Pursuant to Charter, Section 4.101(a)(1), please state how your qualifications represent the communities of interest, neighborhoods, and the diversity in ethnicity, race, age, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, types of disabilities, and any other relevant demographic qualities of the City and County of San Francisco:

I am a native of San Francisco and of Ingleside and Lakeview neighborhoods. I am a first-generation woman of an Indian Muslim family. I also attended all schools nearby including Sunnyside Elementary, Aptos Middle School and Lick Wilmerding High School. I also attend City College on Phelan Avenue (now Frida Kahlo Way).

I have education policy experience and because I am an advocate for the immigrant community development of low income families, rent control and shelters for the homeless especially in emergencies and especially for children. I am also a huge advocate of ensuring kids are fed while in school so that they focus in class as well as reaching out to students who face homelessness. I believe that students facing social and economic inequities such as myself should also have access to above adequate facilities in public schools and in their community such as low cost and accessible extra curricular activities. Having a seat on this board is important for me who is of immigrant Muslim family as well as personally taking care of young kids especially those of immigrant, first generation, and LGBTQ families. I believe in advocating the quality of life and civic participation of all immigrants in San Francisco.

Business and/or professional experience:

I have worked as a public school teacher for eighth grade and for elementary levels in San Francisco at James Lick Middle and in Washington D.C. at C.W. Harris Elementary. There I worked with diverse social and low income students, often spending many hours engaging students after school with home work and engaging guardians to become active with their child.

My education background includes a Masters in Education from University of San Francisco, Masters in Public Policy from Georgetown University and a Juris Doctorate from U.C. Hastings College of the Law. I wrote several papers on early education, homelessness, truancy prevention, Native American sovereignty, value of social media, and adolescence in the criminal justice system.

Most importantly I have worked as an environmental planner with the California Department of Transportation and have experience to advance plans for public improvement projects, tracking project development responsibilities and timelines, collaborating with various agencies to prioritize community improvement projects and help seek funding for high priority projects. I have also worked as a campaign manager for local and senate level campaigns and policy advisor for education, housing and homelessness.

Both my father and mother were immigrant small business owners, who have retired and I am primarily their caregiver. I am also the immediate biological aunt of my 3.5 year old niece whom I primarily nanny regularly.

Civic Activities:

As a former school teacher, I engaged youth in providing after school time in working on science homework and forming the Science Club for those youth with an interest in science. But have also worked with youth who have interest in the arts and music and connected those students with various teachers I knew. I have also taught outdoor education to diverse social and low income youth for nearly seven summers and have been a participant of Aim High Summer Program myself.

I am active participant in volunteering to feed people at St. Anthony's, as well as building community through hosting comedy events at local bars and venues. I also have tutored students with the non-profit Aim High Summer School program and with students at the Tenderloin After School Program through the Tenderloin Neighborhood Development Corporation.

Awards: Chrissy Field Community Heroes Award and Ameri-Corps Teacher Award.

Furthermore, I volunteer my time in getting groceries to various seniors that are living in my neighborhood.

The only reason I am unable to reside in San Francisco is because I can't afford to, but otherwise this is my home. I am a product of San Francisco. I am an immigrant educated at Garfield and Maraloma and St. Michaels, I am a product of MLK Jr. Middle school, I am a product of the Western Addition/Fillmore/Japan Town/ and Pacific Heights. This is my home. Being a product of the culture of San Francisco and being an immigrant, retaining the culture and developing the agenda of a progressive San Francisco is important to me. In my capacity as an attorney I work daily with the immigrant community. The ensurance of the wellbeing of our larger diverse community is very important to me and I will continue to work to pursue this agenda. This experience allows me to best represent the community that I am from.

Pursuant to Charter, Section 4.101(a)(1), please state how your qualifications represent the communities of interest, neighborhoods, and the diversity in ethnicity, race, age, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, types of disabilities, and any other relevant demographic qualities of the City and County of San Francisco:

I come to you with an extensive background in youth and family policy advocacy, housing and tenants rights work, and community organizing based in San Francisco that has focused on uplifting our most marginalized immigrant communities. Like the IRC, I share a deep personal commitment to expanding access to social, educational, and political opportunities that will enable all immigrant families throughout our city to live with dignity and to thrive.

Moreover, I hope to rely on my personal experiences of growing up as an English language learner and a queer person of color with long family ties to the Mission District in order to provide culturally competent care and attention to the diverse immigrant communities that call San Francisco home.

Business and/or professional experience:

As the Policy Director at Compass Family Services, I advocate for progressive policies related to housing, education, and homelessness issues, and work to secure public resources for services and programs that materially improve the well-being of homeless and at-risk families. Many of our clients are severely low-income immigrant families, and we have worked to remove barriers to housing by challenging misguided federal policies like the "Public Charge" regulation recently proposed by DHS.

Prior to Compass, I worked as an education justice policy advocate with Coleman Advocates for Children and Youth, a budget analyst with the San Francisco Unified School District, and a policy intern for former District 9 Supervisor David Campos. I have also completed legal clerkships at the Eviction Defense Collaborative (where I assisted primarily Spanish and Portuguese speaking clients in defending against eviction lawsuits) and Legal Services for Children (where I helped defend unaccompanied immigrant minors in deportation proceedings). I hold a master's degree in public policy from Harvard University and a law degree from the UC Berkeley School of Law.

Civic Activities:

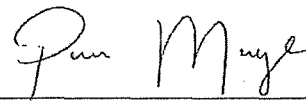

I currently serve as co-chair for the SFUSD Public Education Enrichment Fund - Community Advisory Committee, where we advise the Board of Education on the financial oversight of $70 million in fund expenditures to programs aimed at improving the quality of education for San Francisco public school children (4 year term ending in 08/19). During my term, I also served on the steering committee for the successful 2016 Prop N campaign to grant non-citizen parents the right to vote in school board elections. I recently completed a 2-year term on the University of California, Board of Regents where I represented 270,000 students across 10 UC campuses, pushed for the enactment of a UC system-wide Sanctuary policy, and led a statewide campaign that helped secure the first tuition reduction in 20 years.

Previously, I served on the Human Rights Commission - Equity Advisory Committee where I worked with SFSUD to provide resources that helped fund the costs of DACA renewal applications for eligible immigrant youth. I started off as a youth advocate while serving as a Commissioner on the San Francisco Youth Commission, where I provided leadership on the historic Free MUNI for Youth Campaign as well as a campaign to reform school discipline policies at SFUSD.

I'm a person of color who is Muslim and one of seven children of immigrants from Egypt. My late Father and Mother immigrated to the US with the goal of providing us a better life and achieving the American dream.

As a first generation United States Citizen, I witnessed first hand the issues and realities my parents dealt with to provide us with a better life. From religious to racial discrimination as well as the many language barriers proved to be very challenging.

Being first generation made me sensitive to struggles that not only my family faced, but other immigrant families as well from different cultures.

Throughout my experiences and learning of other people around me, I've come to realize that there are many complex issues facing immigrant communities. Some of these issues are related to language, race, sex, religion or other social categorizations. The oppression and privilege associated to those are intersectionality.

My awareness of intersectionality has driven me always to ask questions and find solutions to issues that affect our most vulnerable communities.

Business and/or professional experience:

I founded and run a San Francisco based Technology Consulting firm who's mission is to "Help people who help people, leverage technology".

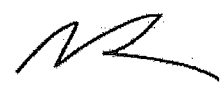

I've dedicated the last 15 years of my life helping nonprofit organizations who serve marginalized communities leverage technology for good

Civic Activities:

- Volunteered in forming Project Feed to help feed SF homeless in Tenderloin.
- Volunteered as a youth mentor in Log Cabin Ranch (SF County Youth Detention Center).
- Co-founded Ask Academy, an organizations who's goal is to improve the lives of our most vulnerable youth from Kindergarten to High School through retention and redirection.

Hi Victor,

I was hoping you can share the following note to the members of the Rules Committee prior to Monday's hearing. I'm up for reappointment and I look forward to attending next weeks hearing.

Thank you!

Amro Radwan

MESSAGE TO RULES COMMITTEE

Dear Supervisors Ronen, Walton, Mar,

My name is Amro Radwan, and in September 2017, I was appointed to fill the remainder of a previous commission's term. That partial term has expired, and I am reapplying for my own full term on the San Francisco's Immigrant Rights Commission.

I'm a person of color, who is Muslim and one of seven children of immigrants of Egypt. My wife is also an immigrant who was just recently naturalized. Like many of you, I also have extended family members, friends and colleagues who are immigrants.

I've served on the Immigrant Rights Commission since September of 2017. During my tenure as a Commissioner, I was proud to have held various public hearings on important issues like DACA and the Muslim travel ban where I listened to testimony from many leaders and individuals from our immigrant communities. We recently held a very moving public hearing addressing the effects of the ongoing civil war in Yemen on San Francisco's Yemeni community.

I've shown up to various press conferences our commission has held to publicly speak out against the multiple policies that harm our Immigrant Communities including the Supreme Court decision on the Muslim travel ban as well as the hurtful separation of families at our southern border.

As the only Arab Muslim and Arabic-speaking member of the Immigrant Rights Commission, I would like to serve and find ways to make sure our Immigrant communities are heard. Given these current times, I would also like to find ways to address and prevent diseases like Antisemitism and Islamophobia ensuring San Francisco continues to be a safe and welcoming place for all.

I look forward to meeting you all at the Rules Committee appointment hearings.

My goal is to serve as a conduit for social change and uproot systemic injustices that prevent marginalized communities from achieving their human potential. I am confident representing diverse and vulnerable immigrant communities on the San Francisco Immigrant Rights Commission as an eight year San Francisco resident and first generation immigrant woman from a country on the Muslim ban list.
I am the product of parents who met in the United States after fleeing an oppressive regime in the Middle East. My parents' fulfilling search for freedom and prosperity in US was coupled with the reality that discrimination and bias are alive and well. My father's boss asking him to Americanize his name, my mother being criticized for her foreign accent, our family being targeted in public spaces after 9/11.

Business and/or professional experience:

I have supported Latinx families mastering financial literacy, girls teaching one another computer science and young Black men developing their social-emotional skills. While my role in these communities has shifted between corporate donor, public advocate and nonprofit consultant my commitment to advancing human potential has never wavered. I am eager to bring my extensive professional experience working with a range of communities to the Immigrant Rights Commission of San Francisco.

Currently as Director of Special Initiatives at Tides, I am regularly involved in immigrant

Civic Activities:

I have been civically engaged in San Francisco through various volunteer and leadership capacities. Currently I am a board member with Full Circle Fund Öa network of 175 active and 500+ alumni members from the private and public sectors coming together to support local Bay Area nonprofits as donors and pro-bono consultants. I began as a volunteer, led the organization as interim Executive Director and now as Board Member continue to activate and engage the local community on education, the environment, economic inequality and public health issues.

I am a Filipino immigrant and a proud member of the LGBTQ+ community. I lived in Hawaii for 6 years prior to moving to San Francisco in 2017. My knowledge of the native languages Tagalog and Ilocano, along with my education and experiences from the diverse Asia-Pacific cultures, will help me represent the 40,000+ Filipinos in San Francisco. I am 25 years old young adult and received training in youth organizing, qualifications that will help me stand and serve as a role model for the younger generation.

Business and/or professional experience:

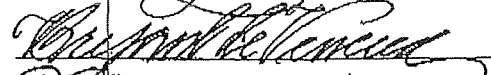

I work as a Community Organizer in the Tenderloin, South of Market, and part of Mission--neighborhoods where the concentration of immigrants in San Francisco reside. My work includes keeping people housed through various city and nonprofit programs and ensuring safe and healthy communities through neighborhood-specific projects. Prior to working in SF, I organized the youth and the underserved community members in Hawaii for two years--most of them 1st and 2nd generation immigrants--to fight for labor justice, education, housing rights, and LGBTQ+ rights.

Civic Activities:

I am involved with different nonprofits and partnerships in the city to ensure the quality of life improvements for San Francisco residents. I serve as one of the drivers for better parks and open spaces in the Tenderloin neighborhood, securing healthy and safe spaces for families (mostly immigrant and people of color) for play, relaxation, and overall healthier lifestyle. Additionally, I am a part of the Vision Zero Coalition, which in partnership with the city, works to eliminate pedestrian fatalities in our street corridors.

I was born in Tehran, Iran and came to the United States to attend graduate school. I made my home here.
I daresay that being an immigrant, has been the hardest thing I have ever done in my life.
When I came to this country, there was no community of Iranians. In the past twenty years, my passion has been to organize Iranian Americans as a community of immigrants and encourage its members to become active participants of a Civil Society.
As a professor at San Francisco State University, I educate many more immigrants and I have developed an understanding of the common themes of what it means to be an immigrant in San Francisco, especially from economic, cultural, educational, family, and gender points of view.
As a woman immigrant from a Middle Eastern country, I have come into contact with many women such as myself and have realized some of the unique issues facing women immigrants from these countries. These issues range from cultural isolation to lack of a voice in expressing their true selves and vision.
Writing and speaking on the issues regarding immigration and also mentoring recent immigrants, have always been my passion.

Hi Alisa,

I would like to express my support and enthusiasm for Shreyas Kumar to serve in the role of Commissioner of Immigrants Rights. I have had the pleasure of working with Shreyas at Uber for over two years and he has been a great business partner and mentor as we navigate the world of security and compliance for our company. His accomplishments are endless but here are some of the relevant achievements I have observed that I feel would make him a great candidate:

Leadership: He is the leader in our payments compliance and is well respected amongst his peers. He has driven action in standing up our payments compliance program in a complex payments environment and started this initiative from the grounds up. He also believes in continuous improvement and holds one of the highest driving records as an Uber employee driving for Uber; to share the lessons learned in making our company better.

Collaboration: Shreyas is passionate about collaboration and solving and building solutions together. With the audits that we work together on he brings extensive experience and insight and we work together to mitigate risks for the company. We also work with business partners globally and he adjusts his schedule for his stakeholders timezones. He genuinely cares in supporting others and solves problems as is personally vested in every challenge.

Support for the immigrant community: Shreyas has personally started and lead Uber's Employee Resource Group, Uber Immigrants, which now has close to 1000 members globally. To start an ERG takes tremendous effort and socialization with executive leadership and this is one of the most active communities. Through this group, he has created a safe space for many of our employees who are working for us through a visa, getting their green card or applying for citizenship to share their concerns and insights. He also provides guidance and personal support for colleagues facing challenges through their immigration background.

Shreyas would be great for this role and will make an impact for our community. Happy to provide any additional information and be of reference.

To: <alisa.somera@sfgov.org>

Hi Alisa,

This is Yicheng from Uber Technologies Inc. Shreyas and I are both co-chairs of the company's Immigrants Employee Resource Group (ERG), which serves the needs of immigrant employees in the company. I strongly recommend Shreyas Kumar for SF Commission on Immigrant Rights.

Personally I am an immigrant too. I took the master program in Carnegie Mellon University, and got the job opportunity in bay area. Starting from graduation year, I kept applying for H-1B, and failed 3 times until this year, which was a memorable experiences. There are also lots of immigrants in the company who have similar experiences about the process.

Shreyas is the person who founds and leads the immigrants ERG in the company, which consists of ~1000 members. He connects with lots of immigrants inside the company, and brought up the idea to create an ERG for immigrants. He actively invite immigrants into the ERG to help improve immigrant employee's life in the company. As ERG lead, he focuses on the needs and anxieties associated with living and working under a visa and immersion for recent immigrants. He organizes monthly mixer to present useful topics to immigrants and help immigrants unite together. He is also an active member to resolve complex visa situations for members when they ask for help in chat room or email. He is always willing to mentor career guidance for younger immigrants and encourages others to do the same.

Shreyas is definitely a strong fit for SF Commission on Immigrant Rights. If you need more details from me, please email me back at yicheng.qin@uber.com.

Regards,
Yicheng

To whom it may concern,

I am writing this e-mail to recommend Shreyas Kumar for the Commissioner role at the San Francisco Commission on Immigrant Rights. As a program specialist at San Jose State University, I had the pleasure of meeting Shreyas one year ago when he joined the College of Engineering as a part-time instructor. I helped coordinate his interview and on boarding process as well as other logistics related to his course offering and assessment. I still to work with him in that capacity since he will continue teaching at San Jose State University in 2019.

Without a doubt, all of my interactions with Shreyas have been extremely positive. In addition to our conversation about his role as a course instructor, he frequently shares stories about his travels around the world, his culture and his everyday experiences. He always demonstrates commitment to quality education and views teaching as a way of giving back to the community and sharing his expertise with young professionals. Shreyas continuously provided individualized and collective support for students' learning and growth and provided valuable learning experiences which were greatly appreciated. The students in Shreyas's course gave overwhelmingly positive feedback about his commitment to their learning and well as his enthusiasm for teaching. Shreyas is respectful, courteous and always willing to help in any way he can.

I am confident that Shreyas will be a great asset for the San Francisco Commission on Immigration Rights and I highly recommend him. Please feel free to contact me if you would like to discuss my recommendation further. My phone number is (408) 924-3196.

Starting from graduation year, I kept applying for H-1B, and failed 3 times until this year, which was a memorable experiences. There are also lots of immigrants in the company who have similar experiences about the process.

Shreyas is the person who founds and leads the immigrants ERG in the company, which consists of ~1000 members. He connects with lots of immigrants inside the company, and brought up the idea to create an ERG for immigrants. He actively invite immigrants into the ERG to help improve immigrant employee's life in the company. As ERG lead, he focuses on the needs and anxieties associated with living and working under a visa and immersion for recent immigrants. He organizes monthly mixer to present useful topics to immigrants and help immigrants unite together. He is also an active member to resolve complex visa situations for members when they ask for help in chat room or email. He is always willing to mentor career guidance for younger immigrants and encourages others to do the same.

Shreyas is definitely a strong fit for SF Commission on Immigrant Rights. If you need more details from me, please email me back at yicheng.qin@uber.com.

Yicheng

I. Introduction

The central question of this report is whether appointments to public policy bodies of the City and County of San Francisco are reflective of the population at large.

In 1998, San Francisco became the first city in the world to pass a local ordinance reflecting the principles of the United Nations Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Discrimination Against Women (CEDAW), also known as the "Women's Human Rights Treaty."¹ The Ordinance requires City government to take proactive steps to ensure gender equality and specifies "gender analysis" as a preventive tool to identify and address discrimination.² Since 1998, the Department on the Status of Women (Department) has used this tool to analyze operations of 11 City departments.

In 2007, the Department used gender analysis to analyze the number of women appointed to City Commissions, Boards, and Task Forces.³ Based on these findings, a City Charter Amendment was developed by the Board of Supervisors for the June 2008 election. The Amendment, which voters approved overwhelmingly, made it City policy that:

1. Membership of Commissions and Boards reflect the diversity of the San Francisco population;
2. Appointing officials be urged to support the nomination, appointment, and confirmation of these candidates; and
3. The San Francisco Department on the Status of Women is required to conduct a gender analysis of Commissions and Boards to be published every 2 years.⁴

This 2017 gender analysis assesses the representation of women; racial and ethnic minorities; lesbian, gay, bisexual, and transgender (LGBT) individuals; people with disabilities; and veterans on San Francisco Commissions and Boards appointed by the Mayor and the Board of Supervisors.⁵

² The gender analysis guidelines are available at the San Francisco Department on the Status of Women website, under Women's Human Rights, at www.sfgov.org/dosw.

⁴ The full text of the charter amendment is available at https://sfpl.org/pdf/main/gic/elections/June3_2008.pdf.

⁵ Appointees in some policy bodies are elected or appointed by other entities.

II. Methodology and Limitations

This report focuses on City and County of San Francisco Commissions and Boards whose jurisdiction is limited to the City, that have a majority of members appointed by the Mayor and Board of Supervisors, and that are permanent policy bodies.⁶ Generally, Commission appointments are made by the Mayor and Board appointments are made by members of the Board of Supervisors. For some policy bodies, however, the appointments are divided between the Mayor, the Board of Supervisors, and other agencies. Commissions tend to be permanent policy bodies that are part of the City Charter and oversee a department or agency. Boards are typically policy bodies created legislatively to address specific issues.

The gender analysis in this report reflects data from the Commissions and Boards that provided information to the Department through survey, the Mayor's Office, and the Information Directory Department (311), which collects and disseminates information about City appointments to policy bodies. Based on the list of Commissions and Boards that are reported by 311, data was compiled from 57 policy bodies with a total of 540 appointees. A Commissioner or Board member's gender identity, race/ethnicity, sexual orientation, disability status, and veteran status were among data elements collected on a voluntary basis. In many cases, identities are vastly underreported due to concerns about social stigma and discrimination. Thus, data on lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender (LGBT) identity, disability, and veteran status of appointees were limited, incomplete, and/or unavailable for many appointees, but included to the extent possible. As the fundamental objective of this report is to surface patterns of underrepresentation, every attempt has been made to reflect accurate and complete information in this report.

For the purposes of comparison in this report, data from the U.S. Census 2011-2015 American Community Survey 5-Year Estimates is used to reflect the current San Francisco population. Charts 1 and 2 in the Appendix show these population estimates by race/ethnicity and gender.

⁶ It is important to note that San Francisco is the only jurisdiction in the State of California that is both a city and a county. Therefore, while in other jurisdictions, the Human Services Commission is typically a county commission that governs services across multiple cities and is composed of members appointed by those cities, the San Francisco case is much simpler. All members of Commissioner and Boards are appointed either by the San Francisco Mayor or the San Francisco County Board of Supervisors which functions as a city council..

III. San Francisco Population Demographics

An estimated 49% of the population in San Francisco are women and approximately 60% of residents identify as a race or ethnicity other than White. Four in ten San Franciscans are White, one-third are Asian, 15% are Hispanic or Latinx, and 6% are Black or African American.

The racial and ethnic breakdown of San Francisco’s population is shown in the chart below. Note that the percentages do not add up to 100% since individuals may be counted more than once.

Source: 2011-2015 American Community Survey 5-Year Estimates.

A more nuanced view of San Francisco's population can be seen in the chart below, which shows race and ethnicity by gender. Most racial and ethnic groups have a similar representation of men and women in San Francisco, though there are about 15% more White men than women (22% vs. 19%) and 12% more Asian women than men (18% vs. 16%). Overall, 29% of San Franciscans are men of color and 31% are women of color.

Source: 2011-2015 American Community Survey 5-Year Estimates.

The U.S. Census and American Community Survey do not count the number of individuals who identify as lesbian, gay, bisexual, or transgender (LGBT). However, there are several reputable data sources that estimate San Francisco has one of the highest concentrations of LGBT individuals in the nation. A 2015 Gallup poll found that among employed adults in the San Francisco Metropolitan Area, which includes San Francisco, Alameda, Contra Costa, Marin, and San Mateo counties, 6.2% identify as LGBT, the largest percentage of any populous area in the U.S. The 2010 U.S. Census reported 34,000 same-sex couples in the Bay Area, with an estimated 7,600 male same-sex couples and 2,700 female same-sex couples in the City of San Francisco, approximately 7% of all households. In addition, the Williams Institute at the University of California Los Angeles estimates that 4.6% of Californians identify as LGBT, which is similar across gender (4.6% of males vs. 4.5% of females). The Williams Institute also reported that roughly 92,000 adults ages 18-70 in California, or 0.35% of the population, are transgender. These sources suggest between 5-7% of the San Francisco adult population, or approximately 36,000-50,000 San Franciscans, identify as LGBT.

Women are slightly more likely than men to have one or more disabilities. For women 18 years and older, 12.1% have at least one disability, compared to 11.5% of adult men. Overall, about 12% of adults in San Francisco live with a disability.

Source: 2011-2015 American Community Survey 5-Year Estimates.

In terms of veterans, according to the U.S. Census, 3.6% of the adult population in San Francisco has served in the military. There is a drastic difference by gender. More than 12 times as many men are veterans, at nearly 7% of adult males, than women, with less than 1%.

IV. Gender Analysis Findings

On the whole, appointees to Commissions and Boards reflect many aspects of the diversity of San Francisco. Among Commissioners and Board members, nearly half are women, more than 50% are people of color, 17% are LGBT, 11% have a disability, and 13% are veterans. However, Board appointees are less diverse than Commission appointees. Below is a summary of key indicators, comparing them between Commissions and Boards. Refer to Appendix II for a complete table of demographics by Commissions and Boards.

	Commissions	Boards
Number of Policy Bodies Included	40	17
Filled Seats	350/373 (6% vacant)	190/213 (11% vacant)
Female Appointees	54%	41%
Racial/Ethnic Minority	57%	47%
LGBT	17.5%	17%
With Disability	10%	14%
Veterans	15%	10%

The next sections will present detailed data, compared to previous years, along the key variables of gender, ethnicity, race/ethnicity by gender, sexual orientation, disability, veterans, and policy bodies by budget size.

A. Gender

Overall, the percentage of female appointees to City Commissions and Boards is 49%, equal to the female percentage of the San Francisco population. A 10-year comparison of the gender diversity on Commissions and Boards shows that the percentage of female Commissioners has increased over the 10 years since the first gender analysis of Commissions and Boards in 2007. At 54%, the representation of women on Commissions currently exceeds the percentage of women in San Francisco (49%). The percentage of female Board appointees declined 15% from the last gender analysis in 2015. Women make up 41% of Board appointees in 2017, whereas women were 48% of Board members in 2015. A greater number of Boards were included this year than in 2015, which may contribute to the stark difference from the previous report. This dip represents a departure from the previous trend of increasing women’s representation on Boards.

Figure 6: 10-Year Comparison of Women’s Representation on Commissions and Boards

The next two charts illustrate the Commissions and Boards with the highest and lowest percentage of female appointees in 2017. Data from the two previous gender analyses for these Commissions and Boards is also included for comparison purposes. Of 54 policy bodies with data on gender, roughly one-third (20 Commissions and Boards) have more than 50% representation of women. The greatest women's representation is found on the Commission on the Status of Women and the Children and Families Commission (First 5) at 100%. The Long Term Care Coordinating Council and the Mayor's Disability Council also have some of the highest percentages of women, at 78% and 75%, respectively. However, the latter two policy bodies are not included in the chart due to lack of prior data.

Commissions and Boards with Highest Percentage of Women,

There are 14 Commissions and Boards that have 30% or less women. The lowest percentage is found on the Oversight Board of the Office of Community Investment & Infrastructure where currently none of the five appointees are women. The Urban Forestry Council and the Workforce Investment Board also have some of the lowest percentages of women members at 20% and 26%, respectively, but are not included in the chart below due to lack of prior data.

B. Ethnicity

Data on racial and ethnic background were available for 286 Commissioners and 183 Board members. More than half of these appointees identify as people of color. However, representation of people of color on Commissions and Boards falls short of parity with the approximately 60% minority population in San Francisco. In total, 53% of appointees identify as racial and ethnic minorities. The percentage of minority Commissioners decreased from 2015, while the percentage of minority Board members has been steadily increasing since 2009. Yet, communities of color are represented in greater numbers on Commissions, at 57%, than Boards, at 47%, of appointees. Below is the 8-year comparison of minority representation on Commissions and Boards. Data on race and ethnicity were not collected in 2007.

Sources: Department Survey, Mayor's Office, 311.

The racial and ethnic breakdown of Commissioners and Board members as compared to the San Francisco population is presented in the next two charts. There is a greater number of White and Black/African American Commissioners in comparison to the general population, in contrast to individuals identifying as Asian, Latinx/Hispanic, multiracial, and other races who are underrepresented on Commissions. One-quarter of Commissioners are Asian compared to more than one-third of the population. Similarly, 11% of Commissioners are Latinx compared to 15% of the population.

Race/Ethnicity of Commissioners Compared to San Francisco Population, 2017

A similar pattern emerges for Board appointees. In general, racial and ethnic minorities are underrepresented on Boards, except for the Black/African American population with 16% of Board appointees compared to 6% of the population. White appointees far exceed the White population with more than half of appointees identifying as White compared to about 40% of the population. Meanwhile, there are considerably fewer Board members who identify as Asian, Latinx/Hispanic, multiracial, and other races than in the population. Particularly striking is the underrepresentation of Asians, where 17% of Board members identified as Asian compared to 34% of the population. Additionally, 9% of Board appointees are Latinx compared to 15% of the population.

Sources: Department Survey, Mayor's Office, 311.

Of the 37 Commissions with information on ethnicity, more than two-thirds (26 Commissions) have at least 50% of appointees identifying as persons of color and more than half (19 Commissions) reach or exceed parity with the nearly 60% minority population. The Commissions with the highest percentage of minority appointees are shown in the chart below. The Commission on Community Investment and Infrastructure and the Southeast Community Facility Commission both are comprised entirely of people of color. Meanwhile, 86% of Commissioners are minorities on the Juvenile Probation Commission, Immigrant Rights Commission, and Health Commission.

Sources: Department Survey, Mayor's Office, 311.

Seven Commissions have fewer than 30% minority appointees, with the lowest percentage of minority appointees being found on the Building Inspection Commission at 14% and the Historic Preservation Commission at 17%. The Commissions with the lowest percentage of minority appointees are shown in the chart below.

Sources: Department Survey, Mayor's Office, 311.

For the 16 Boards with information on race and ethnicity, nine have at least 50% minority appointees. The Local Homeless Coordinating Board has the greatest percentage of members of color with 86%. The Mental Health Board and the Public Utilities Rate Fairness Board also have a large representation of people of color at 69% and 67%, respectively. Meanwhile, seven Boards have a majority of White members, with the lowest representation of people of color on the Oversight Board at 20% minority members, the War Memorial Board of Trustees at 18% minority members, and the Urban Forestry Council with no members of color.

Sources: Department Survey, Mayor's Office, 311.

C. Race/Ethnicity by Gender

Minorities comprise 57% of Commission appointees and 47% of Board appointees. The total percentage of minority appointees on Commissions and Boards in 2017 is 53% compared to about 60% of the population. There are slightly more women of color on Commissions and Boards at 27% than men of color at 26%. Women of color appointees to Commissions reach parity with the population at 31%, while women of color are 19% of Board members, far from parity with the population. Men of color are 26% of appointees to both Commissions and Boards, below the 29% men of color in the San Francisco population.

Sources: Department Survey, Mayor's Office, 311, 2011-2015 American Community Survey 5-Year Estimates.

The next chart illustrates appointees' race and ethnicity by gender. The gender distribution in most racial and ethnic groups on policy bodies is similar to the representation of men and women in minority groups in San Francisco except for the White population. White men represent 22% of San Francisco population, yet 28% of Commission and Board appointees are White men. Meanwhile, White women are at parity with the population at 19%. Women and men of color are underrepresented across all racial and ethnic groups, except for Black/African American appointees. Asian women are 12% of appointees, but 18% of the population. Asian men are 10% of appointees compared to 16% of the population. Latina women are 4% of Commissioners and Board members, yet 7% of the population, while 6% of appointees are Latino men compared to 8% of San Franciscans.

D. Sexual Orientation

While it is challenging to find accurate counts of the number of lesbian, gay, bisexual, and transgender (LGBT) individuals, a combination of sources, noted in the demographics section, suggests between 4.6% and 7% of the San Francisco population is LGBT. Data on sexual orientation and gender identity was available for 240 Commission appointees and 132 Board appointees. Overall, about 17% of appointees to Commissions and Boards are LGBT. There is a large LGBT representation across both Commissioners and Board members. Three Commissioners identified as transgender.

Sources: Department Survey, Mayor's Office, 311.

E. Disability

An estimated 12% of San Franciscans have a disability. Data on disability was available for 214 Commission appointees and 93 Board appointees. The percentage of Commission and Board appointees with a disability is 11.4% and almost reaches parity with the 11.8% of the adult population in San Francisco that has a disability. There is a much greater representation of people with a disability on Boards at 14% than on Commissions at 10%.

Sources: Department Survey, Mayor's Office, 311.

F. Veterans

Veterans are 3.6% of the adult population in San Francisco. Data on military service was available for 176 Commission appointees and 81 Board appointees. Overall, veterans are well represented on Commissions and Boards with 13% of appointees having served in the military. However, there is a large difference in the representation of veterans on Commissions at 15% compared to Boards at 10%. This is likely due to the 17 members of Veterans Affairs Commission of which all members must be veterans.

G. Policy Bodies by Budget Size

In addition to data on the appointment of women and minorities to Commissions and Boards, this report examines whether the demographic make-up of policy bodies with the largest budget (which is often proportional to the amount of influence in the City) are representative of the community. On the following page, Figure 19 shows the representation of women, people of color, and women of color on the policy bodies with the largest and smallest budgets.

Though the overall representation of female appointees (49%) is equal to the City's population, Commissions and Boards with the highest female representation have fairly low influence as measured by budget size. Although women's representation on the ten policy bodies with the largest budgets increased from 30% in 2015 to 35% this year, it is still far below parity with the population. The percentage of women on the ten bodies with the smallest budgets grew from 45% in 2015 to 58% in 2017.

With respect to minority representation, the bodies with both the largest and smallest budgets exceed parity with the population. On the ten Commissions and Boards with the largest budgets, 60% of appointees identify as a racial or ethnic minority; meanwhile 66% of appointees identify as a racial or ethnic minority on the ten Commissions and Boards with the smallest budgets. Minority representation on the ten largest budgeted policy bodies was slightly greater in 2015 at 62%, while there was a 21% increase of minority representation on the ten smallest budgeted policy bodies from 52% in 2015.

Percentage of women of color on the policy bodies with the smallest budgets is 30% and almost reaches parity with the population in San Francisco. However, women of color are considerably underrepresented on the ten policy bodies with the largest budgets at 18% compared to 31% of the population.

The following two tables present the demographics of the Commissions and Boards overseeing some of the City's largest and smallest budgets.

Of the ten Commissions and Boards that oversee the largest budgets, women make up 35% and women of color are 18% of the appointees. The Commission on Community Investment and Infrastructure is the most diverse with people of color in all appointed seats and women comprising half of the members. The Municipal Transportation Agency (MTA) Board of Directors and Parking Authority Commission has the next largest representation of women with 43%. Four of the ten bodies have less than 30% female appointees. Women of color are near parity on the Police Commission at 29% compared to 31% of the population. Meanwhile, the Public Utilities Commission and Human Services Commission have no women of color.

Overall, the representation of minorities on policy bodies with the largest budgets is equal to that of the minority population in San Francisco at 60% and four of the ten largest budgeted bodies have greater minority representation. Following the Commission on Community Investment and Infrastructure with 100% minority appointees, the Health Commission at 86% minority appointees, the Aging and Adult Services Commission at 80% minority appointees, and the Police Commission with 71% minority appointees have the next highest minority representation. In contrast, the Airport Commission has the lowest minority representation at 20%.

Commissions and Boards with the smallest budgets exceed parity with the population for women's and minority representation with 58% women and 66% minority appointees and are near parity with 30% women of color appointees compared to 31% of the population. The Long Term Care Coordinating Council has the greatest representation of women at 78%, followed by the Youth Commission at 64%, and the City Hall Preservation Advisory Commission at 60%. Five of the ten smallest budgeted bodies have less than 50% women appointees. The Southeast Community Facility Commission, the Youth Commission, the Housing Authority Commission, and the Public Utilities Rate Fairness Board have more than 30% women of color members.

Of the eight smallest budgeted policy bodies with data on race and ethnicity, more than half have greater representation of racial and ethnic minority and women of color than the population. The Southeast Community Facility Commission has 100% members of color, followed by the Housing Authority Commission at 83%, the Sentencing Commission at 73%, and the Public Utilities Rate Fairness Board at 67% minority appointees. Only the Historic Preservation Commission with 17% minority members, the City Hall Preservation Advisory Commission at 20% minority members, and the Reentry Council with 57% minority members fall below parity with the population.

V. Conclusion

Per the 2008 Charter Amendment, the Mayor and Board of Supervisors are encouraged to make appointments to Commissions, Boards, and other policy bodies that reflect the diverse population of San Francisco. While state law prohibits public appointments based solely on gender, race and ethnicity, sexual orientation, or disability status, an awareness of these factors is important when appointing individuals to serve on policy bodies, particularly where they may have been historically underrepresented.

Since the first gender analysis of appointees to San Francisco policy bodies in 2007, there has been a steady increase of female appointees. There has also been a greater representation of women on Commissions as compared to Boards. This continued in 2017 with 54% female Commissioners. However, it is concerning that the percentage of female Board members has dropped from 48% in 2015 to 41% in 2017.

People of color represent 60% of the San Francisco population, yet only represent 53% of appointees to San Francisco Commissions and Boards. There is a greater representation of people of color on Commissions than Boards. However, Commissions have fewer appointees identified as ethnic minorities this year, 57%, than the 60% in 2015, while the representation of people of color on Boards increased from 44% in 2015 to 47% in 2017. There is still a disparity between race and ethnicity on public policy bodies and in the population. Especially Asians and Latinx/Hispanic individuals are underrepresented across Commissions and Boards while there is a higher representation of White and Black/African American appointees than in the general population. Women of color are 31% of the population and comprise 31% of Commissioners compared to 19% of Board members. Meanwhile, men of color are 29% of the population and 26% of Commissioners and Board members.

This year there is more data available on sexual orientation, veteran status, and disability than previous gender analyses. The 2017 gender analysis found that there is a relatively high representation of LGBT individuals on the policy bodies for which there was data at 17%. Veterans are also highly represented at 13%, and the representation of people with a disability in policy bodies almost reaches parity with the population with 11.4% compared to 11.8%.

Finally, the policy bodies with larger budgets have a smaller representation of women at 35% while Commissions and Boards with smallest budgets are 58% female appointees. While minority representation exceeds the population on the policy bodies with both the smallest and largest budgets, women of color are considerably underrepresented on the largest budgeted policy bodies at 18% compared to 31% of the population.

This report is intended to inform appointing authorities, including the Mayor and the Board of Supervisors, as they carefully select their designees on key policy bodies of the City & County of San Francisco. In the spirit of the charter amendment that mandated this report, diversity and inclusion should be the hallmark of these important appointments.
