program continues to provide funding for 20 planning, organization, equipment, training, exercises, and management and administration to 21 prevent, protect against, respond to, and recover from terrorist attacks major disasters, and 22 other emergencies.

23 (c) In recognition of the fact that funds must be expended wisely, subgrantees now 24 must utilize a risk and need-based allocation process as well as support the National 25 Preparedness Goal and National Priorities.

(d) For the purpose of distributing of state homeland security funds, the United States

1 Department of Homeland Security, the grant was divided into three programs: State 2 Homeland Security Program (SHSP), Law Enforcement Terrorism Prevention Program, and 3 Metropolitan Medical Response System.

4 (e) The City and County of San Francisco has participated in the federal homeland 5 security programs since their inception and deems participation in these programs as vital to 6 the continued well being of its citizens.
