Section 1. Findings.

NOTE:

(a) History of Structural Racism.

San Francisco has a long history of creating and/or enforcing laws, policies, and institutions that perpetuated racial inequity in our city, including but not limited to the following:

(1) In 1854, the federal government established an Indian policy for California, and in subsequent actions the federal, state, and city authorities essentially decimated the local indigenous population, including the Ohlone population, spending in excess of $1.4 million in the process.

- (2) In 1870, San Francisco passed its first zoning law, Order 939 Regulating Lodging Houses, also known as the Cubic Air Ordinance. This legislation was created at the urging of anti-Chinese labor groups that had formed in response to heightened Gold Rush immigration. The new law required 500 cubic feet of space per occupant of any lodging room in the city, but it was only enforced in areas housing mostly Chinese residents, resulting in hundreds of arrests.
- (3) In 1880, San Francisco enacted an ordinance prohibiting the operation of a laundry in a wooden building without a permit. At the time, about 95% of laundries in the City were operated in wooden buildings, and approximately two-thirds of those laundries were owned by Chinese people. The Board of Supervisors denied permits to all Chinese applicants while virtually all non-Chinese applicants were granted permits. In 1886, the United States Supreme Court, reviewing this ordinance, ruled that a law that is race-neutral on its face but is administered in a prejudicial manner violates the 14th Amendment to the United States Constitution.
- (4) In 1937, San Francisco was one of 239 cities that was "redlined," by the Federal Home Loan Bank Board and the Home Owners' Loan Corporation. This process involved the creation of "residential security maps" which divided cities into areas that were appropriate for investment and areas that were more risky. In San Francisco, neighborhoods with large populations of people of color including the Western Addition, the Haight, Chinatown, and parts of the Mission were deemed risky. While residents in majority-white neighborhoods saw their property values and wealth rise, people of color in redlined neighborhoods were denied loans, city investment, and infrastructure upgrades. This resulted in systemic concentrations of poverty and blight in racially segregated communities.

- (5) In 1942, in response to President Franklin Roosevelt's Executive Order to exclude Japanese from the West Coast, the San Francisco Police Department joined the FBI in sweeps and the internment of thousands of persons of Japanese ancestry in "relocation camps." More than 115,000 Japanese people on the West Coast were sent to internment camps; the homes, businesses, and properties left behind were declared a "slum area" by San Francisco government officials and the city made plans to tear it down.
- (6) In 1947, the San Francisco Planning Commission used the redlined map to institute "urban renewal" in the Fillmore and Western Addition, a historically Black neighborhood. Over the next twenty years in the names of "slum clearance", many homes were razed, businesses destroyed, and more than 10,000 Blacks were displaced as a result of the policy. Urban renewal was also instituted in other San Francisco neighborhoods, including South of Market, where 4,000 low-income and working class residents of color and more than 700 small businesses were displaced.
- (7) According to the San Francisco District Attorney's Office, in 2000, African-Americans were 7.8% of San Francisco's population but comprised 41% of marijuana arrests. By 2010 and 2011, African-Americans made up about 50% of the marijuana-related arrests, yet represented only 6% of the City's population.

(b) Current Racial Disparities.

Although the City has taken steps to undo the damage caused by past policies and practices, the racial disparities caused continue to the present day. Despite progress in addressing explicit discrimination, racial inequities continue to be deep, pervasive, and persistent in San Francisco. Across every social indicator, when data is disaggregated by race, the legacy of more than two hundred years of racially discriminatory government policies is evident, as measured by the following:

- (1) Unemployment: According to a study by the Brookings Institution, in 2015, San Francisco had the ninth-highest general employment rate in the country (79%), but it was one of the cities with the highest employment disparity between Black people (53%) and white people (84%) in the country.
- (2) Life Expectancy: According to a study by the San Francisco Health Improvement Partnership ("SFHIP"), the life expectancy at birth in San Francisco from 2015-17 was 72.1 for Blacks, 76 for Pacific Islanders, 81.7 for white people, 85.1 for Latinxs, and 87 for Asians.
- (3) Maternal Mortality: In San Francisco, Black women are twice as likely as white women to give birth prematurely, and Black and Pacific Islander women have the highest rates of prenatal morbidity. SFHIP also found that between 2007 and 2016, Black mothers had about 4% of births in San Francisco, but experienced 50% of maternal deaths, and 15% of infant deaths.
- (4) Household Income: In San Francisco, median income for white households was $106,919 in 2016, $105,295 for Asian households, $70,290 for Latino households and $46,571 for Black households. Black residents experience poverty at 3 times the overall poverty rate in San Francisco.
- (5) Housing and Displacement: The 2010 Census data showed a decline in the number of children of every racial group in San Francisco except white and multiracial children, including Black, Latinx, Asian and Pacific Islander. Between 1990 and 2014-15 there was a significant decrease in the percentage of low-income workers living in San Francisco, while a 30% increase in median rent paid was associated with a 21% decrease in low-income households of color a correlation not seen for low-income white households. Further, as housing prices rose, the share of low-income Black households in San Francisco living in high-poverty, segregated neighborhoods rose from 41% in 2000 to 65% in 2015, in comparison to low-income Asian (27%), Latinx (19%), and White (12%) households.

- (6) Criminal Justice: In 2015, the Burns Institute found that Black adults in San Francisco are 11 times as likely as white adults to be booked into County Jail; Latinx adults are 1.5 times as likely to be booked as white adults. Blacks accounted for 41% of those arrested between 2008 and 2014, 43% of those booked into jail, 38% of cases filed by the San Francisco District Attorney's Office, and 39% of new convictions despite only accounting for 6% of the population of the county. Of incarcerated people in San Francisco County Jail, 53% are Black. Among youth in the juvenile justice system, 54% are Black.
- (7) Police Violence: Black and Latinx people have been disproportionately impacted by fatal police shootings. Since 2014, San Francisco police officers killed five people Alex Nieto, Amilcar Perez-Lopez, Mario Woods, Luis Góngora Pat, and Jessica Williams, all of whom were either Black or Latino. In 2016, then-Mayor Ed Lee and then-Chief of Police Gregory Suhr requested that the U.S. Department of Justice conduct an assessment of whether racial bias existed within the San Francisco Police Department.
- (8) Homelessness: According to the 2017 San Francisco Point in Time Count, 22% of homeless residents in San Francisco identified as Hispanic or Latinx (compared to being 15% of the general population), and 34% identified as Black or African-American (compared to being 6% of the general population).
- (9) Education: 74.9% of Latinx students and 71.1% of Black students graduated in the San Francisco Unified School District class of 2016 compared to 94.7% of Asian students and 83.8% of white students.
- (10) City and County Workforce: Blacks comprised 23.4% of the City workforce in 1976 but only 15.2% in 2018, mimicking a dramatic decline in the Black San Francisco population and pointing to a push-out of the Black population as a whole. Black workers are concentrated in the lowest-paid job classes, and are in a minority in the highest-paid job classes. In 2018, while only approximately 15% of the workforce, Black workers made up 36% of dismissals, 24% of probationary releases, and 38% of medical separations.

(c) The Need for an Office of Racial Equity in San Francisco.

- (1) According to a 2019 report from the Board of Supervisors' Budget and Legislative Analyst, municipalities across the United States have established Offices of Equity in order to address the longstanding social, economic, and racial disparities within their jurisdictions. The report identified 32 cities in the United States with such offices, though not all of these offices focus solely on racial equity.
- (2) The City lacks comprehensive data about racial disparities, with consistent updates, within the City's workforce, and lacks data about racial inequities in terms of access to services provided by or funded by the City. San Francisco must deepen its commitment to racial equity and join cities across the country in this work, by developing concrete tools like policy and budget analysis, public transparency, and accountability, to ensure that racial equity is achieved.

Section 2. Chapter 12A of the Administrative Code is hereby amended by adding Section12A.19, to read as follows:

Sec. 12A.19. OFFICE OF RACIAL EQUITY.

(a) Definitions. For purposes of this Section 12A.19, the following definitions shall apply:

"Race" means a social and political construct that artificially divides people into distinct groups based on characteristics such as physical appearance (particularly color), ancestral heritage, cultural affiliation, cultural history, ethnic classification, and the social, economic, and political needs of a society at a given period of time. Racial categories subsume ethnic groups.

"Racial Disparity" means a condition where one racial group systemically and disproportionately experiences worse outcomes in comparison to another racial group or groups. Racial Disparities may occur in a range of areas, including but not limited to education, employment, wealth, policing, criminal justice, health, transportation, housing, and homelessness.

"Racial Equity" means the systematic fair treatment of people of all Races that results in equal opportunities, participation, and/or outcomes for everyone, so that Race can no longer be used to predict life outcomes.

"Racial Equity Action Plan" means a process and strategic plan for a City department, guided by the citywide Racial Equity Framework, to enact institutional and structural change to achieve Racial Equity. A Racial Equity Action Plan shall include Racial Equity indicators to measure current conditions and impact, outcomes resulting from changes made within programs or policy, and performance measures to evaluate efficacy, that demonstrate how a City department will address Racial Disparities within the department as well as in external programs.

"Racial Equity Framework" means a document outlining the City's vision, goals and strategies to address structural Racism and Racial Disparities, and advance Racial Equity in the City, with a focus on the work of City government. It should provide guidelines for addressing implicit and explicit bias, addressing individual, institutional, and structural Racism, and advocating for more inclusive policies and practices that reduce Racial Disparities and promote Racial Equity. The Racial Equity Framework shall set forth a vision for Racial Equity in the City and include goals and strategies to advance Racial Equity and address structural Racism and Racial Disparities.

"Racial Equity Report Card" means an assessment measured in public data to provide a snapshot or similar indicator of Racial Disparities that exist across the City in specific areas such as but not limited to education, employment, wealth, policing, criminal justice, health, transportation, housing, and homelessness.

"Racial Reconciliation" means a multi-method approach using facilitated dialogue and restorative justice processes, and possibly other tools, to build trust and bridge divides while publicly acknowledging past wrongs created by individual and systemic Racism, and addressing the present consequences.

"Racism" means racial prejudice and/or discrimination, which may be supported intentionally or unintentionally by institutional power and authority, used to the advantage of one or more Races and the disadvantage of one or more other Races.

- (b) Creation of the Office of Racial Equity. There is hereby created the Office of Racial Equity ("Office"), which shall be a division of the Human Rights Commission Department under the authority and direction of the Executive Director of the Human Rights Commission.
- (c) Mission and Purpose. The purpose of the Office is to advance Racial Equity in the City and repair harm done by government policy decisions that have created, upheld, or exacerbated Racial Disparities in the City. The Office will provide leadership and coordination to facilitate training, accountability, policy direction, and solutions to achieve Racial Equity within City government and across the City. The Office will work with City departments to eliminate Racial Disparity in City policies, processes, decisions, and resource allocations, and will work with other governmental entities, private businesses, non-government organizations, academia, and community members to achieve measurable results reducing disparities within the City and throughout the community. The Office will work to resolve policy issues rooted in racial bias and discrimination, including how Racial Disparities intersect with disparities by gender, class, and sexuality, through research, education, and policy interventions. The Office will work with community partners to promote Racial Equity and inclusion within the City and throughout the region, producing measurable improvements and disparity reductions.

- (d) Powers and Duties of the Office. The Office shall have the powers, and shall perform the duties, set forth in this subsection (d).

The Clerk of the Board of Supervisors shall refer all such ordinances to the Office within five days of introduction. The Office may request that the Clerk of the Board of Supervisors refer an ordinance to the Office. The Office shall prepare a report concerning the ordinance that includes an analysis of whether the proposed ordinance would promote Racial Equity by helping to close opportunity gaps for communities of color, or impede Racial Equity by furthering Racial Disparities. The Office may solicit assistance from other City departments, and, consistent with the civil service provisions of the Charter, other experts or professionals as may be appropriate. The Office shall submit its report to the Board of Supervisors within 30 days of receiving the ordinance from the Clerk of the Board of Supervisors, or prior to the consideration of the ordinance by a committee of the Board of Supervisors or the full Board of Supervisors, whichever occurs sooner.

- (5) Racial Reconciliation. The Office shall develop a process of Racial Reconciliation to publicly address the specific needs of a racial group and its community and culture. - (7) Departmental Strategies for Racial Equity. The Office shall support capacity building and provide technical assistance for City departments to invest in strategies for Racial Equity,

- (e) Racial Equity Action Plans and Annual Reports. Each City department shall develop a Racial Equity Action Plan in alignment with the Racial Equity Framework. By December 31, 2020, each City department shall submit its Racial Equity Action Plan to the Office, the Mayor, and the Board of Supervisors, and shall post it on the department's website. The Racial Equity Action Plans shall be updated by December 31 every five years thereafter. City departments shall integrate the Racial Equity Action Plan into departmental five-year strategic plans, as appropriate. Beginning in 2022, each department shall prepare an annual report on the department's progress towards goals set forth in the Racial Equity Action Plan. The annual report shall include relevant data on the status of Racial Equity in the department's workforce and its provision of services to the public. The report shall include an analysis of the status of City employees by race, including new hires, promotions, classifications, salaries, civil service and exempt positions, disciplinary actions, medical separations, and complaints regarding discrimination in the workplace. The Department of Human Resources shall complete the first report by December 31, 2019, and shall submit it to the Office, the Mayor, and the Board of Supervisors. Nothing in this subsection (g) requires the Department of Human Resources to release information that would violate any employee's right to privacy or any applicable law.

This includes, but is not limited to, the power to hold public hearings on any subject relevant to the Office.
- (j) Undertaking for the General Welfare. In enacting and implementing this Section 12A.19, the City is assuming an undertaking only to promote the general welfare. It is not assuming, nor is it imposing on its officers and employees, an obligation for breach of which it is liable in money damages to any person who claims that such breach proximately caused injury.
- (k) Severability. If any section, subsection, sentence, clause, phrase, or word of this Section

 12A.19, or any application thereof to any person or circumstance, is held to be invalid or unconstitutional by a decision of a court of competent jurisdiction, such decision shall not affect the validity of the remaining portions or applications of the Section. The Board of Supervisors hereby declares that it would have enacted this Section, including each and every subsection, sentence, clause, phrase, and word not declared invalid or unconstitutional, without regard to whether any other portion of this Section or application thereof would be subsequently declared invalid or unconstitutional.

Section 3. Effective Date. This ordinance shall become effective 30 days after enactment. Enactment occurs when the Mayor signs the ordinance, the Mayor returns the ordinance unsigned or does not sign the ordinance within ten days of receiving it, or the Board of Supervisors overrides the Mayor's veto of the ordinance.

Amendments to Current Law

The proposed ordinance would create an Office of Racial Equity ("Office") as a division of the Human Rights Commission Department under the direction of the Executive Director of the Human Rights Commission. The Racial Equity Framework will be submitted to the Board of Supervisors by June 30, 2020, for consideration and possible adoption by the Board, and will be updated at least every five years thereafter.

The proposed ordinance requires each City department to develop a Racial Equity Action Plan based on the Racial Equity Framework. The Plan shall address racial disparities within the department and in the department's services to the public. Departments' initial Plans must be completed by December 31, 2020, and must be updated every five years thereafter. Beginning in 2022, each department must provide an annual update by April 1 on progress towards the goals in the Plan that will be submitted to the Office, the Mayor, and the Board of Supervisors. The Office shall oversee development of Departments' Plans and shall provide guidance to departments on the content of the Plans and the annual updates.

The proposed ordinance also tasks the Office with preparing a Racial Equity Report Card, which will be a study of racial disparities across the City in specific policy areas. The Office may partner with other City departments, academic institutions, or non-profit policy institutions to conduct the study and prepare the Report Card.

The Office will also be tasked with reporting on ordinances introduced at the Board of Supervisors after January 1, 2021, that may have an impact on racial equity or racial disparities, in the following policy areas: housing/land use, employment, economic security, public health, and public safety. The Office shall prepare an analysis of such ordinances and submit it to the Board within 30 days of referral or before the Board first considers the ordinance, whichever occurs first.

The Office will also be responsible for developing a process for racial reconciliation, for developing policy priorities for achieving racial equity, for supporting department strategies and providing technical assistance for achieving racial equity, and for developing a budget equity assessment tool that will assist in evaluating budget priorities and allocations.

The proposed ordinance requires departments to designate staff to act as racial equity leaders, who will coordinate the department's racial equity activities.

Finally, the proposed ordinance would require the Department of Human Resources to prepare an annual report concerning racial equity in the City workforce.
