[Urging Sky Chefs and Gate Gourmet to Negotiate with UNITE HERE Local 2]

Resolution urging Sky Chefs and Gate Gourmet to engage in good-faith negotiations with UNITE HERE Local 2 representing airline catering workers at San Francisco International Airport.

RESOLUTION NO.

WHEREAS, San Francisco International Airport (SFO) catering workers represented by UNITE HERE Local 2 have been seeking higher living wages and less expensive health care plans; and

WHEREAS, UNITE HERE Local 2 is the hotel and restaurant workers' union of both San Francisco and San Mateo counites, representing housekeepers and dishwashers; servers and bartenders; and cooks and bellmen who welcome and serve millions of visitors every year to the Bay Area; and

WHEREAS, UNITE HERE Local 2 represents more than 18,000 airline food workers nationwide, including 1,500 employees in SFO's airline kitchens operated by subcontractors Sky Chefs and Gate Gourmet; and

WHEREAS, Sky Chefs and Gate Gourmet pack food and drinks for major airlines like United, Delta, and American Airlines, which make huge profits while their catering workforce struggles to pay the unaffordable costs of health care with extremely low poverty wages;

WHEREAS, UNITE HERE Local 2 estimates that less than half of the airline catering workers at SFO have health insurance and only 10% have a child or family member covered; and

WHEREAS, Median wage for airline catering employees is currently $18.66 an hour, which is too low for its members to afford a place to live in much of the Bay Area; and

Supervisor Peskin BOARD OF SUPERVISORS WHEREAS, Many employees making poverty wages are often working multiple jobs, sometimes for more than 100 hours a week to make ends meet; and

WHEREAS, UNITE HERE Local 2 demands that wage increases are significant enough for workers to quit their second jobs and not have to rely on extensive amounts of overtime to avoid homelessness; and

WHEREAS, UNITE HERE Local 2 members at Gate Gourmet voted unanimously at SkyChef by a 99.3% majority to authorize a strike against their employers; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, That the Board of Supervisors of the City and County of San Francisco urges Sky Chefs and Gate Gourmet to engage in good-faith negotiations with UNITE HERE Local 2 in their efforts to achieve parity in wages and benefits; and, be it

FURTHER RESOLVED, That the Board of Supervisors of the City and County of San Francisco hereby directs the Clerk of the Board to transmit this Resolution to Sky Chefs and Gate Gourmet upon final passage.
